Heldebrand-Miller.

Miss Florence Heldebrand, of Drexel and Mr. Charles, son of Mr. William, of Hickory were married Sunday at Drexel.

Dr. Baker Dead.

On Tuesday afternoon at five o'clock Dr. R. B. Baker passed away from the sorrows and suffering of earth at the age of 86 years. He had sustained a stroke of paralysis some two weeks ago, his frame weakened by age, and past fatigues, succumbed easily.

For so many years has Dr. Baker been a figure on Hickory that it will seem very strange to see him out on our streets no more. Perhaps no man in the county was better known. Certainly few had more faithful friends. He was himself a man of loyal nature, strong in love or hate. He possessed excellent abilities, and was a physician of skill and high repute. Even in his physical decay his brother physicians called upon him in extreme cases, relying upon his experience and knowledge.

Dr. Baker's two sons preceded him to the grave. He has but one surviving child, Mrs. B. M. Anderson, of Baltimore. She with the desolate wife, will have the sympathy of many friends here and elsewhere.

Dr. Baker was a member of the Episcopal church here and the funeral took place Wednesday afternoon, services conducted by Rev. J. S. Moody.

Mr. Yount Goes to Newton.

Mr. C. J. Yount has been employed by the Newton Hosiery Mill Store Company to take charge of their grocery department. This company has rented a large store room adjoining their business of dry goods and notions, which has been combined. Mr. Yount is a good business man and this company is fortunate in securing his service. The Newton Hosiery Mill Store is a growing enterprise and Mr. Yount will add greatly to the popularity. The entire firm will be under the management of P. O. Carpenter.
