

Outburst of Applause Marks Announcement of Jury's Verdict

After Being Out Only an Hour and a Half Jury in Strothers Case Returns Their Verdict of "Not Guilty."

Judge Said it Was an Established Precedent in Virginia to Protect Men who Defend Sanctity of Their Homes.

Culpeper, Va., March 7.—The Strother brothers were found not guilty.

Culpeper, Va., March 7.—The Strother case was given to the jury at 9:30 o'clock.

All Culpeper awaited with interest the verdict in the Strother case. In anticipation of an early verdict, groups of friends of the Strother brothers and of Bywaters gathered in front of the court house eagerly discussing the probable result.

The jury retired immediately after Judge Harrison had put the case in their hands. Then began the most trying test of the ordeal for the defendants.

The strain was most apparent on the face of Philip Strothers, while James was apparently confident of a favorable verdict. He sat in silence.

As the minutes sped by the situation became more strained, man in the court room taking the delay as an unfavorable sign to the accused.

The jury was out one hour and thirty-two minutes. The announcement of the verdict of "not guilty" was the signal for an outburst of approval, which the judge quickly silenced.

The effect of the verdict, however, was instantaneous. James shook hands with the counsel, Philip surrounded by friends.

Mrs. James Strother, overcome, fell into her husband's arm and sobbed.

Judge Harrison addressed the jury, saying: "I thank you for the verdict which I think will be approved by the public. It is an established precedent in the State of Virginia that no man tried for defending the sanctity of his home should be found guilty."

The Committee Make Report

Raleigh, N. C., March 11.—The special legislative committee, appointed on demand of the joint conference committee on railroad passenger rate, to investigate the sensational charges made by retiring Editor R. W. Simpson, Jr., of the Evening Times of Raleigh, and Rev. Plato Durham, of Charlotte, that the committee allowed Editor Daniels of the News and Observer to dictate the "60 mile limit" clause in the rate bill, reported to the House of Representatives today.

The report reviews the evidence taken and the refusal of Editor Simpson to answer the questions of the committee as to who gave him the information on which his charges were made, and concludes with the statement that the committee has no recommendation to make and as to Simpson's refusal to answer, deems it best to leave this to whatever action the courts may take against him hereafter.

The only incidental reference is made to Rev. Plato Durham.

After the report was read Representative Winborne was recognized on a personal privilege and declared that the official records showed that Rev. Plato Durham had been reported correctly as reflecting on the conference committee but he seemed to be suffering from delirium, from a bite by Editor Daniels so he (Winborne) would leave him to his conscience and his God.

With the incident closed the committee report makes four newspaper columns.

Doings of The Legislature

A Large Amount of Business was Done at The Last Session of The General Assembly. Certain Matters Settled.

Raleigh, N. C., March 11.—The Senate convened at 9:30. A bill was offered by Senator Daniels, to receive monies appropriated by Congress for agricultural education, according to the act of March 4th. It was put on immediate passage.

Among the bills passed are: To change the boundary line between Wilkes and Ashe counties.

To extend the limits of Wadesboro. To allow High Point to substitute 5 per cent for 6 per cent bonds.

A resolution of appreciation for the manner in which President Francis D. Winston has presided over the Senate passed.

Senator Long sent up a report of the conference committee on the pending anti-trust bill saying that the House and Senate committees had been unable to agree.

The report was received and the committee discharged, the report being put on the calendar in the form of a bill which passed the House Saturday night with the Winborne and Justice amendments.

Senator Webb offered an amendment, allowing solicitors a fee for the conviction of corporations for violations of the act.

Senator McLean offered an amendment to strike out the sub-section "F" which is the Justice amendment adopted Saturday night in the House after a sensational fight, which held the House in session until 12:30 and was equivalent to the objectionable section "A" of the original Reid bill.

Previous question was called and the Webb amendment was adopted.

The McLean amendment was adopted 19 to 15 and the bill then passed its final reading in the House for concurrence. When the bill came back to the House with the Justice supplemental bill, which was equivalent to "Section A" and the other clauses that had been designed to drive important industries out of the State, there was a discussion during which it was brought out that Speaker Justice had retracted his declaration to go into the next Democratic convention with the Senate roll call on the trust legislation. The Justice supplemental bill was tabled and the anti-trust bill (McLean substitute) was ordered enrolled for ratification.

