The temperature the past few days has been very much below normal. It is not until the 1st of May that we can expect to see a return to the normal temperature.

One who has perhaps been incensed by the removal, suggests that the people they ought to put in telephone and adopt a general directory system.

"What Happened to Jones?" by Edna Conger owns the title of the "masterpiece of farce comedy." It has conquered more audiences than can play, large or otherwise, in a decade. At the Grand Theatre Friday night, May 3rd.

Mrs. B. W. Spencer and little daughter, Rosa May, of Burlington, N. C. are visiting Mrs. G. W. L. Adams on their way to Oxford to stay awhile. Mr. Spencer was formerly operator at the Southern depot in this place but is now manager of the office in Burlington.

Mrs. J. T. Alderman came home Tuesday from Norfolk where she has been in a hospital, having undergone a serious surgical operation some time ago. Her friends will be pleased to know that she is improving rapidly and with regaining strength will soon be well again.

The dispensary has been moved from its former location on Montgomery street to the Owen Davis building on Main street, near the Southern depot. It was suddenly found to be too near a place of public worship and was removed, but the fact that it was put near the Grand School and remote from police surveillance did not seem to be taken into consideration.

Calitine, the new decorative finish for walls and ceilings, is one of the best articles of the kind on the market. Ready for use when dissolved in cold water. Artistic, economical, sanitary. Will not chip or rub off. Produces beautiful effects at very little cost. A splendid fire retardant and germ killer as well as a cheap and durable wall finish. Ten beautiful shades and white. Ask Maurice J. O'Neil for further information, color card and prices.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Green and little daughter, Cecelia, of Cedarville, Ga., came Saturday and spent Sunday and Monday in Henderson. Mrs. Green and the little girl had been visiting relatives at Margarettsville, N. C. her old home, and Mr. Green met them here. They were cordially greeted by having many friends in Henderson where they spent their childhood years previous to Mr. Green's promotion and transfer to the Birmingham division of the Seaboard Air Line Railway about a year ago.

A Chicken Eating Rooster.

Mr. Ollie Parham tells us of an unusual case of a chicken eating chickens. Mr. Hewett Hicks had a Plymouth rock rooster that was as bad as a hawk in this respect. Five or six little chickens disappeared one after another and no cause could be assigned. They could not be found lying about the yard dead anywhere and what became of them was a several days wonder. Finally the mystery was solved by the rooster being seen in the act of killing and eating the little chicks devouring them with as much avidity as he would a Jamez or a tobacco worm.

Making a Good Impression.

Oxford Public Ledger. We are pleased to hear from some of our business men that Mr. Clifton, the new agent of the Seaboard in Oxford is proving a polite and accommodating official, which will be appreciated by our people. We could never understand why any agent or clerk thought they were the "whole cheese" and treat the patrons of their road with perfect indifference and oftentimes are discourteous. The public love to travel with a polite conductor and train crew, and come in contact with civil and courteous agents.

Suited to all Classes and Tastes. When the express trains cut out 60 miles in 60 minutes, it was a revelation in speed; but it has since been equalled and surpassed. When "What Happened to Jones" came to life and cut out 60 miles in 60 minutes, it was also a revelation—in language. This has never been equalled. It is a record which has stood for over twenty years and is destined to stand for at least twenty more.

It is a play suited to all classes and tastes, clean, wholesome, rollicking; once seen never forgotten. A play that has been the topic of more conversation than anything before the public in a decade. In full equipment with a superior cast headed by Richard Milton, it will be seen at the Grand Theatre Friday night, May 3rd.

My Best Friend. Alexander Denton, who lives on Rural Route 1, Fort Edward, N. Y., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is my best earthly friend. It cured me of asthma six years ago. It has also performed a wonderful cure of incipient consumption for my son, who is now a first bottle and the terrible cough, and this accomplished, the other symptoms left one by one, until she was perfectly well. Dr. King's New Discovery's power over coughs and colds is simply marvelous." No other remedy has ever equaled it. Fully guaranteed by Melville Dorsey, druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The Watkins Hardware Company, always up to the time, ever alert to satisfy the wants of the people, have secured the sale for this vicinity of the great Gibraltar Fire Resisting Paints. Gibraltar stands fire, stands the sun and water. Guaranteed.

