

HAYWOOD TRIAL OPENED UP WITH ADDRESS TO JURY

After Long Delay in Securing Jury the Trial of William Haywood, Charged With Murder, has Now Commenced.

James H. Hawley, Leading Counsel for Prosecution, Opened up With Address To-day's Proceedings in Detail Given.

Boise, June 4.—The trial of Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, charged with the murder of Frank Steunenberg, former governor of the state of Idaho, commenced in earnest this morning when James Hawley, leading counsel for the prosecution, made the opening address to the jury.

Allege Officers to Blame. Mr. Hawley said they expected to prove the officers and executive committee of the Western Federation of Miners were responsible not only for the death of Steunenberg, but for scores of others besides. The defense objected, but was overruled.

Object of "Inner Circle." Mr. Hawley then said: "The 'inner circle' of the Western Federation of Miners always aimed at controlling not only the organization of the Western Federation of Miners, but the government of the different States where the organization existed. Mr. Darrow objected on the ground that the statement was a 'pure fire of rhetoric and no part of the statement of the case.'"

Judge Wood smoothed the matter over, Hawley agreeing the defense should hold the right of objection to every statement without interruption. Hawley said he would prove the Western Federation of Miners "left a trail of blood—traded in blood, hired paid assassins and collected huge sums of money which they used and squandered to carry out the objects of the 'inner circle.'"

He said that he would show that the "inner circle" used an emergency fund to hire the best legal talent to defend those of their circle charged with crime.

Many Murders Charged. Hawley announced that Orchard had made a "full confession" to McPartland, and to him, and that McPartland would be on the stand.

Hawley said he would prove that the "inner circle" of the Federation of Miners was responsible for the death of Arthur Collins at Telluride, and of many other people in Colorado and elsewhere.

Wayne First Witness. Hawley charged the blowing up of Independence depot, causing the death of 14 persons, to the direct instigation of Haywood. He said Orchard and Adams committed this and other crimes on the specific request of Haywood. At the conclusion of Hawley's address Darrow announced the defense would reserve its opening statement until the State's case had been closed. C. F. Wayne was the first witness called.

A DYNAMITE OUTRAGE.

After Having Received Letter From Black Hand, Store Blown Up by Dynamite. New York, June 4.—In what the police believe was a dynamite outrage, Mrs. Eliza Maroney, 60 years of age, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mary Maroney, 35, were seriously and possibly fatally injured yesterday at their home at Mount Vernon.

The women were in the kitchen when the stove exploded, setting fire to the room. The stove was so completely wrecked that it is believed by the authorities that the explosion was caused by a stick of dynamite that had been placed in the fire box.

Everything in the room was demolished. The women were badly burned and also injured by flames and fragments from the explosion.