The House convened at 10 o'clock. Mr. Gordon reported the resolution supplementary to the salary bills passed as to salaries of State officials. The Governor $600 traveling expenses; to require the railroads to keep toilets in the cars in a cleanly condition; to validate certain probates of deeds; to regulate the sale of certain foods and drinks; to compel deaf children to attend school; to exempt ministers from working the public roads; to amend the general insurance law of the State; to make election day a legal holiday.

The bill to prohibit the railroads from confiscating coal passed, along with the Governor $600 traveling expenses; to require the railroads to keep toilets in the cars in a cleanly condition; to validate certain probates of deeds; to regulate the sale of certain foods and drinks; to compel deaf children to attend school; to exempt ministers from working the public roads; to amend the general insurance law of the State; to make election day a legal holiday.

Among other bills which passed was one, to provide for the punishment of youthful criminals; the anti-trust bill. The anti-trust bill came up under the message from the Senate referring to concurrence in the house amendments Saturday night. Representative Winborne lodged a motion to concur in the senate amendment, striking out the Justice amendment of Saturday night. Speaker Justice was recognized and declared that the Senate had no right to shirk responsibility in this anti-trust bill; that the body should have concurred or not concurred with the House amendments of Saturday night. And in effect asked the House to reverse its position and stand for protection of the farmers of North Carolina. He did not hesitate to say that he preferred no bill rather than to be driven in the position of receding in this way. He would prefer no bill to that sent over from the

The quality of the genuine sun cured tobacco used in REYNOLDS' Sun Cured and grown on soil where the best sun cured tobacco grows, has caused imitation brands to be brought out and offered as the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured to unsuspecting dealers and chewers who do not look closely at the printing on the box and on the tag.

These brands only imitate the outward appearance and do not possess the genuine inside quality that has been found in Reynolds' Sun Cured ever since Reynolds' Sun Cured was introduced and which has so increased the chewing of sun cured tobaccos and proven so popular, that the word "Sun Cured" is now printed on tags or in the advertising of many brands claimed to be genuine sun cured tobacco.

Did you ever see the word "Sun Cured" used in any chewing tobacco advertisement, or on any chewing tobacco tag or label, or in any other way, before it was introduced and used to identify the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured? You see it frequently now, because many imitation brands are being made to appear as nearly like Reynolds' Sun Cured as they dare—with tag, shape of plug and style of package so similar that experienced buyers sometimes accept these imitations as the genuine Reynolds' Sun Cured.

Don't be deceived into taking imitation brands for the genuine. Be sure the letters on the tag spell "Reynolds' Sun Cured," and you get the best value in sun cured chewing tobacco that can be produced for chewers. Sold at 50c. per pound in 5c. cuts; strictly 10c. and 15c. plugs, with chewing qualities like that which was sold from 60c. to $1.00 per pound before Reynolds' Sun Cured was offered to the trade.

Senate. He offered a supplementary bill that would put on the roll the position of the senators in this matter and he would have this roll call in the next Democratic convention and settle the matter there.

The motion by Mr. Winborne prevailed, to concur in the Senate amendment, which among other things struck out the Justice amendment of Saturday night.

This motion prevailed, then the supplementary bill by Speaker Justice was passed and sent to the Senate.

There followed pleasing ceremonies in the presentation of a handsome silver service to Speaker Justice as a token from the members of the House, the speech being by Mr. Royster.

Speaker Justice was recognized and declared that his remarks a few minutes before, about having a roll call of the Senate on the anti-trust legislation in the next State convention was uttered in the heat of debate and passion and he retracted all that part of his remarks.

OVER PRECIPICE IN AUTO

Three Persons Plunge Seventy-five Feet with Machine and Live.

New York, March 8.—E. E. Jess, of Detroit, who arrived here today on the Panama liner, Finance, from Honduras, where he has been for seven years in the employ of an American mining company, has hurried back to the United States to have the bones in his right arm broken by surgeons so that they can be reset properly. At present his arm is useless to him, owing to the crude surgical methods in vogue in the government hospital in Tegucigalpa, the capital of Honduras.

Several months ago Jess, his employer, and a little negro boy were descending a steep mountain road in a 24-horsepower automobile when the machine became unmanageable and dashed into the stone parapet guarding the road on the outside. The wall gave way and the great machine plunged over the brink of a 300-foot precipice, carrying its three passengers with it.

Some time later some negroes, peering cautiously over the wall, saw the automobile, badly wrecked, lying bottom up on a wide ledge seventy-five feet down the face of the stone cliff.

