

THE GOLD LEAF.

ESTABLISHED 1881. BY THAD R. MANNING.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3, 1907.

W YOURSELF, MR. JUDGE.

A sermon at Charlotte, which a trifling sensational, an evangelist, is well known locally, quoted North Carolina judge of the superior court, as follows: If you bring these women before me and prove that they have yielded to prizes, I will see to it that they are put upon the chain gang with the nigger who shoots craps at a cent a crack. Like the Wilmington Messenger, I want the name of the distinguished artist who would send the decent men of this grand old state to the jail with the lowest type of criminals. The alleged utterance from the bench is the most tempestuous thing of the kind ever in print, and if any North Carolina judge said it he ought to be flogged and forever degraded. It is wrong, we admit, to condemn the art, but when a judge, so far from himself, when he is ignorant that he cannot distinguish between the gamblers and the best women to play cards in their own homes, is time for the newspapers to pick him out and brand him, however in his station, for the sake of his people. If any judge made such a statement he must know that he will not keep his word; if he keeps his word he cannot keep his position, for North Carolina has not reached that point, thank God, where it would send our wives and mothers and sisters to the chain gang. There must be some mistake. We hope that the evangelist is in error, and if any judge did make that statement it is right that the public should have his name. There are not enough judges in North Carolina to send a decent woman to the jail with black criminals—there is not one judge who would dare impose that sentence.—Raleigh Evening Times.

Twenty-Five Years.

Kind Words Said About the Gold Leaf on Rounding Out Its 25th Year.

Charlotte News. We congratulate the Henderson GOLD LEAF on its 25 years of prosperity and achievement. The GOLD LEAF has done a great work for Henderson and for his good work we congratulate Editor Manning.

Barham Sun. The Henderson GOLD LEAF has entered upon its twenty-sixth year. It was started by Mr. Thad R. Manning, its present editor and owner, on December 15, 1881. The GOLD LEAF is one of the best papers in the State, and we wish Brother Manning many more years of usefulness.

Wilmington Messenger. Our congratulations to Brother Manning of the Henderson GOLD LEAF. That paper under his successful management has just completed its twenty-fifth year. It is the leading weekly paper in that part of the State. It stands for and boldly advocates everything that is for the good of its State and town.

When the cold winds dry and crack the skin a box of salve can save much discomfort. In buying salve look for the name on the box to avoid any imitations, and be sure you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold at Parker's Two Drug Stores.

The life story of E. H. Harriman, the man who reorganized the Union Pacific Railroad and created the "Harriman System" of Western roads, is at last told at length in the January Review of Reviews by Carl Snyder. Very little material of an authentic nature has heretofore been printed concerning this modern "Columbus of Roads," as the editor of the Wall Street Journal very aptly styles Mr. Harriman. The article by Mr. Snyder is both illuminating and convincing. It is based on a thorough study of the Western railroad situation, and of Mr. Harriman's relations thereto.

$100 Reward, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Crowder-Dorsey.

Beautiful Marriage at the Church of the Holy Innocents, Saturday Evening, Dec. 29th.

Contributed. At 4:30 o'clock Saturday evening, Dec. 29th, Mr. Ronald Bonar Crowder led to the hymenal altar Miss Ethel Seabrook Dorsey, the lovely, intellectual and accomplished daughter of Mr. Melville Dorsey and wife (Annie Elizabeth Cooper). The ceremony was performed at the Church of the Holy Innocents, Henderson, N. C., the Rev. Julian E. Ingie, officiating.

The interior of the church was beautiful in its Christmas decorations, clusters of electric lights twinkling amidst the evergreens—and was crowded with interested relatives and friends to witness the beautiful and impressive scene. Miss Mary Dunn graciously presided at the organ, rendering Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bride and groom entered and Loehengren's as a recessional.

The ushers were Messrs. Sydney P. Cooper and Spotswood Burwell, S. K. Rowland and Alexander Davis in conventional black with white rose-bud and fern boutonnieres.

Misses Leila Shannon and Julia Cooper, consisting of the bride's bridesmaids, were in white net over white, affeta silk, and lace, white picture hats, carrying bouquets of pink LaFrance roses, tied with streamers of delicate tulle, were the bridesmaids. They came in alone, each following a couple of ushers. Miss Laurine Dorsey sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and entered with the bride. The bride wore a gown of white net over affeta silk, lace decorations, black picture hat, white bouquet of bride-maid roses tied with tulle.

