Grand Auction Sale of Town Lots.

As will be seen by advertisement printed on the first page of the GOLD LEAF this week, there will be a grand auction sale of town lots next Tuesday, January 25th, beginning at 11 o'clock A. M., on the premises. This is desirable property for residence purposes, situated on College street, Tanyard and Walden avenues, near the business centre of the town, postoffice and railroad station. About 50 lots to be sold, in one of the nicest parts of the town, this sale will no doubt attract a large crowd. Sale will be under the auspices of the American Realty & Auction Company, Greensboro, N. C., and the Suburban Realty & Auction Company, Raleigh, N. C., the famous Penny Brothersthe twin auctioneers, being in charge. Free band concert and valuable prizes to be given away.

Do not forget the day and date if you want to ouy Henderson real estate that will surely increase in value or prove a cheap and desirable site on which to build a home.

MRS. MISSILLIER.

WILL START PAPER HERE.

Mr. J. V. Simms, Publisher of the Raleigh Times, to Begin Publication of New Paper to be Called the Henderson Times, About the First of Feb-We had an agreeable call last Thursday from Mr. J. V. Simms, publisher of the Raleigh Evening Times, the object of whose visit to Henderson is explained in the article printed below which appeared in the Times of Friday. Mr. Simms is a young man of energy, enterprise and ability, and as a newspaper man be has made good. His success with the Raleigh Times in pulling it out of the slough of financial despond and making it a paying proposition has been a signal achievement in newspaper annals of the capital city, and if any one can "turn the trick" here or elsewhere in a similar undertaking we take it that Mr. Simms can. At any rate the GOLD LEAF gives him cordial welcome and extends the hand of fraternal greeting and good wishes in advance of his coming.

The article in question follows: Mr. J. V. Simms, publisher of The Evening Times, spent yesterday in Henderson, where he is arranging to open a new paper about February 1st.

After his return today he said "Yes, I am making plans and arrangements to open up an office in Henderson and publish a new weekly paper there. I have secured some nice offices on the second floor of the postoffice building and this will give me a very desirable location, in fact it is the very best and most convenient to all the business section of Henderson. I am now negotiating with a good man for editor and manager and if I secure him I hope to begin this paper by February 1st. It is my intention to begin an eight page weekly, with full telegraph and State news and all the local news of Henderson and the surrounding section. The paper will be known as The Henderson Times and if it's a success will be made a semi-weekly and improved as the conditions demand. Henderson is a live and growing young city, and is in one of the finest sections in the State, and I believe a live, progressive paper that will boost the town will be a good proposition."

Personal.

Passing through on his way to Jacksonville, Fla., to spend awhile in rest and recreation, Mr. Louis Meador of Richmond, stopped over and spent last night with the family of Mr. John B. Watkins, Mr. Meador formerly lived in Henderson and is well remembered by many of our citizens. His father was at one time engaged community it was thought best to member of the firm of Knight & Meador-and both father and son have many friends among our people. Louis, as he is still familiarly known by his friends here—has added years to his age if not inches to his stature since he left-and is now a married man with a family and is doing well, holding a responsible position with one of the largest mercantile houses in Richmond.

"Parsifal" Was Great.

If Manager Poythress does not give us anything better this season he can afford to rest on the laurels won Tuesday night by "Parsifal." A stronger play has not been seen in ness. He has instructed classe; at Henderson. It was superb, elaborate-Chapel Hill and is known to some of ly staged and strongly acted—an admirable production throughout. The scenery was beautiful, the electrical effects unique, the costumes pretty

Messrs. Martin & Emery promised much in "Parsifal," and they met every expectation. It is a great production splendidly presented by a strong acting company. The cast is Eight Vassar Girls at the Grand The- well selected and nicely balanced, young ladies, each one an adapt at or the more pleasing character he has rather than to the truer concep-

While all were good the work of Mr. John Rigney as Parsifal, Mr. Barrett as Klinschor, Mr. Herbert as Dwerger, an Impish servant of the Klinschor, Mr. Sloman as Anfortas, Mr. Roth, Mr. Grauman and Miss Anna May as Kundry, was exceptionally fine. Their acting would be difficult to improve upon. The audience was not what the production merited. Rain no doubt kept a good many persons away, but we are sure if they had realized the very unusual treat they missed it would have required more than rain and wind and reasonable distance to deprive them of it. About 35 or 40 persons came from Oxford whereas it was expected that 80 or 100 would come. The rain interfered and the small number oftickets sold did not justify the running of a special train to take them back. Those who came spent the night in Henderson.

It is a dangerous thing to take a cough

edicine containing opiates that merely stifle

your cough instead of curing it. Foley's

Honey and Tar loosens and cures the cough and expels the poisonous germs, thus pre-venting pneumonia and consumption. Refuse substitutes and take only the genuius
