Fire Test Called Off.

Announcement was made last week that the fire test to demonstrate the fire-resisting qualities of Gibraltar paints, was postponed until Friday and Saturday of this week owing to inability of Mr. T. A. Gould, president of the company, who was to make the demonstration, to get here. Much as it is regretted by all parties concerned it is again postponed—called off till a future date to be announced later. A telegram received by the Watkins Hardware Company, agents for Gibraltar paints, states that Mr. Gould is unable to get here. He regrets to disappoint the people but it is unavoidable on his part, and the "show" will be pulled off at an early date as possible. The paint is here ready to be opened up and orders can be filled without waiting for a formal introduction in the manner indicated. Sold on a guarantee—something not every paint maker will do.

Pastor Installed.

Rev. J. R. Doan was formally installed as pastor of the Henderson Baptist church last Sunday morning. Rev. T. J. Taylor of Warrenton, preached the sermon, "The Place of a Baptist in Christian Work" being his theme. After the sermon which was most excellent one, well thought out and admirably delivered—forceful, feeling and effective—the installation ceremonies followed. Dr. Huffman officiated. Several persons were received into membership in the church and after the benediction was pronounced there was a general handshaking and welcoming by the congregation of pastor and the new members. At night there was an address by Dr. Huffman on "The Planting and Growth of Baptists in North Carolina," and only those who know him can appreciate what manner of talk it was. Monday night there was to have been an address on "The World Work of the Baptists," by Rev. C. J. Thompson. But he could not be here and Pastor Doan preached a sermon. Tuesday night Mr. J. W. Bailey delivered an address on "The Present Work of the Baptists in North Carolina," Full of patriotic sentiment, high inspiration and something of the marvelous achievements of the Baptist people in this State it was an effort that reflected credit upon this gifted young man and the subject to which he addressed himself. Wednesday night there was a round table discussion on "The Work of the Henderson Baptist Church," participated in by the pastor and members of the congregation.

Fatal Railroad Accident.

An accident occurred in the yard of the Seaboard Railroad here Saturday night with fatal result to the unfortunate victim, Oma Haithcock, a young white man who lived near the Harriet cotton mill, was run over by a freight train and had both legs cut off near the hips. He had been drinking and with a companion he was conducted away from the business part of town and ordered to go home some time previously. But he came back and afterwards attempted to get on a freight with the intention of beating his way to Raleigh he said. He got on the train just outside of the yard limit and when it stopped at the station he was pulled off and told to go away. When the train started he tried to get on again, but missed his hold and fell under the wheels. This was about 8 o'clock. A short while thereafter he was found lying on the track with both legs cut off. He had two bottles of whiskey in his pockets at the time. The unfortunate man was taken into the freight depot and laid on a mattress and made as comfortable as possible. He did not seem to suffer pain the shock deadening his nerves and paralyzing him. Physicians were summoned but it was seen that nothing could be done for him. It was only a question of how long he would live—but a few hours at most. The poor fellow seemed to fully realize his condition and said he alone was to blame. He was conscious up to the last and talked freely with those around him. He died about 5 o'clock Sunday morning.

Maccabees Have Pleasant Evening.

Henderson Tent No. 4, Knights of Maccabees, had "something doing" being the initiation of ten new members Wednesday night of last week. A degree team from Raleigh, consisting of J. E. Turner, State Commander, Dr. W. C. Horton, Record Keeper of Capital Tent, Capt. Z. P. Smith and Prof. S. M. Smith came down to assist in putting the candidates through in proper shape. In honor of the visiting brethren a banquet feast was spread to which a wide array of delicacies were provided. The bill of fare consisted of barbeque, chicken, chicken salad, potato salad, corn bread, loaf bread, crackers, pickles, coffee, apples, oranges, bananas, ice cream, cake. It was nicely cooked and well served—a spread that lacked nothing in the hearty relish and full enjoyment of those who sat around the table. It was an informal affair and therefore all the more enjoyable. Thad R. Manning was master of ceremonies and toast master. Rev. J. T. B. Hoover delivered an address of welcome which was responded to by Capt. Z. P. Smith of Raleigh. Both were in good taste, brief and to the point. The hungry crowd was not kept waiting by good speech making. Rev. O. N. Marshall asked a blessing and the assembled company was bidden to be seated and show appreciation of the kind thoughtfulness of those who had provided this feature of the entertainment, each for himself as his individual taste might dictate. The banquet finished the toast master called on Mr. J. E. Turner, Dr. W. C. Horton, Prof. S. M. Smith, Mr. H. F. Price, Dr. W. C. Horton, Capt. Z. P. Smith and Rev. O. N. Marshall to respond to toasts and each in his turn expressed himself in apposite and felicitous language making it a veritable feast of reason and a flow of wit. The degree work was then gone into and with its beautiful ritual and impressive ceremonies this was no less enjoyable than what had already been experienced. At the conclusion of this part of the program an adjournment was had and the occasion was given over to social intercourse. As the visiting brethren were going to leave on the night (early morning) train no one seemed to mind leaving the lodge room. There was more speech making participated in by Capt. Z. P. Smith, Mr. J. C. Turner, Prof. S. M. Smith, Thad R. Manning and others, when the best talks of the occasion were made. The fine sentiments expressed, the high ideals and fraternal spirit shown were alike edifying, inspiring, helpful. A call was made for the committee on entertainment who had performed their duties so well to whom recognition had been made several times without knowing who they were, to stand up and show themselves that they might be personally thanked. After some little hesitation on their part Messrs. O. R. Browning, J. M. Horney, E. H. Brown, Rev. O. N. Marshall and R. F. Price arose and pleaded guilty. Their "offense" had been great but with a promise that they might do so again some time in the future they were left with a rising vote of thanks, in which the good ladies who had rendered such valuable assistance in making the affair a splendid and enjoyable success, were included. It was one o'clock when good night was said and the lodge room was deserted. The visit of the Raleigh brethren was deeply appreciated and their interest in Henderson Tent No. 4, Knights of the Maccabees, will long abide in the hearts of the members.

