Railway Commissioners

Washington, D. C., Oct. 8 .-- The annual convention of the National Association of Railroad Commissioners began today at the rooms of the Interstate Commerce Commission in this city and wil continue for several days. The convention is composed of the members of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the railroad commissioners f the various states and other states and officers whose duties connect them with the railroads.

Owing to the unusually large number of laws affecting the railroads that have recently been passed by congress and by the state legislatures the present convention of the commissioners Opened Up To-day is expected to be the most important in the history of their association.

Cuts His Own Throat

Gastonia, N. C., Oct. 8.-Sunday night at the Clara Mill W. E. Sehand shot his wife four times, two shots taking effect in her back, and then cut his own throat from ear to ear with a pocket knife.

Sehand formerly lived at the Avon Mill, but for some offence was sent to the chain-gang, and his wife returned to her fathers, Mr. J. W. Havener, at the Clara Mill. Immediately upon Schand's return to town he visited the home of his father-inlaw and in attempting to get his wife to return home with him the quarrel occurred. Both are still alive this morning.