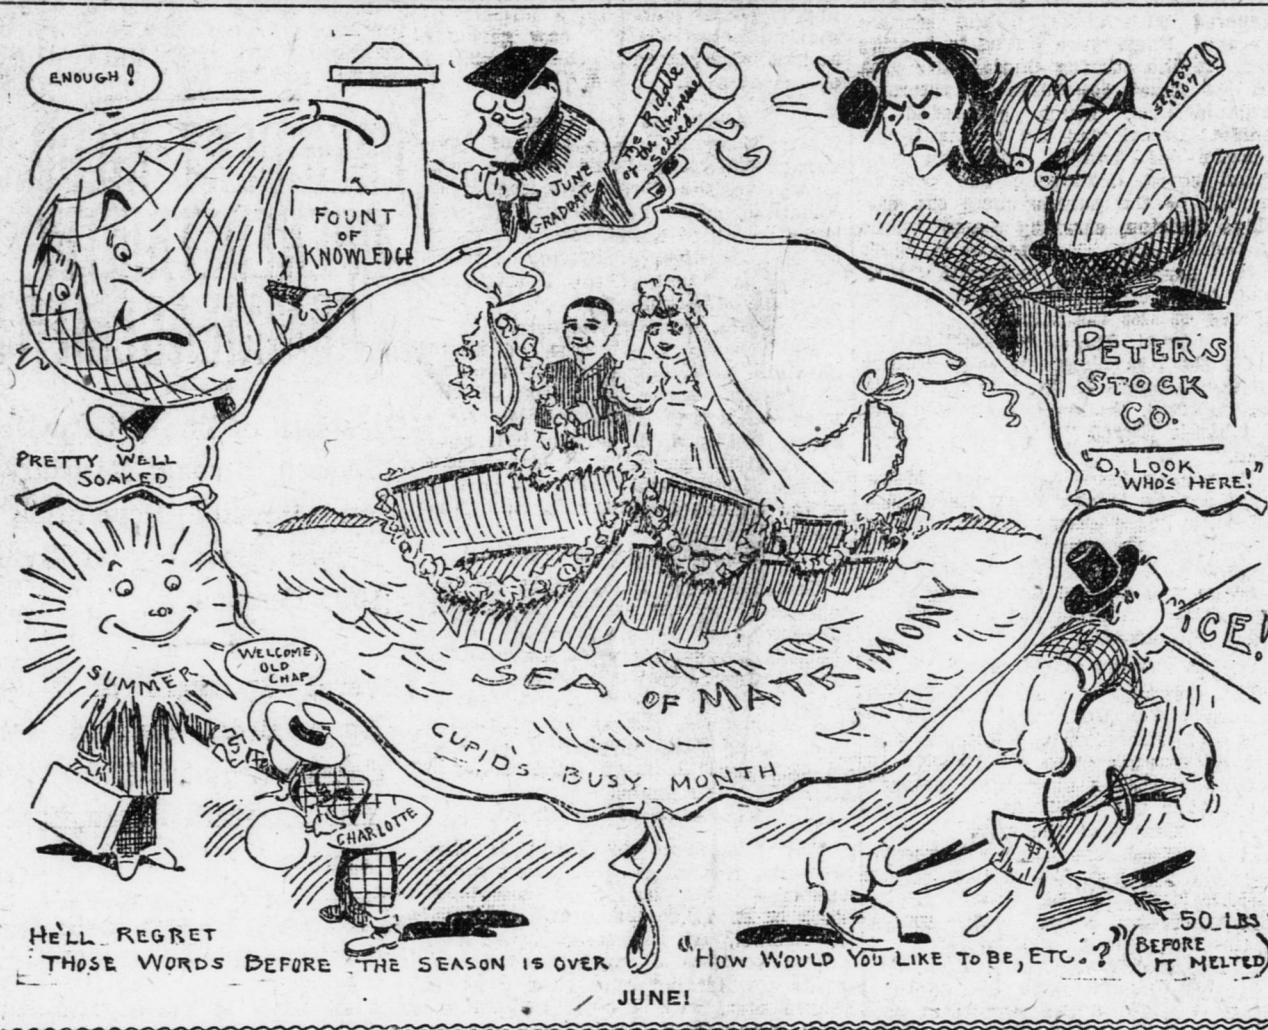

The 10-year-old daughter of Mary Maroney was disfigured by the explosion and is in a serious condition. The police say that Mrs. Maroney's husband had received a number of threatening letters and that some weeks ago $500 had been demanded of him in a "Black Hand" letter. The building where the explosion occurred was five stories in height and occupied by tenements. Windows were shattered, ceilings fell and a panic ensued among the tenants.

Greensboro Chamber of Commerce Very Busy

Greensboro, N. C., June 4.—The Chamber of Commerce of Greensboro has not let the grass grow under its feet since the State Corporation Commission was here last week and told its board of directors that a formal complaint would have to be filed and forwarded to them in the matter of obtaining relief from the State Corporation Commission, under sections 3 and 4 of the Rate Bill, relating to excessive freight charges and discriminations by the railroads.

The board of directors immediately retained the services of the law firm of Justice & Broadhurst to prepare the complaint and assist the State commission in prosecuting the case before the Federal commission.

Today Secretary Kuykendal forwarded to the State Commission the complaint.

It is an important legal document and will no doubt prove a valuable guide to other cities of the State in getting their cases of the same nature before the commission.

Wilmington, N. C., June 4.—The Marion Home for Sick Children, recently donated by Mr. James Sprunt, will open at Wrightsville Beach on June 10th. Mrs. Grace Hengeveld has been engaged as nurse and Mrs. Helen G. Lane as matron.

Excited Market Followed Government's Report

New York, June 4.—There was a very excited market for cotton, accompanied by a severe decline in prices, as a result of the government's first cotton crop report for the season. The market had been very nervous early in the day with prices showing a net loss of 18 to 20 points under the liquidation before the report was published and the decline immediately following, was probably intensified by the misunderstanding concerning the acreage.

The condition while about four per cent lower than the previous low record, was little better than indicated by the recent private reports and added the break of 24 to 28 points, which immediately followed the report.

Heavy buying by shorts and bull interest rallied the market 15 or 20 points.

Victoria, B. C., June 4.—The steamer Shawmut brought news of the disastrous loss of life following the earthquake at Hsing Klang.

The Empress Dowager telegraphed urgent instructions to the local governors to take measures to relieve the distress.

Say Whites and Blacks Are Housed Together

Winston-Salem, June 4.—There is quite a considerable stir in this county over a part of the report of the last grand jury, which adjourned last week, and the State press has also taken up the matter are are dishing out some red-hot stuff to the county commissioners. The report of the grand jury charged that white and colored convicts are kept in the same room at night and sleep together.

It is also said that the county commissioners are very much wrought up by the charge made in the grand jury's report that the court house is not kept as clean as it should be.

Destructive Hail Storm Visited Statesville Sat

Statesville, N. C., June 4.—A very severe and destructive hail and wind storm passed over west and north Statesville Saturday afternoon between 2 and 3 o'clock, doing much damage to growing crops, fruit trees and buildings. The path of the storm was about one mile in width and four in length, and the hail stones were fully one half inch in diameter at points near the Statesville Cotton Mill and the depot. The storm came from the west rather suddenly, and persons, animals and fowls caught in it were subject to severe bruises by the rough hail stones which were hurled with great force by the wind. Quite a number of people were forced to turn their teams loose and take shelter under the vehicles.