Death of Mr. W. R. Biggs.

Mr. W. R. Biggs died at the home of his son, Mr. B. F. Biggs, in Henderson, last Thursday after an illness of about four months. He had dropsy and asthma and was a great sufferer but bore his affliction with patience and Christian fortitude well coming the transition from earthly sufferings to that state of perfect rest and joy which he looked for in the life to come, putting his full trust in the promises of Him whom he had tried for many years to serve. Mr. Biggs was a member of the Methodist Protestant church and a devout Christian. He was born August 11, 1833, and would have been 74 years old in August. His wife preceded him to the grave about seven years. Besides his son he leaves one daughter, Mrs. Annie Fuller of Gilburg, and several grandchildren. The funeral was held from the home Friday afternoon, Rev. A. G. Dixon conducting the service. Interment was made in the Confederate soldiers' section in Elmwood cemetery.

A Narrow Escape.

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant of Plank, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson bar into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it. I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at Melville Dorsey's drug store.

What Happened to Jones

At the Grand Theatre last Friday night "was a plenty." This was one of the richest plays ever presented in Henderson. It had been seen here twice before—by another company—but it is not less of its interest and enjoyment even to those to whom it was not new. Richard Milton, as Jones, a drummer, acted his part to perfection, and equally good in their respective roles were Frederick Wallace as Prof. Ebenezer Goodley; Miss Georgiana Wilson as Mrs. Goodley; Miss Grace Barton as Almira Starlight, the old maid; while Miss Joselyn Taylor as Marjorie, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Goodley; Miss Lora Tamareux as Cissy, the Professor's ward; Miss Gertrude Doherty as Helma, the servant, who saw nothing; Mr. Sidney Ewing as the Bishop of Ballarat, and Mr. C. W. Beach as Richard, in love with Marjorie, were equal to the characters essayed by them. It was a well balanced company, a delightful comedy, and nothing was lacking in the manner of its presentation. The audience was thoroughly well pleased and kept in boisterous laughter from the beginning of the first act until the curtain went down on the closing scene.

Grand Illumination at Jamestown Exposition.

The special train which the Seaboard will operate out of Raleigh, Durham and Oxford to Portsmouth and return Monday, May 13th, account of the illumination of the Fleet in Hampton Roads, will leave Raleigh and Durham at 11:45 a. m., instead of 6:00 p. m., arriving Portsmouth 5:30 a. m. Arrangement will be made to have special steamer leave Seaboard's wharf at 6:00 p. m., taking patrons of this special through around the Fleet in order that they may have a good view of the illumination. There are now about thirty battleships and cruisers of various nations anchored in Hampton Roads that will take part in this celebration, and it is now expected that the Chilean, Brazilian and American squadrons will arrive about Friday, the 10th, in time to take part. This will be one of the most attractive features of the entire Exposition and it is given out that it is one of the most spectacular exhibitions of the Navy that has ever taken place in the world. Special train returning will leave Portsmouth at 11:00 p. m., and if there is sufficient number to justify it and who make application in advance, Pullman sleeping cars will be provided. Those who desire further information, call on local Seaboard agents or Mr. C. H. Gattis, Traveling Passenger Agent, Raleigh, N. C.

Error in Ticket Rate.

In the notice of the Seaboard special train to Portsmouth next Monday, account of battleship illumination, there is an error in the round trip rate from Henderson. It should be $2.15 instead of $2.10 as printed. See the same article in corrected form published in another column.

Meeting of County Commissioners.

The County Commissioners met in regular monthly session Monday, all the members present, J. A. Kelly, chairman, L. C. Bobbitt, W. B. Daniel, H. M. Hight, N. D. Boyd. Outside of passing on accounts and the usual routine business the most important matters coming before the Board were as follows: Dr. John Hill Tucker was elected County Health Officer for the term of two years at a salary of $250. The jailor was allowed the rent of his house for four months beginning April 1, 1907. Report of the committee appointed to examine the books of all county officers was submitted and accepted. Dave Reavis was appointed tax assessor in place of W. A. Green for Sandy Creek. J. A. Kelly and N. D. Boyd were appointed a committee to look after building a bridge over Crooked Run Creek.

The Reason Why.

We had expected to publish this week a full account of the King's Daughters' convention, but in this we were disappointed. The editor could not attend all the sessions and did not attempt to take notes requesting that he be furnished with a report for publication. This has not been done, however, and depending upon it till the last moment we have been cut off from getting any sort of report at second-hand and doing the best we could with that rather than have nothing at all.

There will also be special exercises by the school children and the occasion promises to be full of interest. A large crowd is expected.

My Best Friend.

Andrew Benton, who lives on Rural Route 2, Fort Edward, N. Y., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is my best earthly friend. It cured me of asthma six years ago. It has also performed a wonderful cure of incessant consumption for my son's wife. The first bottle ended the terrible cough, and the second, the other symptoms left one by one, until she was perfectly well. Dr. King's New Discovery's power over coughs and colds is simply marvelous." No other remedy has ever equaled it. Fully guaranteed by Melville Dorsey, Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Drink White House Coffee, it's the best. PIRIE-DAVIS CO.
