SOCIETY NEWS.

Miss Emily Waeeler entertained the Hickory Book Club Wednesday, Nov. 28, all being present but Mrs. Alex Shuford who is in New York. Fenwick's Career by Mrs. Humphrey Ward and especially Hutton's Literary Landmarks of Jerusalem were the special books under discussion after current events and the other books were touched upon. The adjournment to the dining room was then thoroughly enjoyed where the beauty of the decorations entered greatly into the pleasure. Red mattress crosses outlined by red candles, sachets with decorations suggestive of Jerusalem, and the miniature turkeys made an attractive whole.

Mrs. Dr. Menzies had four tables of Bridge whist at her home Tuesday, Nov. 27. Mrs. Ed Menzies gained the prize.

The Round Dozen Book Club held its meeting which was unusually interesting Wednesday, Nov. 28, with Mrs. Charles Geitner. After the accustomed order of program with the special discussion of the hostess of the festive board was in accordance with the suggestions of Thanksgiving Day. In the center of the table a great cornucopia pouring forth a wealth of fruits, the place-cards with turkeys hand-painted by the hostess, apples filled with bon-bons as favors, all blended harmoniously with the traditional Thanksgiving menu.

Friday, Nov. 30, Miss Josie Sigmon entertained her whist club very pleasantly. Mrs. E. L. Shuford won the prize, a burnt wood case for cards.

Saturday evening, Dec. 1, Mrs. Chadwick welcomed a few friends in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Murrill. Profs. Patterson and Busch played delightfully on the violins, and Miss Richardson beautiful piano selections.

Mrs. Bourbonnais had four tables whist Monday afternoon, Dec. 3. Miss Lilly Jones won the prize, an interesting book and Mrs. Neil Clarke, as the guest of honor, a linen luncheon set, elaborate and dainty refreshments concluded a delightful hour.

The Dames of Pleasure were entertained by Mrs. Alex Hall Wednesday, Dec. 5th. Only Mrs. Traywick was present outside the regular members. In the guessing contest, Mrs. Bryan Jones won the prize.

The Travellers' Club met with Mrs. K. C. Menzies Dec. 6, with seventeen members present and six visitors. After quotation on "The Press," the program was "Dickens as a Journalist," Mrs. Chadwick; "Courageous attack upon the Poor Laws in Oliver Twist," Sir Robert Peel, Mrs. Cilley; Reading: "Fagins Den and An Appointment Kept" Miss Geitner for Mrs. Aull.

After adjournment, dainty refreshments were served, Dickens' postal cards were received by each member from Mrs. Graves. Mrs. Menzies gave beautiful Dickens' Calendars to all as souvenirs of a pleasant hour.

Mrs. Royster gave a luncheon Sat. Dec. 8 in honor of Mrs. Neil Clarke. Sachets hand painted with pink carnations showed their places to the honored guests. These were Miss Allen Mrs. Chadwick's sister, Mesdames Charles Menzies, E. Menzies, K. C. Menzies, Alex Hall, Bryan Jones, Marvin Sherrill, Walter Martin, W. Clinard, Aull, H. D. Abernethy, Misses Ada and Daisy Schenck. A profusion of pink carnations with pink candles decorated the beautiful round table. Seven courses were served of elaborately dainty refreshments.

Christm's.

The season of gifts again draws near when the kindest feeling of our hearts go out to those about us and longs to find expression in some simple token—some precious gift that may serve as a reminder of the love and good wishes cherished in days that will soon have flown far in the past. At it is silver and gold we have not to prefer you, the riches of earth have never been cast at our feet, and our pocket, though large, remains but a vacuum in spite of our desperate efforts. But kind reader, we have you in mind, and the past says "Tis bliss to be remembered," so let us make one little spot of sunshine in your soul as we wait to you, one and all, far and near, wherever this number of ours may find a reader, a real joyous, felicitous, Merry Christmas.

BOONE ITEMS.

It is rumored that the Methodist Conference has purchased the Presbyterian church at Mast for a school building, and will open a high school there early in the year.

Laurel Springs has applied for a rural library.

Some men have been in this country looking out a railroad route from Friers, Va., to Blowing Rock. The length of the road will be about 75 miles, following New River the entire distance. If the road is built they hope to begin work at once.

Rev. Wilcoxen, of Ashe, a Baptist minister now in his eighty ninth year, recently held revival meetings at Zionville and Meat camp churches, he was formerly pastor at both places. He still preaches with much zeal and is as enthusiastic as in his younger days.

North Carolina Day will miss the public schools in the county, as they are nearly all closed, however the superintendent will make an effort to raise some contributions for the McIver monument. B. G.

Hickory begins to present a holiday appearance, some of the merchants have their windows beautifully decorated.

The prosperity of a town is not guarded by the wealth of its inhabitants, but but by the uniformity with which they pull together when any important undertaking is to be accomplished. A man with a thousand dollars at his command and a love for his town in his heart can do more for the upbuilding of it than the millionaire who locks up his capitol and snaps his fingers at home progress.
