A household item says that cut glass should be washed in cold water and soap suds and then polished with sand and chamois leather.

Some persons who are quickest to get into the newspaper are not subscribers to it. They borrow their neighbor's copy and read it.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill C. Linticum of Durham, were Henderson visitors this week guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clark, parents of Mrs. Linticum.

A number of town lots are to be sold at public auction at the court house Monday. See notices elsewhere for further particulars and attend to the sale.

A link cuff button was found at the Episcopal church Sunday by Master Paul Keller, and he will be glad to return it to the loser if he can find out who he is.

On Friday and Saturday of this week, Mrs. O. C. White will display a beautiful line of trimmed hats, which she cordially invites the ladies to call and see.

Mr. E. G. Butler is able to be out again after a severe attack of the grip which confined him to his bed for a month. His presence at his accustomed place in the post-office gives pleasure to his friends.

Messrs. J. T. Alderman, J. B. Owen, L. Curran and C. V. Singleton went to Winston-Salem Tuesday to attend the meeting of the Grand Chapter and Grand Commandery Knights Templar in session there this week.

Miss Susie Linticum was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. R. S. McConin, here this week. She sang a solo—very sweetly, as she always does—at the Presbyterian church Sunday night, the music being a special feature of the service.

Mr. J. R. Ballou of Lenoir, comes to Henderson to take a place as drug clerk at Dorsey's drug store, succeeding Mr. J. L. Cherry who has gone to Raleigh. Mr. Ballou is a competent and clever young gentleman and will make himself for himself as well as the popular establishment he associates himself with.

Mr. O. P. Shell has moved his family to Raleigh to live. They have contemplated this for some time and Mrs. Shell and the children took their departure last week. Mr. Shell is traveling for a Raleigh firm and making that place his headquarters. He could be seen at his family more by having them live there than if they stayed in Henderson.

Stop some time and run over in your mind the many advantages possessed by Henderson, its public utilities, business enterprise and industry, quiet, law-abiding citizens, good climate and health conditions, its freedom from floods and destructive winds, and then congratulate yourself that you live in such a favored community, among such a goodly people.

A look through the furniture stores of Henderson will convince you that one does not need to go away from home to buy furniture and house furnishings of good as high quality and reasonable price as can be bought here. We doubt if any city north of here has Henderson can boast as extensive and handsome lines of furniture as are carried by our dealers.

Put your money in the bank. It is unsafe at home—liable to be stolen or lost by fire. Money deposited in bank is put into the channels of trade and goes to work promoting business enterprise—developing the city and country. All the idle money in this county would build enterprises, furnish employment for many and bring new more extensive commerce to us. Put your idle money to work.

The sale of the Grand Theatre property next Monday will be an event of more than usual interest and importance in local real estate transactions and should draw a large crowd. As set forth in the advertisement printed on the front page of the GOLD LEAF this property will be sold under a trust deed executed in the name of the Henderson Amusement Company and in favor of the Piedmont Trust Company of Burlington.

Mr. A. A. Cheek has gone to Raquette Lake, N. Y., in the Adirondack mountains, to stay during the summer. He has a position with the Western Union Telegraph Company as operator with headquarters at the Antlers Hotel. The offer being made him he accepted it as an agreeable change for a few months. Mr. W. M. McHenry, who comes from Raleigh, N. C., Cheek's place as manager of the Western Union office here while he is away.

Here on a Visit. Mr. A. L. Edwards who moved to Edgecombe county last year, was a visitor to Henderson this week. He expresses himself as well pleased with his new home while he still feels partial to Henderson. Mr. Edwards was formerly engaged in merchandising here with his brother, Mr. J. H. Edwards. He married in Edgecombe and going down there on a visit with his wife he liked so well that he decided to make it his home. He is located at Pinetops, about eight miles below Tarboro.

Temporarily a Citizen of Henderson Mr. A. D. Harris of Warrenton, comes to Henderson to be one of us for a month or so. He takes the place of Mr. Harris in the Henderson Grocery Company. Mr. Harris has been sick at his home in Ridgeway for some weeks and is not yet able to resume his work. Mr. Edmund Taylor has been compelled to go away for awhile thus creating another vacancy in the establishment. Mr. Harris is an experienced man at the business and will prove a valuable addition to the clerical help of this popular and progressive firm.

