

GLENN TELLS OF NEGRO MAN'S FAITHFULNESS

Norfolk, Aug. 19.—Governor Glenn made an effective speech to the colored people at the exposition on Negro Day at Jamestown. Among other things he said:

"I want to tell you all that I feel very close in many respects to the colored people of my state. I was raised on a plantation. My father never owned any slaves, but after my father's death, I lived with my uncle, who owned three or four hundred slaves who were my companions, my playmates, my friends. Whenever I meet them, we meet and greet each other as friends. There is a story that I have told to my own state, and I find no timidity in telling it here, that makes me feel especially kind to the colored race when they are trying to do their duty."

"There was a Confederate captain who went to the war in 1861, and carried with him his faithful servant, Mack. On the 14th of September, 1862, at the beginning of the battle of South Mountain, this Confederate captain called to his side his faithful servant, gave him his watch, some trinkets and $397 and a letter to his mistress telling him to watch him during the battle, saying: 'If you see me fall, see me decently buried and give these to my wife.'"

"On the day of the battle, behind crags and cliffs the faithful servant watched his master, and just as the sun, with all his splendor and grandeur, was resting behind the western horizon, he saw his fall. He immediately hastened to his side, and pillowing his head on his arm saw the life slowly leave his body. Calling to mind the last wishes of his master, he buried him with the aid of three other privates of his regiment, not in a coffin, but only with his soldier's garb as a shroud and a grave dug with soldiers' bayonets. Footsore and weary that colored man walked 500 miles, fording rivers and creeks, often begging his bread, to the home of his mistress, and gave her the watch, trinkets and letter and $397, not having spent one single dime, and then he carried out his sacred promise to look after his three little boys."

"He cared for them for two years, when his Master called him home to his place in heaven, where he met the master he so dearly loved. That captain was my father. I am one of the little boys that Mack used to nurse and watch over. Could I be unkind to the race that Mack belongs to? Forbid it, Almighty God."

"North Carolina has been true to her people, white and black. I can prove it by Commissioners Williamson and Hunter. It is in our state here where relations are most pleasant. From Maine to Florida, from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, as well as the New England States, it is seen here today that North Carolina was the only state that loved the colored man so well as to give him $5,000 to make this exhibit."

"We have given it because they are worthy of it, because they have our respect. This shows the colored man's ambition to take his place in the great destiny of men. All colored men should try to lift their race and themselves to something higher and better. When one sees how step by step they have gone up, see the furniture, see the paintings, see the handiwork here produced by them in this nation, the great product of nations. I want you to do your part in the nation in which God has placed you, and let the world be better for you, having done something for your race, for the white race, for humanity and for your God."

"I wish you God speed in your efforts and in your work to help your race rise. We must work side by side, and act our part so that in the end God will say, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant.' We want you to go on and still forward to greater things than you have accomplished to-day."

TRIED TO ENTER LADIES' ROOMS.
Atlanta Traveling Man Arrested in a Winston Hotel.
Winston-Salem, N. C., Aug. 19.—V. G. Richardson, a traveling man from Atlanta, spent yesterday in the city lock-up.

Saturday night, while a guest at the Zinzendorf hotel, for some reason or another, he made several attempts to enter the rooms of ladies at the hotel and raised a general disturbance. The man appeared to be under the influence of whiskey and fought his friends like a mad man.

An officer was called and he was taken to the calaboose in his night clothes, saying he would not put on his clothes. His bond was fixed at $200, and being unable to give it, he rested yesterday behind the bars. He will be given a hearing before the recorder today.

In Trenton, N. J., the consumption of beer has greatly increased, and it is said, to the fact that city water is so muddy people refuse to use it.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED.
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a humming sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Join Cities by Inter-Urban

High Point, N. C., Aug. 19.—The people in this section of the state are greatly interested in the great development that is expected to be accomplished by the Carolina Valley Railway and Construction Company of which Mr. Dee Allen is president, but up to this time there has been a good deal of guess work in regard to the plans of this company. However, yesterday evening Mr. Dee Allen gave out an interview in which he explains the plans and details of his company. He says the line from Thomasville here will be first finished and put in operation. One track laid with 70-pound steel rail will be used for both steam and electric cars from Thomasville to a point about two miles below this place. From this point to town there will be two tracks, the electric line bearing north under the Southern Railway to a junction up North Main street where it will join the line running from Mechanicsville. The railway line will bear southeast and will tap South Main street and on to a point at the North Carolina Oil Company's office.

Work is still being pushed forward on the trolley line in the city and it is hoped that cars will be running on the streets of High Point and also from here to Thomasville within a year.

This company has purchased over 300 acres of land near Deep River Church and it is a part of the plan to erect a sub-station and to have one of the finest parks on the state.

There will be an excellent country club, a lake, a pavilion, opera house, and all kinds of amusements usually found at such places. This will be the junction point of the three lines or connections, High Point, Greensboro and Winston-Salem. It is seven miles from High Point, eight miles from Winston-Salem.

Electric cars connecting these towns will run on a schedule not more than one hour apart. Of course it will take considerable time, like all big undertakings to finish this work, but Mr. Dee Allen says he will rush it through as rapidly as possible.

High Point Briefs.
The Abbot's Creek Baptist Primitive Association will meet Saturday, Aug. 28, with the High Point Church in Mechanicsville. The association will be in session three days and a large attendance is expected from all parts of the county.

