The wedding was a notable incident, both in social and official circles. for the guest list included many of the most prominent names of society in the national capital.

The bride was attended by Miss Georgetta West, of Pittsburg, as maid of honor, and by her two small nieces as flower girls. The bridegroom had his uncle, Anthony C. Addison, of Washington, as his best man. Following the church ceremony, a large reception was held at "Cabin Hill," the home of the bride's parents.

The bride's wedding gifts were magnificent in number and value. The couple will make their wedding journey in a large touring car, and will cover some of the most picturesque parts of the country. They will re-turn to Washington later in the fall and will make their home at the residence of Representative and Mrs. Huff dropped from the active list of the on Sixteenth street.

The ills peculiar to women, take different forms,

Some ladies suffer, every month, from dark rings round their eyes, blotches on their skin and fired feeling. Others suffer agonies of pain, that words can hardly express. Whatever the symptoms, remember there is one medicine that will go beyond mere symptoms, and act on the cause of their troubles, the weakened womanly organs.