While the negroes were discussing what to do the victims regained consciousness and began painfully dragging themselves and each other from the wreckage. The negroes up on the road then spliced some strong native hammocks together, and finally, after great difficulty, succeeded in hauling the three victims, one by one, up the face of the cliff.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK? Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

The regular fifty cent Homeopathic Swamp-Root dollar size are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

STATESVILLE NEWS AND HAPPENINGS

Statesville, N. C., March 8.—Miss Kate Turner, who had been in feeble health for a long time, died Wednesday about noon at her home of her brother, Mr. John C. Turner, on Davie avenue, from the effects of pneumonia.

Miss Turner was about 74 years old and was the eldest child of the late Wm. Turner, of New Hope community. Since her mother's death, years ago, she had made her home in Statesville with her brother. She was a sister of Messrs. J. C. and J. E. Turner, who survive, and of the late W. P. Turner.

Miss Turner was a member of the Baptist church and a faithful Christian. Funeral services were conducted from the home yesterday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. C. A. Jenkins and the remains were taken to New Hope church and interred by the remains of Miss Turner's parents.

Tummy King, colored, who lived on Mr. Pool's farm, about 3 1/2 miles southeast of Statesville, disappeared the second week in January and his whereabouts are unknown. His relatives are concerned about him and a cousin, "Rudy King," who lives at Belmont, near Statesville, called at The Landmark office this week and asked that the circumstances be mentioned.

"Rudy" says that Tummy disappeared about the time named and his relatives have been unable to learn of his whereabouts or what became of him, although diligent inquiry has been made. Tummy is 25 or 30 years old, short of stature and will weigh about 140 pounds. He is black—"a regular African," as "Rudy" expressed it.

"Rudy" claims that Tummy's relatives can get little satisfaction out of Tummy's wife about his going away. All she will say is that he went away and she doesn't know where he is. There were rumors of domestic infelicity, but as to this no one seems to know positively.

The whole story is that a colored man of the description given has disappeared and his relatives are very anxious to have tidings of him.

Mr. Geo. B. Robeson, who has been with the Polk Gray Drug Co. the past nine months, has given up his position with this company and will go to Salisbury to take a position with Cornelison & Cook, druggists. Mr. Robeson is an efficient druggist and an accommodating young man, and his many friends here will regret to learn that he is to leave Statesville. Mr. Robeson will go to Greensboro in a few days to visit home folks before taking up his new work at Salisbury.

Dr. Tait Butler, state veterinarian spent several days at the State Farm this week with Supt. Meacham.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Leonard will go to Salisbury this morning to spend a day or two with their son, Mr. Jno. B. Leonard, and take in "The Clansman" tonight.

Do Not Crowd the Season. The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilarating air and sunshine. Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are more dangerous than in mid-winter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have no fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant to take. Children like it. For sale by Shuford Drug Co.

It will not cost you a cent to try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and they are excellent for stomach troubles and constipation. Get a free sample at Shuford Drug Co's drug store.

"I Had a Cough That Friends Feared Would End My Life."

I Took Pe-ru-na And Am Well."

MRS. GRACE JANSON.

Mrs. Grace Janson, 1460 Madison street, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Typhoid fever left me with a complication of diseases. I had a terrible pain in my left side and had a cough that all my friends feared would soon end my life."

"My doctor came to see me three times a week, but could do me no good. He could not account for the pain in my left side and could give me nothing to relieve me."

"About this time I began taking Peruna and before I had taken one bottle I had hopes of getting better. By the time I had taken the second bottle, my cough was entirely gone and I felt like a new being."

"I took just three bottles of Peruna and am entirely well and feel better than I have felt for years. I thank God and Dr. Hartman for my recovery."

MANY cases of chronic catarrh result from a settled cold. Women are especially liable to colds. These colds occur more frequently during the wet, sloppy weather of winter and spring than any other time of the year. Often they are not considered serious and are allowed to run on, or they are treated in such a way as to only palliate the symptoms, while the cold becomes more deep-seated and the patient finally awakens to the fact that she has a well-developed case of catarrh.

By reason of their delicate structure the lungs are frequently the seat of a cold, especially if there is the slightest weakness of these organs. The treatment of catarrh of the lungs is also more difficult and discouraging than catarrh of any other organ of the body. It would be, therefore, to guard against it by every precaution possible.

Peruna has been found a most reliable remedy for coughs, colds and catarrhal diseases, by reason of the fact that it goes at once to the very seat of the trouble.
