WINE OF CARDUI

One Hundred Persons Wend Down With Large Ship to Watery Grave

As Result of Fatal Collision Between Steamer Columbia and Lumber Steamer 100 Persons Are Lost in Sea.

Rest of Crew, Numbering 80, Clung to Lumber Ship And Were Later Rescued. Full Story of Aquatic Tragedy.

San Francisco, Cal., July 22.—The news has just been received here that the steamer Columbia and San Pedro were in collision off Shelter Cove, Mendocino county, Saturday night.

The Columbia was sunk and 100 lives lost.

Story of Wreck.
The steamer Columbia was bound north from this port for Portland, It collided with the lumber steamer San Pedro Saturday night off Shelter Cove, Mendocino county.

There was a heavy fog at the time and San Pedro, heavily laden with lumber, struck the Columbia on the port bow with such terrific force that she was cut down to the water and sank in about five minutes.

Eighty were saved.
About 100 people clung with her to a watery grave, and the rest, numbering about 80, were saved by clinging to the San Pedro, from which vessel they were rescued some hours later by the steamer Roanoke.

Captain Doran, of the Columbia, went down with the vessel.
The San Pedro was picked up by the steamer George W. Elder and is being towed into Eureka.

Description of Ships.
The Columbia was an iron screw steamer of 2,272 tons, 308.4 feet long. The San Pedro was a wooden screw of 435 tons, 162.1 feet long.

Full Story of Collision.
The Columbia was submerged in the deep waters of Shelter Cove. The collision occurred at midnight when all save the look-out and officer on the bridge were asleep. The Columbia was sailing north at an easy rate when suddenly out of the fog loomed the San Pedro, evidently out of her course.

Whirls were blown and frantic efforts were made by the helmsmen to prevent the collision.

The San Pedro struck the Columbia in the port bow, tearing an immense hole through which the water poured in great volumes.

The alarm sounded through the out-passenger vessel and the terrified passengers scrambled from their staterooms in an effort to escape, but the time was too short to aid the life-savers. The life raft was launched with a number of passengers on board, but only a few of the entire number on board were saved.

The life raft bearing the survivors is being towed here by the Daisy Mitchell.

Probably 150 Were Drowned.
The steamer Roanoke spoke to the steamer George W. Elder and the latter had on board 88 passengers and crew of the Columbia which were taken on the steamer San Pedro. The steamer San Pedro had her stem gone and was damaged considerably forward.

Her cargo was gone and she was in a waterlogged condition. It is reported that 150 were drowned.

All Women Lost.
According to a rescued passenger of the Columbia every woman on board was lost.

ZEKE LEWIS NOW ON TRIAL CHARGED WITH LYNCHING

Monroe, N. C., July 20.—Court was called to order this morning at 9 o'clock and the courtroom was crowded. The case against Zeke Lewis was called and at once the work of selecting the jury was begun. After some time a jury was finally picked and ex-Sheriff of Anson county, Bogan, was called by the state as the first witness.

Testimony Begun.
Mr. Bogan told a straight forward story, being, in effect, about the same as told in the case of John Jones. Mr. Bogan recounted the incidents of the night of the lynching; told how the mob came, and under false pretense, secured Johnson.

Says Lewis Was in the Mob.
Mr. Bogan, when asked if he recognized Zeke Lewis in the mob that secured and lynched J. V. Johnson, replied emphatically that he did.

Miss Alice Bogan Called.
The next witness for the state was Miss Alice Bogan, daughter of Sheriff Bogan.

Miss Bogan told comparatively the same story as she told in the case of Jones, except she did not recognize Lewis herself on the night of the lynching.

Heard His Name Called.
However, Miss Bogan declared that she heard her father call the name of Lewis when the mob was in the jail yard.

The testimony of these two witnesses consumed the time of the morning session. On the cross-examination Attorney Stack warmly assailed the character of ex-Sheriff Bogan and attempted to make the witness admit that he had told different stories about the affair.

Mr. Bogan did admit that when questioned about the identity of persons in the mob, he had attempted to throw interrogation off the track, preferring to make no charges until he was called as a witness in court.

This Afternoon's Session.
At the session of court this afternoon H. D. Kendall, sr., and young Kendall and young Meeks, all of whom turned state's evidence, were called as witnesses, each telling about the same story as was told at the trial of John Jones.

Mr. Kendall testified that Zeke Lewis was the leader of the mob. He said he did not see him, but heard him repeatedly addressed by members of the mob as the leader.