A house will be built here out of dry seasoned fatty pine shingles and with cornice windows and doors. Painted inside and out, and broken dry goods boxes placed inside, outside and on the roof all ignited with kerosene oil and set on fire Friday, May 10th, at 8:30 o'clock and on Saturday at 4 p. m., May 11th, showing how these materials resist fire. Remember the dates and do not fail to see these tests.

Adcock--Bryan.

Marriage of Mr. Eugene W. Adcock and Miss Lucy Bryan Tuesday, April 30th—Ceremony Occurs at Presbyterian Church in Presence of a Large Number of Interested Spectators at High Noon.

A very pretty midday marriage occurred at the Presbyterian church Tuesday, April 30th, the contracting parties being Mr. Eugene Wesley Adcock and Miss Lucy Williams Bryan, both of Henderson. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with potted plants and cut flowers, the room darkened and lights burning producing a scene of loveliness and subdued splendor in harmony with the occasion.

Mrs. C. A. Lewis was organist and most pleasingly did she do her part. An appropriate music program had been arranged which was beautifully rendered while the audience was assembling. Mrs. S. K. Rowland and Miss Olive Harris each sang a solo and a number of selections were rendered by Mrs. Lewis accompanied by Mr. C. E. Pope on the trombone.

The ushers were Messrs. S. T. Peace, Samuel Watkins, Jr., Henry Jenkins and Frank Lyon of the other side. Mrs. Wesley Adams, sister, and Mrs. Dr. Brooks of Durham, cousin of the bride, were dames of honor. The bride entered from the front vestibule leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Harry Bryan, and the groom came in from the other side attended by his best man, Mr. Wesley Adams. Meeting at the altar they took their respective positions and the words that made the young couple man and wife were pronounced by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Hesterlite. It was a beautiful and impressive ceremony and was witnessed by a large number of interested friends and well wishers of the young people.

Mr. Adcock is the popular and efficient book-keeper of the Southern Grocers Company, and is a young man of exemplary habits and character esteemed for his individual worth and fidelity to duty and friends. Mrs. Adcock is a young woman of exceptionally fine qualities of mind and heart whose lovely character and sweet disposition make her a favorite with all who know her.

Immediately after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Adcock left on the Northbound train for an extended trip to Washington, New York and Niagara Falls.

The Daughters With Us.

The Eighteenth annual convention of the King's Daughters and Sons convened in Henderson at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. We welcome these noble women, ever zealous in all works, and trust their meeting may be harmonious and promotive of the cause in which they are laboring. The attendance very good some of the most brilliant and consecrated women in the State being present. Mrs. Wm. H. S. Burgwyn of Weldon, is president, and she presides with grace and ease having a firm grasp upon the business of the convention.

Aside from the business of the convention the social side of it has been a most enjoyable feature. Henderson is proud to play host to such lovely guests and feels honored by their presence. If they shall be as delighted with their visit as our people are charmed with the visitors they will come again—and often.

Full proceedings of the convention will be published next week.

When the curtain goes up on the first act there is a laugh, when the curtain goes down on the last act, you are still laughing, and what is more consoling after a hard day's work than a good, hearty laugh? The Grand and Theatre Friday night, May 3rd.

Death of Mrs. Lizzie Moss Vivian.

Mrs. Lizzie Moss Vivian died in Raleigh Tuesday morning. Tuesday morning and the remains were brought here for burial. Mrs. Vivian was the daughter and only child of Dr. J. R. Moss, and most of her life was spent in this town, where she was raised. She was a graduate of Staunton (Va.) Female College, and as a young girl she was bright and attractive, pretty and admired and a favorite in any company she mingled with. An accomplished performer on the piano this brought her into prominent business relations with the Cable Piano Company with those interests she had been identified for several years, and the managers pay high tribute to her skill and success in representing their business.

The funeral was held from the home at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. H. Hesterlite conducting the service assisted by Rev. A. G. Dixon. Interment was made in Elmwood cemetery.

The press of Baltimore city and Charlotte Greensboro papers are very complimentary even to enthusiasm over success of exhibits and use of Gibraltar Fire Resisting Paints to be tested here May 10th. On sale by WATKINS HARDWARE CO.

The Play Tuesday Night.

