For a man of his advanced years he seemed to recover from the operation remarkably well and was not only saved much suffering but his days were no doubt lengthened in consequence. But of late his health had been failing rapidly. Since he came back some weeks ago from a visit to and painful news of his death was the first intimation that many of his friends had of his presence here.

Maj. Taylor was a gentleman of the old school, full of good humor, fond of his friends, and was very popular. Howe's Moving Pictures.

The Wilmington (Delaware) Morning News of May 4th, says this of Howe's Moving Picture show which will play a return date in Henderson with an entire change of program introducing new subjects Monday,

Howe's Moving Pictures were the attraction at the Opera House last night and as usual an excellent exhibition was given. Of all of the moving picture shows which come to Wilmington, Howe's is the favorite. Last night a number of excellent subjects were shown including a trip through Ireland, the catching of whales and some miscellaneous subjects. The pictures are clear and distinct, and there is an absence of the annoying flicker, which is usually found in such entertainments. Those who enjoy a first-class entertainment of moving pictures, will find this show to be the one which they are looking for. Not only are the pictures good, but the sound effects are excellent and add greatly to the enjoyment of the entertainment.

My daughter brought me a bottle of Vinol. I soon felt an inprovement; I continued its use, and am now well cheerful, and stronger than I have been for years; in fact, I feel ten years younger."