The ring service was used, typical of the day. It left immediately after the ceremony for the depot accompanied by many friends, (the bride had the groom drive her by her home, and she had her bouquet to her mother)—and amidst showers of rice and good wishes they left on the Southern bound train for Uniontown, Ala., their future home.

Beautiful bridal gifts from Nevada, New York, Washington City, Mississippi, Tennessee, Virginia, Alabama and North Carolina, attested the popularity of the happy young couple.

Out of town guests who attended were Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Gulick of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crawford of Warren county, Mr. Crowder of Nevada, Mr. Thomas Lynch of Oxford, Mr. J. T. Britt, editor of the Public Ledger of Oxford, Mr. Weldon Hawkins of Ridge-way, Misses Fannie and Gertrude Gregory and Mrs. Clifton Roberts of Oxford.

The evening before the marriage a number of young friends called to see the bride at her home, and she had a very elegant and beautiful party. The bride and groom were beautifully entertained, elegant refreshments being served.

Miss Dorsey was a favorite in Henderson and will be sadly missed in the social circle. She is a grand-daughter of the late Col. Samuel Smith Cooper, who was prominent in this section, and was a commissioned officer of the North Carolina militia in 1862. Her ancestors were prominent in Colonial times in North Carolina, Virginia and Maryland.

Mr. Crowder is a successful business man of Alabama, but a native of North Carolina and has many relatives and friends in our State. He was a resident of Henderson several years and was highly respected and popular here. Congratulations from his many friends.

And now— "Fair bride—a wreath for thee. Of sweet and gentle love among For wedded love was pure and true. In Eden's happy bowers.

"Fair bride—a song for thee. A song of joyous measure. For thy cup of hope shall be Filled with honeyed pleasure.

"Fair bride—a tear for thee. A tear in all thy gladness. For thy young heart has not yet Joy unmixed with sadness.

"Fair bride—a smile for thee. To shine away thy sorrow. For Heaven is kind today, and we will hope as well tomorrow.

"Fair bride—a prayer for thee. That all thy hopes possessing. Thy soul may praise her God, and He May crown thee with His blessing."

TRAINED NURSE

Writes a Letter the People.

"To whom it May Concern: I am a trained nurse of nine years' experience in hospitals and private cases, and for the benefit of the people of Fall River I wish you would purchase my experience with the cod liver oil preparation called Vinol. I was completely prostrated from overwork, had no appetite, could not sleep, my kidneys, liver and bowels became inactive, and as I grew weaker I could not retain either medicine or food on my stomach, and raised blood. The doctors said my condition was critical and I would probably die.

"As I had seen Vinol prescribed for my patients with such remarkable results, I decided to try it myself. After the first bottle I began to improve. I continued its use, and soon began to sleep and eat well; every organ in my body was strengthened and became normal, until it seemed good to be alive and was restored to perfect health and strength.

"I believe Vinol is the most potent and delicious cod liver oil preparation and tonic builder in the world, and it is such a blessing to be able to take into the system all the body building and medicinal elements of cod liver oil without the nauseating greasy oil itself.

"I advise all my patients who need strength, rich, red blood, and flesh tissue to take Vinol, as it is so far superior to old-fashioned cod liver oil emulsions and other tonics." Elizabeth M. Cremond, Trained Nurse, Boston, Mass.

In Henderson we sell Vinol on a positive guarantee to return money if it fails. W. W. Parker, Druggist.

NOTE—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Henderson, it is now for sale at the leading drug stores in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

"The Player Maid"

A Splendid Attraction at the Grand Theatre Saturday Night—Miss Florence Davis and Elliott Dexter, Supported by a Strong Cast.

Contributed. The organ recital at the Presbyterian church, Thursday evening, December 27, was a notable event and one that will not soon be forgotten. That it was the best organ recital ever given here is not simply due to the fact that this is the first pipe organ to be installed in the town.

Henderson has perhaps never before listened to the equal of Prof. J. A. Miller, a founder member of the American Guild of Organists, and is well known as one of the best musicians and teachers of music in this country.

