Society News.

The following invitation was issued last week to the many members and friends of the Woman's Guild of the Episcopal church

A hilarious time at Mrs. Royster's—Tuesday evening Sept. 22 8 p. m.

We want you to come to our Swap party.

If you will be sure to bring; An article that you are willing to swap.

Just any old sort of a thing. A clothespin, rattle, old shoe, or toy balloon.

Jack-knife, plate, pan, or old tin spoon.

Be sure they are rapped and cannot be seen.

Bring nothing to eat, no not even a pickle.

The price of admission is two-dimes and a nickle

But, if you are sick, or your evening is filled,

Just send in a quarter, to The Lady Guild.

The evening of the 22nd was ideal as to the weather. The spacious residence of Mrs. Royster was decorated with potted plants and lovely roses. The crowd began to move in at the appointed hour. Each guest provided with—a swap and you may rely on it the concealed article was a something they were willing to swap—any old sort of a thing. This Swap Hilarity lasted for some time and then followed the guess as to the President of the United States, in the order of succession from Washington to Roosevelt—from examination of their pictures or photos which were distributed on the walls in the different rooms.

Then followed the game of thestle. Great fun for the initiated, those who were in the secret.

The game was for the "Greenhorn to find out and catch the one who blew the thestle. Lots of laughter and fun and a merry time with a wind up of refreshments and punch and an enjoyable evening all around.

The President guess prize for the lady guesser, an unusually beautiful bouquet of mamman cochet roses was awarded to Mrs. J. S. Moody.

Answer to Hilarious Invitation Mrs. Thornton cares not for Hilarity, but does not send any disparity to those who do. She sends a dime and three nickels and will eat her own pickles, with her supper of oysters, and not go to Mrs. Royster's.

Claremont Teacher Honored.

Salem Female Academy, the most noted girl's school in the South is to give a concert in October in honor of Signor D'Anna, the musical director of Claremont College.

Signor D'Anna will respond with several musical numbers. This is a rare compliment to one of the most gifted musicians in the South. Hickory is certainly honored and Claremont is certainly fortunate in securing a teacher of such reputation. Our young people have an opportunity to study music at home under a master.

Skips With Tax Money.

It was known last week that Sidney Bolch had left Town under suspicion. He was tax collector of Highland. It is a fact the tax books now show a shortage of about $200.00 of the money already collected and Mr. Bolch has gone to parts unknown, he was also badly in debt and would not meet his obligations, some of his creditors have levied on his house hold goods. His wife and children have gone to their fathers to make their home.