Vandalism that Should be Stopped. Complaint is made of the practice of making some of the monuments in the cemetery targets for bean shooters or small riffs. Marks or pits have been made in these costly memorials and a stop should be put to it. This is a species of vandalism that merits severe punishment and the guilty persons ought to be apprehended and brought to account. It is up to the cemetery management to interest themselves in the matter and to see to it that the graves and monuments in the City of the Dead are properly protected and preserved.

Taft and Connor. There has been interest, anxiety and anguish of spirit on the part of some of the candidates about the Federal judgeship, but nobody has complicated the situation by writing poetry about it until the thing is over. Since the appointment has been made a friend perpetrates the following:

Smith's Lithia Water. Mr. R. T. Smith of Smith's Lithia Water Company, Oxford, N. C., was in to see us Friday for the purpose of making an advertising contract with this paper. He has a good thing in Smith's Lithia Water and he wants greater numbers of persons to be convinced of what a good thing it is. Especially efficacious in bladder, kidney and liver diseases, indigestion, constipation and stomach trouble, rheumatism and kindred complaints. All water is bottled and shipped fresh, pure and health-giving direct from the spring in glass. Sold in Henderson by Kermer-McNair Company, Wortham & Murray and Falkner & Hoyle.

Death of a Lovely Young Woman. Miss Rachel Hardee died at her home in Enfield Sunday afternoon, May 9th, at 2 o'clock. She was sick about three weeks with typhoid fever. Her death is cause of profound sorrow to many persons in Henderson. She was a frequent visitor here and was well known and very popular. Miss Hardee was the only child of Mr. Junius Hardee of Enfield, and niece of Mr. D. W. Hardee of Henderson. She was an attractive and lovely young woman of beautiful character and pleasing personality, and made friends and admirers wherever she went. She was about 29 years old.

Mr. D. W. Hardee and son, Mr. Asa Hardee, Mr. and Mrs. E. Finch and daughter, Miss Cassie Finch, attended the funeral.

Officers Elected. The newly elected Mayor and commissioners were sworn in Friday night and entered upon the duties of their respective offices. Joe T. Jones was elected mayor pro tem and Charles E. Stainback clerk. Alpheus Cooke was re-elected treasurer and Silas Powelle was elected street commissioner vice Joe T. Jones. A slight change was made in the police force O. P. Wortham being dropped and H. L. Parrish promoted to his place. All the others were re-elected as follows: N. M. Henderson, chief; M. H. Parrish, assistant; D. C. Crabtree and J. C. Champion night men. Mr. Wortham is accounted one of the best men on the police force and it was due to no dereliction of duty on his part or any fault with his conduct that he was laid off. There seemed to be a disposition to cut expenses and dispensing with one of the policemen was one of the ways laid upon. Mr. Wortham being a single man with no incumbency in the case of the others, his head fell under the official guillotine.

Dr. Nash Gives Up Work. The following which is taken from the News and Observer will be read with local interest here where Dr. Nash was formerly stationed and both he and Mrs. Nash have a great many warm friends: Dr. L. L. Nash, pastor of St. John and Gibson Station, of the North Carolina Conference, M. E. Church, South, and the advice of his physician, has given up his work for the year, and with Mrs. Nash has gone to Greensboro to spend the remainder of the year with their children. Dr. Nash is improving in health, and is assured by his physician that rest will restore him to physical strength. Dr. Nash has a host of friends all over North Carolina who regret his illness and hope soon to hear of his restoration to perfect health.

Prompt treatment of a slight attack of Diarrhoea will often prevent a serious sickness. The best known remedy is Dr. Serravallo's Bile Beans. Four bottles, Thomas Brothers and Melville Dorsey warrant it to give satisfaction.

Building and Loan Associations. Charlotte News. The Raleigh Evening Times reproduces a story telling of the work being accomplished by the four building and loan associations of Charlotte comments thus: "Anyone can readily see from the story the immense value of these associations to a city. By the aid of these associations in Charlotte $700,000 a year are being saved and invested in homes in the city, and it is safe to say that without the aid of the building and loan at least half of this money would not be saved at all. While the savings banks are doing a great work and would get a large part of this amount if there were no building and loan associations, a great part of it would be wasted without them. We count Raleigh's building and loan one of her best institutions, and the man who puts his money in it is not only helping himself, but helping his town beyond measure."

