CONSUMPTION PREVENTABLE

DISINFECTATION IMPORTANT.

Reports Obtained in a Large Institution.

The importance of disinfection is shown by the results obtained at the Brooklyn Home for Consumptives, the finest institution of the kind in New York. A letter from the President is quoted:

"We have used Platt's Chlorides in the Brooklyn Home for Consumptives for more than ten years, and find it not only a comfort but a necessity. Through its use we defy the germs to make any inroads on the nurses and employees who are in constant attendance upon the sick, one hundred of whom are now in the institution. One nurse has been there well on to ten years, a second almost as long, and not one person ever employed in the Home has developed lung trouble."—Mrs. S. V. White, President, Kingston Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Platt's Chlorides is an odorless, colorless liquid disinfectant which instantly removes any foul odors and destroys disease-breeding matter. A quart bottle will last an average family a month and it can be obtained at all druggists.

SOCIETY NEWS.

"At the sight of the jack-o'-lanterns" being for the time Mr. J. A. Martin's residence, on Hallowe'en, the witches held high revel and told the fortunes and played their tricks on the next youngest set of Hickory's young people, with Sallie Martin as hostess.

Those who came to tempt their fate were: Hazel Elliott and Durward Abernethy, Lillia Field and Wilson Warlick, Ette Hendley and Glenn Henkel, Louise Allen and Weston Clinard, Ruth Abernethy and George Blackwelder, Mattie Abernethy and Orin Sigmon, Margaret McComb and Frank Henderson, Lucy Morgan and William Menzies, Sadie Field and Emmett Moore, Charlie Cashwell, Joe Murphy and George Abernethy. The young people missed John Murphy who isn't quite well yet, and Carroll and Margaret Bost who are at school in Newton—so near and yet so far. They found the house ghostly with candle light and jack-o'-lanterns, a small witch told fortunes and couples saw the faces of the best beloved in a well but what they saw they never told. In a guessing contest Miss Louise Allen and Mr. Frank Henderson were successful. Miss Louise was presented with a pumpkin pie cushion and Mr. Henderson with a pumpkin candy box.

Light refreshments were served. Something was brewed in a pot—it appeared to be fruit punch but you can never tell what the incantations might have wrought. They also guessed the number of seed in an apple. Ethel Hendley received a black cat as a reward and Durward Abernethy a watch candy box.

Long before the witching hour they dispersed none the worse apparently for witches and spells and incantations.

At Mrs. Rosebrough's on Hallowe'en, the following young people assembled: Kate Elliott, Rose and Frank Martin, Paul and Katherine Hufham, Elizabeth Holbrook, Joe and John Cille, Edgar Bisanar and R. Buchanan, to celebrate the occasion with Robert Rend which they did with great jolly and good will, assisted, aided and abetted by Miss Mary and Miss Fannie Rosebrough and Miss Mary Fleming. They found tulips growing in a fairy ring and fortunes in the tulips and a pretty witch to tell them. There were merry games of bobbing for apples and roasting chestnuts and lots of good things to eat and funny jack o' lanterns and, oh! such a good time.

Mr. D. E. Leatorman, of Henry, N. C., Lincoln county, was here Monday. He came in to see us and had the Democrat sent to him. He had seen a copy and liked it very much.

BUILT UP HER HEALTH

SPEEDY CURE OF MISS GOODE

She is Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and Writes Gratefully to Mrs. Pinkham.

For the wonderful help that she has found Miss Cora Goode, 255 E. Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Ill., believes it her duty to write the following letter for publication, in order that other women afflicted in the same way may be benefited as she was. Miss Goode is president of the Bryn Mawr Lawn Tennis Club of Chicago. She writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— I tried many different remedies to build up my system, which had become run down from loss of proper rest and unreasonable hours, but nothing seemed to help me. Mother is a great advocate of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles, having used it herself some years ago with great success. So I began to take it, and in less than a month I was able to get out of bed and out of doors, and in three months I was entirely well. Really I have never felt so strong and well as I have since.

No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, bloating (or flatulence), displacement of organs, inflammation or ulceration, can be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Her experience is very great, and she gives the benefit of it to all who stand in need of wise counsel. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Address, Lynn, Mass.