The case against Lewis, it is thought, will consume equally as much time as did the case against John Jones, if not more. At the close of the session this afternoon only a part of the witnesses had been examined.

Monday morning the case of Zeke Lewis will be resumed. It will be remembered that it was his case that was called first at the former hearing, to be made a test case.

Rantankerous Minority.
Greensboro Telegram.
The overbearingness of the anti-Bryan democrats is in strange contrast with the forbearance of the Bryan people. The latter are plainly conciliatory. The former are fighting constantly.

The mention of Bryan seems to send the anti-Bryanters into fits. It is perhaps the most rantankerous minority that a political party ever had to contend with.

This story is told by a paper man, who brought it up from Georgia. Down in that state is a United States justice who maintains to the full degree the dignity of the court, and who in his utterances from the bench, is rather inclined to be impressive and pompous.

There was brought before him recently a "cracker," who was charged with making illicit whiskey. The prisoner's name was Joshua, and in the state is a United States justice said, "Joshua, are you the man of whom the Bible tells who made the sun stand still?"

"No, sir," said Joshua, "It's the man who made the moon shine."

UNTIMELY DEATH AT RUTHERFORDTON

Rutherfordton, N. C., July 22.—An untimely death was that of young Clarence Beam, which occurred at the Rutherford Hospital in this town at 9 o'clock Saturday night. Young Beam was brought to the hospital Friday morning to undergo an operation for appendicitis which was performed in the afternoon of the same day. The operation, however, proved useless as the unfortunate man had delayed too long in having the work done. He was just 23 years of age, a son of Mr. Cicero Beam, one of the county's best citizens.

His body was prepared for burial and carried to his home in Logan's Store township where it will be interred today.

Man Seriously Injured.

McRae, of Marshallville, an engineer on the construction train of the Millard Quigg Co., contractors on the South & Western Railway at Vein Mountain, was seriously if not dangerously hurt yesterday, and brought to the Rutherford hospital soon after the accident. Mr. McRae in some way got caught between the engine and cars and was badly mashed.

Vanhook, of Stanley county, and Miss Rosalie McLean, of Albemarle. Rev. E. K. McLaughlin performed the ceremony at the Methodist parsonage. The young lady's parents were opposed to the match, consequently the elopement. The young couple will reside in Lexington after returning from their bridal tour of northern cities.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by drug, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Southern Fined 30 Thousand

Raleigh, N. C., July 20.—Convicted by the jury of the Wake county court of violating the law by selling tickets for the Southern Railway, passenger agent, T. E. Green, yesterday chose to pay a nominal fine in lieu of running the risk of such sentence as the court might impose upon him.

The Southern Railway, his principal, was then fined by Judge Long the sum of $30,000 and an execution ordered to issue.

Mr. Green, who had previously refused to give bond, and actually permitted himself to be put in jail for one night, and who was still in the custody of the court, was told by Judge Long that he had the option, either to obey the court and promise to refrain in the future from selling tickets at the illegal rate or of continuing in the attitude of defiance and of defiance to the court.

After consultation, Mr. Green announced through an attorney that the fact that he had an aged mother in a delicate condition of health constrained him to pay the nominal fine of five dollars and take the obligation to discontinue sales at the illegal rate, although he did not consider that he had committed any wrong or crime.

Just previously to this, Mr. F. H. Busbee, of counsel for Mr. Green and the Southern Railway, had stated that Mr. Green desired a little more time, as "his occupation and livelihood" depended largely upon his decision.

Owen P. Lovejoy Celebration.

Springfield, Ill., July 22.—Republican politics in Illinois are expected to make headway in Greenfield tomorrow, when a celebration will be held of the 47th anniversary of the famous speech of Owen P. Lovejoy, which opened the Lincoln campaign. The speech Lovejoy delivered on that occasion obtained national fame. Lincoln often quoted from this speech, and in 1888 Robert G. Ingersoll declared that Lovejoy's speech was the greatest political address ever delivered in America. Gen. John M. Palmer presided at the meeting, which was held on the Stone farm, in the northeast corner of Jersey county, where Macoupin and Greene counties touch her borders. Though there were no railroads in that section of the state at the time, the crowd that assembled was so large there was difficulty in feeding them. It has been arranged for tomorrow's celebration to be held at the same location. Among the prominent republican leaders of Illinois who have promised to take part are Governor Deneen, Speaker Cannon, ex-Senator William E. Mason and ex-Governor Richard Yates.
