Tangier, Morocco, Oct. 26.—Owing to the disturbed state of the country, the American minister, Gammer, and Dr. Rosen, the German minister, are remaining at Fez.

The Moorish officials, in answer to the French representations regarding the disquieting situation, declare their ignorance of the many facts called to their attention, and accept responsibility for the others.

The foreign diplomats are demanding the dismissal of Mohammed El Torres, representative of the Sultan here, on the ground that he is old, incapable and fanatical.

The situation in Morocco city continues critical.

France to Send Ship. Paris, Oct. 26.—In view of the situation in Morocco the French government decided to send a warship to Tangier.

A special dispatch from Tangier says that a state of anarchy exists in the regions of Rabat and Casablanca, and that all transport of foreign goods has ceased.

Spain to Send Warship. Madrid, Oct. 26.—In view of the alarming reports from Morocco the Spanish government has decided to hold several cruisers ready for despatch to the west coast for the protection of the Spanish subjects.

THE JAPANESE TROUBLE.

Trouble With Japan Considered at Cabinet Meeting—Thought to Be Very Grave.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Today's Cabinet meeting lasted two and one-half hours and was attended by all the members except Secretary Shaw and Postmaster General Cortelyou. Among the important matters discussed was the situation growing out of the anti-American sentiment in Japan and the exclusion of Japanese children in some public schools of San Francisco.

It was stated by a member of the Cabinet after the meeting that the general opinion of the members was that the Japanese situation was exceedingly grave and would require most delicate treatment to avoid an open rupture.

Chinese Smuggling Cases.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 26.—The Frolic Chinese smuggling cases were before the United States Court here today. The defendants are the 11 Chinese prisoners who were captured after they had been landed here three weeks ago by the Frolic, which was endeavoring to smuggle them into the United States from Newfoundland. There were said to be 22 Chinamen aboard the Frolic and all except 19 made good their escape.

The Chinese probably will be kept here until after the cases of the vessels' officers are disposed of. When the cases were called today the court was filled with Chinese, lawyers and others apparently deeply interested in the proceedings.

Mr. J. L. Suttle has moved his stock of goods into the new store room, recently completed, adjoining T. W. Hamrick & Co.

Letter to J. W. Elliott.

Hickory, N. C.

Dear Sir: Here's a tale with three or four tails to it.

Messrs. Irvine has an Academy, Messrs. Perry has a school. He paints the floors in summer vacation. It used to take 50 gallons of paint. There were two paint stores there, and he used to buy (one year of one, next year of the other) 50 gallons year after year.

Now he paints Devoe; 60 gallons; and the difference is a saving of $150 a year.

H. C. Fallon was one of those dealers, good man; but he wouldn't take up Devoe; so we turned to the other, J. A. Boyd. But Fallon found it necessary to get a good paint to compete with Devoe. He got one of the eight honest paints. He has a big hardware store and is doing an excellent hardware business; but Boyd, of course, has the run on paint—he's a little hardware man.

W. don't care how little or big a man is, if he wants good paint and is active and sound.

Yours truly

F. W. DEVOE & CO.

Part of Crew of Houseboat Landed and Tell Their Story.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 26.—The five survivors from the houseboat No. 4 on the construction work of the Florida East Coast Railway work, was landed here yesterday by the British steamship Heartthrob. They were today telegraphed funds from the office of the constructing engineer at Miami, Fla., and are preparing to leave by rail for Miami tonight.

Referring to an inquiry made here concerning J. J. Tobin, of Savannah, Ga., supposed to have been lost in a hurricane off the Florida coast where he was engaged in railway construction work, Frank Revely, one of the survivors, said he knew Tobin well and that the Savannah man was on the houseboat No. 4.

Revely believes that Tobin had been on the lost boat but said that there might be some hope for him and the others as it was possible some vessel could have picked up other survivors who had not yet been landed.

Thanksgiving Decorations.

There are a great many inexpensive table decorations that add to the attractiveness of the Thanksgiving table. A very pretty custom is to have some simple little gift for each of the guests. The room itself can be decorated with fall foliage and with corn stalks or sheaves of grain. Of course these things will appeal more particularly to the women on the farm than the men folks, and the thing to do is to keep them in the dark as to what is being done. The one thing that should be on hand if there are any children present is the Jack o' Lantern made out of a pumpkin. It is almost as much a part of the Thanksgiving Dinner as the Turkey itself, to the children.—Farming.

L. depot where the Seaboard and Southern railroads run parallel with each other, and was walking between the tracks when he heard a train approaching, and thinking it the Seaboard passenger train, due at that time, stepped over on the Southern tracks and was immediately killed by the southbound freight train on that road.

AN OPEN LETTER.

To the People of Hickory.

To Whom It May Concern:

Of late there has been a good deal of discussion in Hickory in regard to advertised medicines and their value—the papers are full of them. We want to say to every man, woman and child in Hickory that we believe the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil—the best tonic restorer, health restorer and strength creator—we have ever sold in our store is Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine, it contains no injurious drugs, but it actually does contain all the medicinal, curative elements taken from fresh cod's livers, without a drop of the useless oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and tonic iron added. Vinol is recognized throughout the world as the greatest strength creator for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers, and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles. We ask the people of Hickory to try Vinol on our offer to return the money if it fails. E. B. Menzies, Druggist.

Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Hickory it is now for sale in the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

YOUTHFUL BURGLARS BEHIND JAIL BARS

Asheville, Oct. 29.—Guided or rather misguided into what may be imprisonment for the remainder of their lives by a "Burglar's Book," three young boys, Charlie Ray, wise Williams and Alvin Owens, of Asheville, are lying in Hendersonville jail, charged with three burglaries, the evidence in each of them being without a flaw. The boys are from families highly respected here and two of them refused to give their names, while the third, Wise Williams, merely said he was "John Jones, of Knoxville." Although held in bonds of $500 each, they would not allow their parents to learn of their disgrace, even though by doing so they would have been able to secure bail. "Like tigers and bull dogs," said the men who effected their capture, "they fought for their freedom, one of them, Charlie Ray, drawing a pistol on Sheriff J. S. Rhodes." The gang possessed a "Burglar's Hand Book" which gave minute instructions for all sorts of misdemeanors, even to the working of a train.

Although very young, the eldest not more than seventeen years and the youngest about fourteen, the boys have in Asheville an unenviable record as criminals. Williams has been repeatedly arrested on larceny charges, and was under bond to appear at the Superior Court of this county to answer a charge of burglarizing the residence of Mrs. Suge, of Cincinnati. Owens was frequently associated with him in his misdeeds, but had managed to escape with light sentences on account of his youth. The third, Charlie Ray, comes of one of the best families in Asheville, but has for three months been dodging a warrant for larceny. On last Tuesday he returned to Asheville, but a comrade betrayed his whereabouts.

The police took the three together, but they all took leg bail and were believed to have left the city. They heard nothing of the malefactors until furnished a description of the youthful burglars wanted at Hendersonville by your representative in an attempt to identify them.

Wednesday the three boys made their appearance in Hendersonville, well dressed and to all appearances of eminent respectability, but they successfully burglarized and pillaged three houses. When captured they fought in true Jesse James style. Williams, the leader, being knocked down five times before he would submit. None of the three houses were occupied when robbed, this alone preventing the crime from being punishable by death.

One of the first houses raided was the summer home of A. E. Shepard, the Sumter, S. C., millionaire. The burglars entered Thursday night through a window, breaking open the blinds. They searched every room and chest in the house, breaking open trunks and taking everything of value. They wantonly smashed property, possibly amounting to hundreds of dollars. They opened a barrel of the finest wine, kept in the house by Mr. Shepard and poured the contents on the floor. Then with surpassing self-confidence they spent the night in the house. Three screwdrivers, wrenches and other articles necessary for a burglar's kit, found on them, were identified as coming from this house.

Friday morning, they are said to have stoned children on their way to school.

The second house robbed also belonged to a non-resident, and the burglary was not discovered until late.

The end came Saturday. Overconfident, they lost all caution and attempted to rob a house in broad daylight. Between twelve and one o'clock they entered and rifled the residence of F. A. Pruitt, breaking in through a window. Mr. Pruitt states that they broke open every trunk in the house in their search for money and valuables. He identified considerable of the property as belonging to him. Several witnesses saw them enter the premises. The boys, leaving, were seen to enter the forest near the depot and followed by Sheriff Rhodes, Henry Jenkins and J. Israel, who pounced upon them unawares as they reached their hiding places.

Governor Deneen of Illinois and Governor Vardaman of Mississippi also were among the speakers and prominent participants.

THE PRESIDENT'S COMING MESSAGE

New York, Oct. 25.—Financial circles in this city are very much interested in that portion of President Roosevelt's forthcoming message to Congress which is expected to deal with the subject of taxation of incomes, inheritances, etc., and the general question of the control of wealth amassed from public privileges. Wall street fears that the temper of the country, supposed to be responsive to the anti-capitalist appeals of Bryan, La Follette, Moran and others, may encourage the President to draw it pretty strong in his suggestions for taxation of wealth.

In his public utterances and writings for nearly a year past Mr. Roosevelt has approached the question tentatively. In his Pennsylvania speech a short time ago he elaborated somewhat his views, and it is said by those who have talked with him recently that he will be prepared to address Congress still more definitely. He may not lay down the actual lines of new legislation, because the short session of Congress could hardly deal with questions of such far-reaching importance, but it is quite generally believed that he will arouse the country and set the senators and representatives to thinking and talking.

Legislation upon these questions must conform to past decisions of the Supreme Court, in substance and spirit, unless, indeed the reorganized court may be thought dependable to give broader interpretation. The President's authority for the statement that the court has been wrong in some instances in the past, and it may be that the filling of one present and another prospective vacancy by his appointment may alter the opinion of that august body.

Since the President's signal success with railway rate legislation, Wall street will not believe anything too hard for him to accomplish. Consequently there is a great deal of anxiety to know just how far he will go in his recommendations to the approaching session.

Effort Made to Break of Idea of Holy War.

Paris, France, October 27.—The French government has been advised that the Moroccan authorities, as a result of energetic representations made by the French authorities at Morocco City, agreed to send a Kaid to Tafalele, Southern Morocco for the purpose of calming fanatical tribes there and persuading them to abandon their project of declaring a holy war after the Ramadan festival.

No change is reported in the situation of affairs in the northern part of Morocco.

Duke and Duchess at Outs.

London, England, October 27.—The afternoon papers here quote the Manchester Guardian as saying that a deed of separation between the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough has been signed, on the ground of incompatibility of temper by the provisions of which the Duchess keeps the Sudeley house, London and her own dowry but is precluded from going to Blenheim.

The document, it is added, is signed October 23rd.

The Duke is at Blenheim and the Duchess is at Sudeley house.

London, Oct. 27.—A dispatch to the news agency from Tangier says that Raisouli this morning attacked and captured Arselia, recently held by the insurgent tribesmen. The insurgents lost many men killed. Their leader, Serriani, was captured.