The creditors of the Ideal Grocery Company yesterday sold all of the goods, fixtures, and two horses of the bankrupt company. The amount realized from the sales was about $2,250, Mr. R. E. Steele, of Greensboro, was the purchaser.

The graded school at this place will open Sept. 9. Prof. Crowell, the superintendent, who is now touring Europe, is expected to arrive Aug. 31st.

Principal B. F. Hargett, of Trinity High School, says the prospects for a large attendance at the fall term is most flattering. About $1,000 has been spent in renovating the building. The large dwelling opposite the school has been purchased from president Crowell and is being fitted up for a girl's dormitory.

The children of the Friends Sunday school enjoyed the annual picnic on the banks of Deep river at the country place of Mr. W. J. Armfield Thursday. A large number of the happy children and adults participated. They drove out in wagons that were decorated with United States flags.

NEIGHBORS GOT FOOLED.
"I was literally coughing myself to death, and had become too weak to leave my bed; and neighbors predicted that I would never leave it alive; but they got fooled, for thanks be to God, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It took just four one-dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Unepher, of Grovetown, Stark Co., Ind. This King of cough and cold cures, and healer of throat and lungs, is guaranteed by C. M. Shuford, W. S. Martin & Co.

Ex-Convict Kills a Negro.
Winston-Salem, Aug. 19.—Claude James, a young white man who last week completed a sentence of six months on the county roads for shooting negroes during Christmas week, last Saturday shot and killed Eurie Smith and painfully injured Burt Alexander, both being colored men.

James claims that he was in a house with a woman in the Belo Pond section and that these two negroes attempted to break in and that he shot them.

Smith was shot in the stomach and lived about 25 minutes.

A bull met a trolley car, head on, near Pleasantville, Pa., and the impact knocked the car off the track. The passengers cut the bull's throat with pocket knives.

U. S. Navy Has Second Place

New York, Aug. 17.—The tenth annual issue of F. T. Jane's "Fighting Ships of 1907," which is one of the recognized authorities on the navies of the world, and which has just been published in London, puts the United States second among the naval powers of the world, with the Grand Fleet, speaking of the United States navy, Mr. Jane in his preface, says:

"The extraordinary high figures for United States ships afford food for considerable thought, for both in ships with high powered guns or imperious to vital injury at long range, the United States fleet is superior to any other navy in the world. Even by the inclusion of 40-calibre 12-inch types extinct so far as new ships are concerned, the United States is an extremely good second, and the corresponding lead in invulnerability outside 7,000 yards is considerably increased."

For the first time the navies of Mexico and Peru are included in the book this year. Mexico has eight vessels in commission and two small cruisers and eight torpedo boats authorized.

The Peruvian navy consists of two small cruisers and several gunboats.

AUTOMATIC TYPEWRITER.
Chicago, Ill., Aug. 19.—American business offices of the future will be entirely stripped of pretty stenographers, noisy office boys and sedate bookkeepers, and in fact all help; the work being done entirely by automatic machinery. Late inventions to be shown at the national business shows in New York and Chicago this fall will herald the passing of all sorts of office help. Here are some of the strange devices that will be seen. A machine that will automatically write letters and address the envelopes over night and have them ready for the mail in the morning and are guaranteed not to flit.

Another that will put on stamps and drop them in the mail box. A conveyor that will carry papers and other portable articles to every portion of the office and factory and drop them just where they are needed and will not loaf or shoot craps on the way. A device that will keep books absolutely without the aid of any human agency further than a handy man in overalls to put on a drop of oil occasionally and will positively eschew the race track. A telephone attachment that will lift off the receiver when the bell rings, say in a soft feminine voice, "Hello, hold the wire please," and give the name of the firm. When the manager calls out he turns a switch and the person called is told that he is away and is asked to call later. A separate attachment records every word of the conversation at both ends, so that in the future it can be turned on like electric light or put away for future reference.

Still another attachment makes objects at distance visible, so that hubby can match a piece of silk for his wife without leaving his office, or wifey can watch hubby and see that he is not flirting with the blond manicurist across the hall.

The National Business Show in New York will be held in Madison Square Garden October 13 to 19 and in Chicago at the Coliseum, November 9 to 16, and these wonders will be put on exhibition where the public can see for themselves. Verily, modern business is being reduced to a science more and more every day, and some of the wonderful devices that will be seen at the shows prove it.

One on the Water
One day a man, apparently white, came into the best restaurant in Atlanta. The head waiter looked him over and thought he had negro blood in him. In fact, he was a very light quadroon.

"Here you," the head waiter said, "you are colored."

"O, no, I ain't," the man replied. "Not in the sense you mean."

"But you are mighty dark."

"I know I am, but that is because I am a Malay."

The head waiter was nonplused. He looked again and then asked suspiciously: "What is a Malay? Where is he from?"

"Why," said the man easily, "Malays are from Malasia."

Rings Round Eyes

The ills peculiar to women, take different forms. Some ladies suffer, every month, from dark rings round their eyes, blotches on their skin and tired feeling. Others suffer agonies of pain, that words can hardly express. Whatever the symptoms, remember there is one medicine that will go beyond mere symptoms, and act on the cause of their troubles, the weakened womanly organs.