THE PAIN MADE HER FAINT. "For almost four years I had a sore on my leg," says Mrs. Oliver Hunt of Goldsboro, N. H., "and this spring a doctor healed it up. I felt fine for about a month but had to be on my feet a good deal and above my knee came swelling as big as my fist. It hung down and was as red as if it had been blistered and so sore that I could hardly get around. The cords of my leg seemed to be stiff and the pain was so bad at times that it made me faint. "One of the neighbors told me Sloan's Liniment so I got a bottle and put some right on. Next morning I could walk ever so much better and I kept right on using the Liniment night and morning. It took down all the swelling and the redness and soreness have gone too. I shall never be without Sloan's Liniment in the house again and shall recommend it to all suffering friends."

BRYANT, Plasterer. All who need MASON WORK done will do well to call on or write to JAMES M. BRYANT, Henderson, N. C.

Personal. Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Harris and their bright and attractive little son, Master Gerald, of Middleton, Nova Scotia, who stopped over in Henderson for a short while on their way home after spending some time at other points, left Monday. They were very favorably impressed with the place and people they met—so much so in fact that they promise to come again when the "snow begins to fly"—nothing preventing. They came South on account of the milder climate. Mr. Harris being a sufferer from asthma, the cold and dampness of his Northern home not agreeing with him in winter. They had been to Southern points, including Longburg and other places, at each of which they formed acquaintances and established warm friendships. Henderson being a bigger town with more attractions, and boasting as fine a climate as any, the regret was that the ladies, not of any company here, had not made a number of warm friends and admirers during their short stay here. Despite his handicap of ill health Mr. Harris is an agreeable companion, jovial in nature, full of reminiscence and anecdote and the life of any company he engages when he "turns himself loose." Mrs. Harris is a very attractive woman, of pleasing personality, an accomplished musician and a gifted singer. She sang a solo at the Presbyterian church Sunday night, and her performance drew the pressed regret that they had not had an opportunity to hear her before. She has a beautiful voice of high range, full volume and broad compass, and her singing is of a high order.

Those who met Mr. and Mrs. Harris hope they may visit Henderson again.

Splendid Premium Offer. As more fully set forth in a display advertisement published elsewhere, the GOLD LEAF is going to give away to new subscribers and all old subscribers who pay up back dues (if any) and one year in advance, a pair of patent, adjustable, tension spring shears, (absolutely free). We want to put a pair of these shears into every home in Vance county, knowing that the women folks will appreciate what a good thing they are.

The tension spring attachment does away with resharpening entirely and enables the user to set the tension on the rivet so that any kind of material may be cut with perfect ease. The tension spring takes up all wear on the rivet, making the shears practically indestructible. A simple turn of the little thumb-screw tightens up the blades as closely as may be desired.

The quality of the material and workmanship in these shears is guaranteed to be first-class in every respect and each pair is fully warranted by the manufacturers. 8 inches long, highly nickel-plated and a good dollar's value.

District Meeting Knights of Pythias. The district meeting for the Fifth district Knights of Pythias, domain of North Carolina, was held in Henderson last Thursday night. There was a good attendance and the occasion was one to be long remembered by those present. After the adjournment of the convention which was held in the lodge room a banquet was served to the visiting brethren. The local members and were invited friends which was greatly enjoyed. Tables were set in the armory of the Vance Guards (old Burwell Hall from which the stage and proscenium have been removed) the spread being provided by the Helping Hand Circle of the King's Daughters. The menu consisted of chicken salad, olives, pickles, celery, ham sandwiches, tomatoes, lettuce, mayonnaise, cream, cake, coffee, cigars, cigarettes. Everything was nicely prepared, the tables arranged in good taste and with great young ladies to wait on them. The banqueters found nothing lacking.

