

THE GOLD LEAF. ESTABLISHED 1881. THAD R. MANNING. THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 1907.

John B. Winborne, of Hertford... is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General in the coming year.

The great Confederate Veterans' reunion in Richmond, North Carolina, was assigned the post of honor for the Tar Heel veterans.

Looking on the bright side of the life, seeing the silver lining behind the cloud and finding sunshine in the midst of gloom the Richmond Times-Dispatch says:

When the less, if reunion weather be such, there is no other place in the world where rainy days may be so pleasantly and so profitably as in Richmond.

That presidential bee was not buzzing around you suppose Mr. Nixon would have taken the trout to tell the people of Guilford how and he is that he was born in North Carolina?—Wilmington Messenger.

Well, hardly, and yet he stands no chance of getting the nomination than a bobtail bull in fly time of protecting himself from the joyance of the "peaky critters."

Whether first at Bethel and last at Bonham (no not North Carolina) every inch in evidence at the reunion of the war in the city and nearly many more descendants. The Heel boys made a fine appearance in line yesterday, and were well received at every turn.

Charlotte is a big town, a hospitable and generous one, but the entertainment of the veterans is an undertaking for a place of 100,000. Richmond has a population greater in this and yet found its capacity taxed. The crowd, including veterans and other auxiliary bodies of other visitors, is estimated at 50,000 to 75,000.

North Carolina College Presidents in Virginia. The president of the University of Virginia, Dr. E. A. Alderman, is a native North Carolinian, as is Dr. Walter W. Moore, president of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Richmond, and Dr. J. Allison Edgerton, president of the Medical College of Virginia.

President Foust. No educational institution in this country has had so remarkable a career as the State Normal and Industrial College, at Greensboro. It was born in the brain of the late Charles D. Melver and built upon the foundation of his enthusiasm and faith in the people.

Col. Robert E. Lee seems to be able to speak as well as his father could shoot. The less he has done in a century ago of doing well whatever they undertook.—Raleigh News and Observer.

A Fortunate Texan. Mr. E. W. Goodine, of 107 St. Louis st., Dallas, Tex., says: "In the past year I have become acquainted with Dr. King's New Life Pills, and no laxative I ever before tried so effectively disposes of malaria and biliousness." They don't grind nor gripe. 25c at Melville Dorseys' drug store.

CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND PRINTING.

John B. Sherrill, editor of the Concord Times, announces himself a candidate for Commissioner of Labor and Printing, to succeed H. B. Varner, who is serving his second term of office and will not be a candidate again.

The South's Development. Raleigh Evening Times. The A. & M. College was particularly fortunate in getting Mr. Richard H. Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturers' Record, to deliver the annual address.

Among other things he said: "The growth of the South has scarcely commenced. Last year's cotton crop of 13,500,000 bales has been worth over $800,000,000. We have manufactured in our own mills about 2,500,000 bales, and in doing so added nearly $250,000,000 to its value.

With an average increase in the spinning demand of at least 500,000 bales a year, we are in sight of the time when the South will produce 35,000,000 bales or more. All of this will be accomplished during the active business career of the men who today pass out of the college to begin their life work.

The development of our transportation facilities, by rail and river, to meet this most rapid growth, is paid to 100,000 miles. This section should build not less than 3,000 or 4,000 miles of road a year for the next ten or twenty years, and in that time practically double our mileage, while double-tracking much of the present mileage.

An Important Matter. Judge R. W. Winston has published a card in the Durlam Sun which is of interest to all persons who have fire insurance policies.

Cures Blood and Skin Diseases, Itching Humors. Send no money—simply write and try Botanic Blood Balm at our expense.

From all accounts the North Carolina boys, both old and young, thoroughly enjoyed themselves and Richmond did the right thing by them.—Charlotte Observer.

Danger to the People.

Mr. McCain Points Out Evil Effects of Trusts—A Strong Speech Portraying the Danger to Our Educational Institutions from the Acceptance of Money from Trusts.

Mr. R. S. McCain of Henderson, delivered the annual address at the closing exercises of the Kernersville graded school, recently held, and the Kernersville News publishes some extracts from the speech which has been very highly complimented.

Now that the Hon. J. C. Cannon has visited North Carolina—a State in which he has never shown any interest but on the contrary has constantly snubbed—we hope our folks will quit running after him and talking about his being born in this State—a fact of which he does not seem proud and which we are anxious to forget.—Statesville Landmark.

The GEO. A. ROSE CO. While the most sanguine of conservatives may, in their most hopeful moments or when smarting under the issues of either individualism or corporate audacity, feel an impulse to cry out against the municipal ownership of utilities, yet a recollection of the examples of municipal employment with which the past is rife is quite enough to make one bear the ills we know about rather than open a Pandora's box of other ills, which once set free may never again be curbed or reboxed.—George W. Dithridge in New York Sun.

Friends of the Old Soldiers.

Some will probably say the Reunion in Richmond was a big thing. The writer says the biggest and most Southern like deeds were witnessed at the Henderson depot where a pure Southern lady pinned the badge on each old soldier as he would enter the room.

Drink Smith's Lithia water and cure that case of dyspepsia, indigestion, liver trouble you suffer with. John A. Gill & Sons sell Smith's Lithia water in Henderson.
