Think More--- Spend Less.

Why is it that the average man is worth so much less in money and property than we have a right to expect him to be? It isn't because he doesn't make the money, for the average man is industrious and has earned from $10,000 to $30,000 in the past ten years. It is because he doesn't give much serious thought either to his income or outgo. Serious thought would teach him the true value of a dollar; then ne would spend carefully and save steadily. That system soon places any man ahead of his fellows.

THE TENDERFOOT A SPLENDID

AUDIENCE.

LARGE AND WELL PLEASED

Magnificent New Opera House-

For months the people of the town had been looking forward to this event with deep interest, and they were not disappointed in their high expectations. The finished building and the opening play were equally a complete success.

This building reflects great credit upon the zeal and enterprise of Maniger Aronson, as well as those who have backed him in the enterprise. It is a distinct addition to the town and splendidly supplies a long felt want. Whatever may be the future rowth of Henderson, the GRAND will be an ornament to the town and meet all demands of its kind for many years to come. There is probably no other town of its size in the State that can boast of an opera house as andsome, commodious and altogether well equipped, in stage and floor space, convenience, safety and general up-to-date fittings.

The opening attraction, "The Tenterfoot," was in keeping with the ouilding and the occasion. It was doubtless the most ambitious venure in the way of a theatrical perormance ever attempted in the town. The play has been very successfully presented in all the cities, and is one of the best of its kind. It is clever and clean, and is carrying an able company. On the evening of its appearance in Henderson, it was greeted by a crowded house; besides the town people there being a number present from adjacent places. And every-body was pleased and satisfied with verything. It was, in short, an entire success, and Manager Aronson will doubtless be encouraged to bring other attractions to town of the same order of

A very happy feature of the evenof appreciation spoken by one of our most esteemed citizens, Hon. A. C. Zollicoffer. Just before the curtain rose for the last act, Mr. Zollicoffer asked permission to say a few words, expressive of the sentiment of the Henderson people. It was a graceful act, in excellent keeping with the ocasion, and struck a sympathetic hord in the minds of the audience. Mr. Zollicoffer spoke in substance as follows: While we wait the change of scenery for the next act of this splendid entertain-ment. I crave your indulgence and pa-A Valuable Accession to the Ranks tience for a few moments, that I may speak a word in order that due credit nay be given to whom much credit is

Some six or eight months ago Mr. B. S. Aronson, one of our enterprising and public spirited citizens, conceived the idea of building and equipping a modern up-to-date opera house in Hendersonsomething that would reflect credit, and keep pace with, and meet the necessitie of our fast growing city.

To this end he had prepared the planand specifications, presented the same to our citizens, and appealed to them to aid him in this undertaking by taking days with her purents, Mr. and Mrs. very pleasant impression upon our stock in a corporation to be chartered and organized, and known as the "Henderson Amusement Company." No one was permitted to take any large amount of the stock, the idea being to distribute t amongst all our people, that all might become personally interested.

> As is always the case with Henderson's progressive people, they responded liberally to his appeal. Many feared at the time, and even prophesied, that he would never be able to carry out his plans. Nothing daunted, however, he continued to press foward and onward with his work. and the result best speaks for itself. Standing here, as a monument to his untiring energy and industry, is this magnificent structure-complete in every detail, and one of the most modern up-todate opera houses in the State of North Carolina, and being, as I am informed, the only ground floor theatre building here, to the aid and assistance that had been his without stint, that many in the and easy and safe of exit, comfortably beated, brilliantly lighted, elegant stage It was a touching farewell, eloquent settings and appointments, and beautiand not overdrawn, except possibly his ful secenery-a building and equipment kindly allusions to the editor of this pa- that any city might very justly feel proud myself, and in behalf of the citizens of the town, here before this spendid audience, composed as it is not only of own people, but also of many of our neighbors, friends and sweet hearts from adjoining towns and cities, who have graced this occasion and honored us with their presence, to publicly thank Mr. Aronson, and his associates for the great work they have church hierarchy for him and as he grows | done. They have not only given us the best opera house in the State, but Barney Aronson, true to his promise, has opened it to the public by securing for the first performance here to-night this spendid troupe-one of the brightest, best and cleanest shows which ever appeared in

> At the conclusion of Mr. Zollicoffer's remarks there was calls for Mr. Aronson, but his modesty kept him in the background and the final act of one finest and most delightful theatrical events ever witnessed in Henderson was proceeded with.

THE GRAND THEATRE Christmas Tree and Entertainment

ATTRACTION - GREETED BY By South Henderson Baptist Sunday-School.

Formal Opening of Henderson's South Henderson Baptist Sunday school had their Christmas tree and en tertainment Wednesday night, Dec. 27th The tree was a perfect beauty, a lovely holly, heavily loaded with beautiful and attractive gifts from Santa Claus. The Mr. A. C. Zollicoffer Embraces the Occasion to Pay Merited church was haudsomely decorated over Tribute to Manager B. S. Aronson windows and corners with cedar and holly. Then from corners to centre of Friday evening, December 21st, was | church and over Christmas tree was beautifully entwined and bedecked with soft tints made of decorating paper. The lights were displayed in three trees, Christmas tree in the centre. The evergreens and other decorations were arranged by the Sunday-school boys and girls.

Promptly at 7 o'clock the exercises began, Although the church was crowded to the utmost, good behavior and order was observed. There were four young ladies awarded special prizes for learning and reviewing every Sunday-school lesson (Subject and Golden Text) for the year 1906. 160 girls and boys were made happy by receiving a present direct from the hands of old Santa Claus (Mr. J. S. Royster with A. T. Barnes.) After the exercises the entire audience was treated to apples, candy and raisins and all went home merry and happy. The following program was rendered

South Henderson Methodist Episcopal Sunday-School Enjoy a Christmas Tree Entertainment.

Contributed.

On the 25th of December, at night, a arge and appreciative crowd assembled to witness the exercises of the South Henderson Methodist Episcopal Sundayschool. The tree was beautifully decorated by the teachers and showed great taste, many remarking upon its beauty. Exercises commenced promptly at 7:30 o'clock, opening with an address by the superintendent of the Sunday-school, Mr. W. L. Garlick, who said:

Ladies and Gentlemen and Sundayschool Children: This is indeed a grand occasion and one which, while it brings joy and thankfulness to our hearts bears with it one of the most beautiful and touching lessons in the book of life. Hand in hand have we asscended the hill. Hand in hand are we descending into the val-ley, a valley lighted with the undying and unselfish lamp of faithfulness, love and devotion. What a privilege for us to be here to witness this beautiful sight and to see these children's hearts made glad because another Christmas day has come. We have met here to commemo rate the bith of our Savior and to lift up our hearts in gratitude to Him for the many blessings He has so lavishly be stowed upon us during this year.

May your journey through life be al ways as smooth as it is now, and may you all ever be protected from storms and straits as you sail through life's tempestuous sea and when your work on earth is done and your life on earth is over may you all enter into the Golden City where the weary are at rest.