Rev. R. M. Andrews was toastmaster. An address of welcome was delivered by Mr. J. L. H. Missillier, and this was responded to by Mr. T. H. Lindsey of Durham. Toasts responded to were: "Needs and Possibilities of an Orphanage," by Mr. T. H. Lindsey; "The Little Amenities of Life and Character," by Dr. J. E. Malone, of Lenoir; "The Ladies," by Mayor Henry T. Powell of Henderson; "Friendship," by Past Grand Chancellor William W. Willson of Raleigh.

It was a very delightful event all the way through and those who were fortunate enough to be present hope they will "do so again." A vote of thanks was tendered to the ladies for the part they had performed in making the affair such an enjoyable success—and they deserved it.

Letter to Henderson Marble Co., Henderson, N. C.

Dear Sir: Every job Devoe is done with less gallons than ever before with any other paint.

S. J. Field, Indiana, Fla., says: "All houses here are painted Devoe. The hot air is too trying for other paints. One coat Devoe is better than two of any other paint, so far as we know."

Less gallons, less cost. Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO. P. S.—The Allen-Moss Hardware Company sell our paint.

MID SUMMER MILLINERY. ON Friday and Saturday OF THIS WEEK, MAY 14th and 15th, we will display a beautiful line of TRIMMED HATS, and cordially invite the ladies to come in and see our line. MRS. O. O. WHITE. Opposite Samuel Watkins'.

The Proposed Monument Site. The meeting Monday to determine upon a location for the proposed monument to the memory of the Confederate dead of Vance county, was interesting and well attended. But despite this quite a number were present and much interest and enthusiasm was expressed. Mr. Andrew J. Harris was called to the chair and the question of where to place the monument was freely discussed several of the ladies giving their preference and opinion. Some favored putting it on Main street at the intersection of Breckenridge, but there was objection to this on account of the limited space and the possibility of danger to the monument in case of fire. Henderson will soon have street cars and we must plan for the future while building for the present. There is not room on Main street for the monument, street car lines and vehicles. Many favored the court house square as the proper place, and the number holding this opinion was in the majority, while others thought the railroad square would be most suitable if enough ground could be had for this purpose. A committee was appointed to take the matter up with the railroad authorities and report at a future meeting.

The town has appropriated $1,000 toward the erection of the monument and the county $1,000. The Daughters of the Confederacy have in hand $500. Something being said about the character and cost of the monument, Mrs. Sidney P. Cooper, President of Vance County Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, and the leading spirit in the movement, was quick to announce that they wanted it understood that they would limit themselves to $3,000, and will gladly receive contributions from any person who is disposed to aid them.

Notable among those present was Capt. O. R. Smith, veteran of three wars, and with courage and patriotism enough to fight in three more if occasion required notwithstanding his advanced years and less elastic step. It was Capt. Smith who designed the Stars and Bars, the original Confederate—"Seeces"—flag, and his name is imperishably linked with the Southern cause. Capt. Smith is loyal to the spirit and traditions of the past, whether of peace or war time, true to the responsibilities and opportunities of the present, with a firm faith in the promise and possibilities of a still more glorious future. Veteran of Veterans, no gathering of old soldiers hereabouts seems to be complete without him.

Closing Hours to be Observed. The Retail Merchants Association of Henderson has passed resolutions making the closing hour for all stores 6:30 P. M. excepting Saturday night, which shall be, beginning June 1st, 10:00 o'clock P. M.

It has been suggested from the pulpit that the Merchants Association should adopt Saturday night closing hours that would enable the store employees to go home early and make preparations for attending the Sunday morning church services. The above conforms to this recommendation, and eliminates the cause for non attendance at sacred worship.

Merchants who are not members of the Association have been invited to cooperate with us in this arrangement, and it is hoped that they will do so. HENDERSON RETAIL MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION. C. F. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

Accumulate a good bank account in THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, And fortune will favor you. "There's no friend so true as a dollar or two." We have nine hundred well satisfied depositors and would like to have your name on our books. THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, Henderson, N. C.

The Paint Problem. Better not buy a paint that you've got to buy more gallons of. Paint costs nothing; but gallons cost money; gallons cost money three times over. An extra gallon costs what you pay for it. That's once. It costs as much more, when you pay the painter for putting half of it on. That's twice. It costs the same, when you pay him the other half. That's three times. And it isn't worth it. The paint that takes less gallons and wears longest is DEVOE. Allen-Moss Hardware Co.
