CHOOSE GOOD MEN.

As the time approaches interest is growing in the town election. This is well. Too much thought cannot be given to the question of who shall be selected to fill the various town respects "The Man on the Box" deserves offices, those of town commissioner especially. This is a matter of very this season. It is a fresh, vital and great importance and one that demands the exercise of judgment and forethought. These men ought to be chosen with regard to their fitness for the position and an eye single to the public good. No mistake should fied by soundness, sweetness, chivalry should be made. Henderson cannot afford to take a backward step. The next few years will count much for the future growth and development of the town. We cannot afford the earnestness under the pleasantry. to make any mistake in municipal His impersonation of Lieutenant Woburgovernment-the men we choose to Mr. Figman as a comedian of great and earry forward the policy of progress high power.

and improvement already begun.

Each ward should elect suitable men as town commissioners. The liver does if it's torpid. Then the bile next year or so will be a trying time in conducting the town affairs. A Fresh, Vital and Charming Play Full of Pure, Sparkling Comedy

The Minneapolis (Minn.) Tribune says this of "The Man on the Box," Max Figman's splendid play which will be presented at the Grand Theatre next Thursday evening:

That there is really some new kind of fun in the world was delightfully and convincingly demonstrated at the Metropolitan last evening by Max Figman and a uniformly excellent company in Grace Livingston Furniss' dramatiza-tion of Harold MaeGrath's popular story, "The Man on the Box." In many to be called the most entertaining play that has been seen at the Metropolitan charming play, and should be seen by everyone who appreciates pure, sparkling comedy, but upon rational, if some what fantastic lines and admirably played in every particular. The play is essentially comedy of the highest and best type, tinged, vitalized and intensiand good breeding that give it compell ing and winning individual charm.

Max Figman won and held his audience by his refined comedy-spicy. sharp, individual and consistently funny, yet never failing to convey the impression of ton is masterly in its way and marks

The Judge Uses Forceful Language.

Judge W. B. Simmons of Fincastle, Va., told the reporter that L. & M. Paint was used on his residence in 1882, and held its color well for 21 years; he furthermore said that 3 years ago he was induced to use another paint and is sorry he did, because the other paint didn't make good. The Judge will now always use L. & M., because he knows any defect exists in L. & M. Paint the house will be repainted for nothing.

The L. & M. Zine hardens the L. & .M White Lead and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron for 10 to 15 years. Actual cost of L. & M. about $1.20 per gallon.

Donations of L. & M. made to churches. Sold byelville Dorsey.

Pretty Home Wedding.

Contributed

At the home of the bride's mother near Henderson, on Sunday evening, March 31st, Miss Agnes Nicholson and Mr. Richard Hopkins were united in marriage. Rev. R. C. Craven pastor of Meth-odist Episcopal church, officiated. The bride was tastefully attired in a costume of white silk. The attendants were William Hopkins, brother of the goom, and W. W. Workman; Miss Bobbie Nicholson, sister of the bride. and Miss Gracie Pleming. A number of invited guests were present and the occasion was a most enjoyable one.
