THURSDAY, MAR. 14, 1907.

The race question has been put up to the Inter-state Commerce Commission. A complaint under the provisions of the railroad rate regulation law was filed in its office a few days since by Georgiana Edwards, a negr woman of Chattanooga, Tenn., against the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railroad Co.

The negress in her petition complains of being compelled to ride in the "Jim Crow" cars of the railway named after paying a first-class fare. The petitioner alleges that under the provision of the railroad rate regulation law negro passengers are entitled to the same rights and privileges in interstate travel as white passengers. Therefore she asks the Commission to make an order compelling the railways of the South to abandon "Jim Crow" cars on interstate trains. This suit presents a serious question to the South. In the first place it brings about a conflict between State and Federal authorities; and, in the second place, the safety of white women traveling alone on railway trains is menaced by the possibility of the Federal Government compelling the railroads to allow negro passengers to ride in coaches occupied by white people.

Death of James Southerland.

Little James Herbert, the six-months-old baby of Mr. and Mrs.
B. A. Southerland, died Saturday night at Washington, D. C., while the parents were en route to Baltimore, taking it to Johns-Hopkins Hospital for treatment.
The little body was brought back to Charlotte this morning and carried to St. Peter's Episcopal Church, where the funeral was held, the services being conducted by the rector, Rev. Harris Mallinckrodt. — Charlotte News.

These bereaved parents have the heart-felt sympathy of their many friends in Hickory.

the requirements.

A Coming Attraction.

The Hickory Library Association desires to announce to the public that a Concert will be given on Thursday, in Easter week, to which every one is cordially invited.

Since the establishment of the Free Library, the membership has much more than doubled and with new books and other inducements, it can be made more attractive and the number of visitors increased. Just now, the Librarian has calls on every hand for "new books" and the proceeds of this concert will be used entirely for the purpose of buying new reading matter. The greater the number attending the concert, the greater the fund for this purpose. Those who attend will be doubly rewarded—in the musical entertainment as well as in the possession of the new books.

Do not forget the date, Thursday evening, April 4th.

Try one can of Argo Red Salmon, and you will use no other.

Mr. H. S. Suttlemyre Dead.

With the passing of "Uncle Harvey" Suttlemyre, as he was generally called, Hickory mourns one of her oldest and best citizens. Of his long life, more than half had been past here, as he had been living in this place about forty years. When, in the early sixties, the call went out to defend the South from invasion, no family could have made a more prompt response than the one of which he was a member.
No less than eight sons did that household send forth to battle.
In Mr. Suttlemyre's very first fight, he received a dangerous wound. He accepted his gallant conduct as a mere matter of course. It was right for him to fight for his country, therefore he did it. Perhaps the most notable characteristic of the good old friend who has passed from us to the better country was his almost fierce dislike of leth and aversion to anything that risked causing another the loss of a penny through him. In these days of carelessness in the transactions of everyday business life and recklessness of obligations, he set an example that might well be followed by every young man who ever knew him.
And though economical and frugal, he had a warm heart for those in trouble of any kind. The first the writer ever met him, many, many years ago, it was in the room of a "shut in," and his kindness with the helpless one made an impression that was never forgotten.

"Uncle Harvey" clung to "the faith once delivered unto the saints," and we believe that it is very well with him now.
When we come to lay down the garment of this flesh, may those we leave behind be able to say of us, as we of him "That was one who would not have defrauded or lied to save his life or that of the dearest to him."

The funeral was held from the Methodist church, Rev. W. M.
Bagby, the pastor, conducting the funeral services assisted by Dr. W. R. Gwaltney. At the close of this service the body was turned over to the Masons for burial, and this was done with Masonic honors.

Edgar L. Flowers has invented a fire escape that seems to be a success. He has descended from a three story building a number of times in perfect safety.

William Taber Houston is probably the most versatile entertainer on the Lyceum stage and holds a position all his own. He, with his wife, Olive Lockwood Houston, will, on next Monday night, March 18th, at the Academy of Music, render a most varied program—impersonations, songs, readings, musical imitations, and novelties.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

CONSTIPATION.

I can tell a person who is constipated on sight. Their complexion is pasty or yellow. Their eyes are dull, and they look and feel sleepy. Nowonder they do. The bowels are a sewer.
They carry away the poisonous refuse. If they don't act the poisonous matter is absorbed by the body, and headaches, dizziness, back compainion and eventually serious troubles result.

There is no better rule for good health than that the bowels should move every day at the same hour if possible. Regularity can be acquired by making a habit of this. Foolish people neglect this and when chronic constipation effects them they take pills every few days to force the bowels to perform their natural function.
As years go on they require more and more pills. This should be stopped.
Cooper's New Discovery will build up the stomach and cause the bowels to act naturally. While taking the medicine get the habit of regularity, then gradually stop taking the medicine.

Here is a sample of letters from those who have tried it:

"For sixteen years I have suffered from stomach and liver trouble, and chronic constipation. I had frequent headaches and always felt tired and worn out. I heard of Cooper's New Discovery and began its use. After I had finished one bottle I was wonderfully improved. Constipation gave way to a pleasing regularity of the bowels and I ate better, slept better and felt better than I had for months.
It is the greatest medicine I have ever known." Samuel Booren, 1742 Munsey Ave., Scranton Pa.

Our customers who have used them say the Cooper medicines do the work. We sell them.

How Few Enjoy Perfect Health

It is because they make so little effort to keep well until they are sick. They throw hurriedly into their stomachs a combination of cheap, impure, improperly made foodstuffs that are sure in time to breed dyspepsia and all other maladies. Try Most people know that if they have been sick they need Scott's Emulsion to bring back health and strength.

But the strongest point about Scott's Emulsion is that you don't have to be sick to get results from it.

It keeps up the athlete's strength, puts fat on thin people, makes a fretful baby happy, brings color to a pale girl's cheeks, and prevents coughs, colds and consumption.

Food in concentrated form for sick and