The storm was not destructive in the vicinity of the depot. The large hail stones were banked up on the depot platform to a depth of two or three feet and was two inches deep on the level.

State Board of Agriculture in Semi-Annual Session

Raleigh, N. C., June 4.—The state board of agriculture convened in semi annual session this morning and it is expected that practically all the week will be required to dispose of the business which will come up. In addition to a great amount of routine department matters, including the making of the budget for the next six months, the board will have to fix the salary of the state commissioner of agriculture, an act of the last legislature having left this to the board in fixing the salaries of the state officers generally. The salary heretofore has been $2,100. The act was effective from ratification so that what ever salary the board fixes will apply from the time the act was passed in March. It is expected that the board will fix the salary at not less than $3,000. Several employees of the department including the state chemist and others, receive as much as $5,000 so that the salary of the commissioner is very much out of proportion.

The board will take action during the present session looking to putting in operation the new pure food law that was passed by the recent general assembly and which is very much more stringent than the former law. It will be operative July 1. There are three new members of the board of agriculture—J. J. Laughlinhouse of Pitt; Ashley Horne of Johnston, and C. W. Mitchell of Bertie.

Asking for bread and getting a stone must be a good bit like asking for assistance and getting advice.

Union Men Started Row

New York, June 4.—Two hundred striking longshoremen, about twenty non-union men and several policemen had a pitched battle in Jersey City today.

When peace was finally restored, one union man was found with a terrible gash in his head, and two others, also badly wounded, were splintered away by their friends.

Pistols, knives, clubs and stones were used in the encounter. The trouble started the strike-breakers were on their way to work on the Italian steamship Regina d'Italia. On the north side of the pier about 200 union longshoremen were unloading the steamship Princessa Laotitia of the same line. When they saw the non-union men they charged on them and chased them either into the hold of the ship or down the pier to the street.

The fight came to an end only after all the leaders of the strikers had been laid low by the clubs of the policemen.

TRUSTEES DISCUSS FUTURE POLICIES OF TRINITY COL.

Board of Trustees of Trinity College Held Session. Many Matters Discussed. Mr. Stagg Made Secretary of Board.

Old Members Re-elected. A New Professor. Senator Overman Present. Program is Full of Commencement Exercises.

Durham, N. C., June 4.—The session of the trustees of Trinity College this morning consumed 45 minutes. A number of matters were discussed pertaining to the future policies of the college, but nothing was definitely decided along this line.

Mr. J. Ed Stagg, of Durham, was elected secretary to the board of trustees, to succeed the deceased secretary, V. Ballard.

All members of the board of trustees whose time had expired were re-elected. Rev. John C. Wooten A. B. Trinity, B. D. University of California, was elected professor of Biblical literature.

Senator Overman, a trustee of Trinity, was present this morning. The meeting adjourned to meet again tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Program of Today. The sessions of Trinity commencement today were attended by several hundred visitors and commencement is in progress with a vim and vigor. The occasion of interest this morning was the commencement sermon by Rev. Donald Sage Mackay, D. D., pastor of Collegiate church, New York City. He is a pleasing speaker and his address consumed the close attention of the large audience who recorded his amiable phrases with gratitude. The subject of his sermon was, "The Man of Conviction," and he selected his text from Timothy second 1:12, "I Am Persuaded."

Mr. Dowd Spoke. The alumni banquet and address in the parlor of the new dormitory at 1 o'clock this afternoon proved a rare epoch in attendance and the gathering of old friends made it an enjoyable and genial occasion. As the graduates gather on the campus each year, it is exceedingly pleasing to notice the greeting extended by each, and they consider it a welcome to their old home. The present class of '07 will hold a class reunion in 1912. The annual alumni address was delivered by Prof. Jerome Dowd, of Charlotte.

The most important feature of the annual meeting of the board of trustees yesterday, which convened at 5 o'clock, was the establishment of a chair of education. A discussion over the new department consumed considerable time and required almost the entire session. The North Carolina Conference last fall established a chair of Biblical literature, and this will make two new departments next year. These will strengthen the academic department on a considerable extent. Several committees were appointed to make reports this morning. The annual report of President Kilgo was submitted to the trustees and all members of the present faculty were re-elected.

Fraternity Functions. The closing event of yesterday was the annual social occasions of the Kappa Alpha and Kappa Sigma fraternities. The attendance exceeded those of any fraternity banquets during the past two years and were interesting and enjoyable.

President's Report. In the report of President Kilgo to the board of trustees of Trinity College he had the following to say regarding hazing: "The commonwealth cannot afford to set its approval upon such a base ideal of education nor can it sanction that which detracts the growth of strong institutions of learning."

As to Hazing. The various religious denominations should withdraw their support from this class of spurious colleges. If it is a profanity for the State to issue charters to them to exercise the functions of a college, it is a worse profanity for the churches to foster them. The Christian religion is a religion of moral integrity and cannot be made the basis of a false education any more than it can be appealed to to excuse false measures in the market. Nor can the denominations hope to have any sort of leadership in education if they continue to espouse ideas that are condemned by intelligent men. One often, when he hears the reckless claims made by the representatives of the school, especially when these claims are set forth in the name of Christian education.