The performance given at the Grand Theatre Tuesday night for the benefit of the King's Daughters was very good and reflected credit upon the performers. "Woodcock's Little Game" was the play, by home talent, and the manner in which it was presented was altogether pleasing. Where all did so well we must not particularize and to render credit to each it is only necessary to give the cast of characters, as follows:

Mr. Woodcock, Mr. C. H. Turner. Mr. Christopher Larkins, Mr. S. T. Peace. Mr. Adolphus Swandown, Mr. J. A. Moore. Mr. R. E. S. Aronson, Mr. R. E. S. Aronson. Mrs. Col. Caryer, Miss Leah Perry. Mrs. Woodcock, Mrs. J. C. Kittrell. Larkins, Miss E. Chavasse. Maid, Miss Claudia Hunter.

The choruses were very fine, the costuming pretty and appropriate. Those participating were Mrs. S. K. Rowland, Miss Lula Page, Miss Rebecca Butler, Miss Bettie Pittman, Miss Amy Butler, Miss Willie Parker, Miss Macy Chavasse. The gentlemen were Messrs. S. T. Peace, J. A. Moore, A. J. Davis, A. H. Cheek, R. G. S. Davis, Bennett Perry, Frank Harris.

Disturbed the Congregation. The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by continually coughing is requested to buy a bottle of Foley's Honey and Pepp. Sold by all Druggists.

Modern Phone System.

Extensive Improvements to be Made by the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company—Reconstruction of the Plant in Henderson, Including New Modern Central Energy Switchboard.

Mention was made in these columns some weeks ago that the Home Telephone and Telegraph Company of Henderson, with the interest of its patrons ever in mind and its desire at all times to give them the best telephone service possible, contemplated in the near future some extensive changes and improvements in their plant here.

Mr. T. C. Toepelman, General Manager, has just returned from New York where he purchased the necessary material and apparatus, and he informs us that work will begin at once on the reconstruction of the plant, which, when completed, will give us perhaps the most modern system in the State.

A new modern and up-to-date Central Energy switchboard is to be installed, every line made metallic circuit wholly rebuilt, and the outside work wholly reseat, using over ten thousand feet of cable, which will not only do away with the many wires in the business section of the town, but will vastly improve the service. This new plant will enable the subscriber to get a much quicker and more satisfactory service. With the adoption of the new switchboard it will be necessary for the subscriber to take down the receiver to ring "Central," while the replacing of the receiver in position will ring off.

It will take something like four months to complete the work, as the installation of this system will require practically a rehabilitation of the entire plant; but when finished the town of Henderson, with its progressive spirit, can boast of a thoroughly modern telephone exchange creditable to the Company and to the town and furnishing a service that will be in every way satisfactory to patrons. The improvements they propose making in keeping with the progressive spirit of the town, will require a very considerable outlay of money, and we feel sure that the liberal, progressive spirit shown will be greatly appreciated by their patrons.

Mr. Toepelman will personally engineer the installation, the immediate reconstruction to be under supervision of the Company's able foreman, Mr. W. G. Allen.

This Company is a home enterprise managed by our citizens, and as such the GOLD LEAF in common with our people generally has felt a keen interest and pride in its success and development. Its officers are courteous and considerate and their greatest desire is to furnish their patrons the very best service possible. And in this neither efforts nor money—as the exigencies require and the means at hand justify—are spared.

E. E. Hight.

The Well Known Watchmaker, Jeweler and Scientific Optician, Opens an Office and Engages in the Optical Business of Which He Will Make a Specialty in the Future.

Having sold out the jewelry and watchmaking business to Messrs. A. W. Ghoslin & Co., Mr. E. E. Hight, the well known watchmaker, jeweler and scientific optician, discontinues same except the optical line, of which he will make a specialty in the future. To this end he has opened an office over Dorsey's drug store where he has fitted up comfortable and suitable quarters and thoroughly equipped himself with every requisite to the successful and satisfactory conduct of the business.

Mr. Hight is no stranger to the people of this community. He has had twenty years experience, but his qualifications do not rest upon this alone, he understands the theoretical part as well. It has been a desire of Mr. Hight for years to engage in the optical business exclusively. By wide reading and close study he has acquired a knowledge of the business in theory as well as practice. And he proposes to keep right up with the times by furnishing himself with the latest and best books and the most modern equipment that can be obtained.