The programme was of the highest order both in the selections chosen for the recital and in their rendition. Mr. Miller, as master of the organ and can bring out all the music there is in it. He was much pleased with this instrument—its sweetness of tone and perfect response to his efforts, these qualities being uncommonly good for a small instrument like this.

A most pleasing feature of the programme was the singing of Miss Susie Lanthier, of Durham, and Miss Olive Harris, who sang two excellent selections and whose voices never appeared to grow tired.

The church was packed to its fullest capacity, and the large assemblage listened from first to last with absorbed attention. Perhaps Mr. Miller received the approval from an audience than he did here when the printed programme having been exhausted, he turned about to the organ and played a few pieces for special selections followed one upon the other. Even after the main audience had left, a small circle of music lovers still lingered, and for half an hour longer requests for special selections followed one upon the other. A very interesting feature of the programme was the playing of the "The Baltimore News" dramatic critic had the following to say of Miss Florence Davis and Elliott Dexter in "The Player Maid":

"As the madcap actress, Mistress Hallam, Miss Florence Davis is was gloriously beautiful and bewitching. The change of emotion, of which she is capable, astonished the audience; one did not know all the time whether she was jesting or whether she was serious. A scene in the first act well illustrates this. Lady Dorothy Hastings (Miss Price) seeks Mistress Hallam (Miss Davis) in the latter's dressing room at the theatre. She tells her that she wishes to be rid of her betrothed, whom she has never seen, and asks, as Miss Hallam is such a wonderful actress, to furnish her with a letter to her betrothed. Miss Davis flies into a rage, declares that the man is her own lover and that Lady Dorothy shall never have him. At the right moment she reveals that she was but exhibiting her powers as an actress, so that the lady could justify whether or not she was capable of imitating her betrothed. Her every word and gesture showed the grief-stricken jealous woman, then came the quick change to the happy young couple, butting and red. All is said of Miss Davis when it is affirmed that she is a great actress. Elliott Dexter who supports her will some day be a matinee idol. He is one of the most perfectly proportioned men seen on the stage, and his work is of the most pleasing kind. He makes love in the way men do; not in the way some actors think men should. Mr. Dexter, in a few years will rank with the first actors."

Special Announcement Regarding the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sure Aids to Perfect Sanitary Conditions.

The air arising from toilet rooms loaded with impurities—violent by odors, etc.—is poisonous air. Like slow poison, too, it affects the health, as eminent authorities agree that many forms of nausea, headache, and other complaints can be produced in a previously healthy person by exposure to an atmosphere rendered impure by odors and impurities from the unguarded toilet room.

Safeguard Your Health by Using The Taussig Automatic Disinfectors.

Attached in position they discharge a deodorizing fluid directly into the bowls of the toilet, destroy all odor and remove the impurities. They do the work more thoroughly, quickly, and surely than any other cleaning, effecting a large saving in time, labor, and expense, and making those rooms CLEAN and SANITARY, as they ought to be.

Let us talk to you about this important matter. The cost is small and the protection and satisfaction great.

Ask for the Genuine

And see that you get what you ask for

The largely increased demand for Sun Cured tobacco, created and sustained by the distinctive quality of the original Reynolds' Sun Cured tobacco, has encouraged other manufacturers to place on the market imitation brands and tags which are made to look so near like the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured that unsuspecting chewers and dealers receive the imitations under the belief that they are getting the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured tobacco.

Look close and see that the letters on the tag spell R-e-y-n-o-l-d-s' Sun Cured, and you cannot be deceived in getting what you ask for and want,—the best value for your money that can be produced from the genuine Sun Cured tobacco, grown where the best sun-cured tobacco grows.

ASK FOR "REYNOLDS" and see that you get the original and genuine Sun Cured tobacco. It's like you formerly got, before Reynolds' Sun Cured was offered to the trade, costing from 60c to $1.00 per pound, and is sold at 50c per pound in 5c cuts, strictly 10 and 15 cent plugs.

"A Message From Mars."

When the messenger from the planet Mars makes his appearance, the self-fish man of the earth is handled with costly gloves. He is stripped of his rags of a beggar. "Rags may be royal raiment when worn for virtue's sake," but in the case of Horace Parker, the selfish man, it is different. He is receiving his just reward. This play will be presented here at the Grand Theatre Friday night, Jan. 11th.