Equipped with the most approved scientific outfit and thoroughly prepared for the business, Mr. Hight will be able to correct all errors of refraction generally done by the aid of glasses—and they are many. He uses the following instruments, etc., among others: Pneumatic Refractor or Retinoscope, American Optical Trial Case, Charts: Emmetropic, Improved Graves, Color Blind, Dr. Snell's type of all kinds, New Style of Astigmatic Distant Type, the Coville Ophthalmic Cabinet, and by the use of electric lights can fit same by day or night. Examination free.

Paints in all colors furnished in Gibraltar Paints, that resist fire. Guaranteed durable and lasting and will be tested with fire May 10th at 8:30 o'clock by setting house on fire that's been painted with them. On sale by WATKINS HARDWARE CO.

Burroughs--Upperman.

Mr. Roger Gregory Burroughs and Miss Sallie Daniel Upperman Take the Soma Vows of Matrimony—Ceremony Occurred in Louisburg on Wednesday, April 24th.

The wedding vows of Miss Sallie Upperman and Mr. Roger Gregory Burroughs, of Henderson, were happily spoken on Wednesday morning last at ten o'clock at the Methodist church, Rev. W. B. Morton, brother-in-law of the bride, performing the ceremony. The church had been beautifully decorated for the happy occasion, and the pews were crowded with friends and admirers to witness the event. The dark clouds of the preceding eve were entirely dissipated by the bright sunshine of a lovely April day, comparable only to the smiles of the lovely bride and her beautiful maids. The fine organ under the master touch of Miss Sallie Williams pealed forth the beautiful bridal march as the party entered the church. Mrs. J. L. Palmer was dame of honor, Mr. Thomas Bullock best man, and Miss Bula Mitchner maid of honor with Mr. Jacques Phelps. The ushers were Messrs. C. F. Upperman, Alex. Clifton, J. H. Best, Henry T. Morris, R. G. S. Davis, and J. M. Coleman. The bridesmaids were as follows: Miss Alice Spruill with Mr. Sam Watkins, Jr., Miss Sallie V. Harris with Mr. P. H. Thomas, Miss Virginia Foster with Mr. Sam T. Peace, Miss Blanch Egerton with Dr. E. B. Tucker, Miss Nan Malone with Mr. C. V. Singleton, Miss Sallie Green with Mr. B. F. Harris.

The bride was attired in brocade satin, point lace trimmings made princess and carried a shower bouquet of roses, an lilies of the valley. The June of honor wore white net over blue tulle and carried pink roses. The maid of honor wore white net over pink tulle. The bridesmaids wore white silk all wearing black picture hats and carrying prayer books.

After the ceremony the happy couple left on the 11:20 train for eastern points.

Ball Park. With considerable enterprise and public spirit a number of gentlemen of the town have gotten together and organized a ball park company. They have leased ground near the buggy factory and will fit up same for the purpose.

The company is chartered, most of the required stock has been subscribed and paid in, but an organization has not yet been effected by the election of officers.

It is expected that the park will be finished in ten days or two weeks and some interesting athletic sports may be expected from that time on.

This is something the town has needed and the GOLD LEAF wants to thank the gentlemen interested, individually and collectively, for the commendable enterprise and public spirit thus manifested. Now let our people show their appreciation by turning out and patronizing such forms of athletic sports whenever occasion presents itself. This kind of innocent diversion cannot fail to benefit spectator and participant alike.

Death of Mr. L. A. Larkins. Mr. L. A. Larkins died at the home of his sister in Roanoke, Va., last Friday. The news of his death will carry sorrow to the hearts of many persons who knew him in Henderson and elsewhere. The remains were brought to Henderson and buried Saturday afternoon. Mr. Larkins was employed by the George A. Rose Company as book-keeper and assistant manager, about three years up to the middle of December when he was compelled to give up work on account of failing health. On the recommendation of his physician he went to Florida and sought work in the pine forests at a saw mill hoping that an outdoor life would prove beneficial to him. But the fatal malady from which he suffered had laid too firm a hold upon him and its progress was beyond the power of human aid or nature to stay. Realizing that the end was near, six weeks ago Mr. Larkins went to the home of his sister in Roanoke where he died. Deceased was a native of Pender county, near Wilmington, and was in the thirty-first year of his age. He was a man of fine character and steady habits, devoted to his business and loyal to duty and had the confidence and esteem of all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and his life was that of a progressive and consistent Christian. He leaves a wife besides numerous relatives and friends to mourn his death. Mr. Larkins was a Mason and when the body reached Henderson it was taken in charge by the lodge here and buried with Masonic honors.
