THURSDAY, OCT. 29, 1908.

Vote the ticket, the straight ticket and the whole ticket.

Bryan is booked to win and all the rotten dollars in the Republican treasury can't defeat him.

Don't scratch a single candidate. There may be some whom you do not like, but you owe a duty to your party.

Go to the election and not only vote but work for the success of the Democratic ticket and you can rejoice in the victory.

The Last Call.

The battle of the ballots which has raged all over the country for the past few months will come to an end next Tuesday. The fight is one of purity in politics against corruption, the question is: Shall the people assert their right to rule this land or shall it continue under the domination of the lawless trusts. All that bribery can do will be done. A huge corruption fund has been hurried into the doubtful states by the Republicans who have waked up at the last moment to find themselves beaten and in the last ditch.

The probability is that their insidious measures will be useless and that Bryan will be triumphantly elected and will be backed by a Democratic Congress. In the State Kitchen and the entire ticket stand to win by from forty to fifty thousand majority. The entire county ticket looks safe by a good majority. But every Democrat should rally behind the flag and see to it that Catawba does not fall under the discredit of Republican rule. We must not give the enemy the satisfaction of electing a single man on the whole ticket. A strong fight at the last moment and the Democracy of Catawba will be safe for years to come. We have beaten the opponents of the Democratic party in every election for the last ten years and one more defeat will satisfy them that their efforts are hopeless.

Democratic Township Ticket.

At a meeting of the Democratic Township convention, which convened in the city hall Wednesday at 2 p. m. The following were put in nomination to fill the offices of Hickory township:
For Constable, J. Porter Burns; for Magistrates, S. E. Killian, L. C. Huffman, Rufus Huffman, R. M. Pitts, Rev. T. P. Bonner, W. F. Burns.

What is a Unitarian?

The following definition of a Unitarian is taken from the Crown Encyclopedia:

"One who maintains that God exists in one person only. The name Unitarian is applied specifically to a small Christian sect whose distinguished tenet is the unity as opposed to the Trinity of the Godhead. In the more general sense the name of course includes Jesus and Mohammed.

Unitarians of all shades of opinions are agreed in rejecting the entire orthodox scheme—including the doctrines of the Trinity, the vicarious atonement, the Duty of Christ, original sin, and everlasting punishment—as both unscriptural and irrational.

Having a good credit keeps many a man broke.

Democrat, don't let any personal feeling, keep you from voting the straight ticket on next Tuesday, every vote is needed.

If we had woman suffrage in this country, and the dear things voted as they dressed, how long would it take to get the returns all in?

The Republican party of North Carolina is the lineal descendant of the Reconstruction gang, and leaders of the Reign of Terror of Russellism are on its 1908 ticket. The people know the rascality of that party.

The Republicans are hoping that this combination will pull them through:

- T—rusts.
- A—varice,
- F—raud.
- T—eddy.

The Republican party cannot govern itself, and a party that is incapable of self-government is absolutely unfit to govern a great State like North Carolina and a good county like Cleveland.

The Republican party is a sectional and a geographical party. It is bounded on the North by Special Interests, on the East by Wal Street, on the South by the negro and on the West by the grafting plunder band of the Stand-Patters. There is no hope for the great toiling masses from it.

The Radicals now claim to favor education although they misrepresent and slander the public schools and the administration of the educational interests of the State generally. However, if the Radicals continue to improve, after a while they may get good enough to be Democrats.

Democracy stands for equal opportunity for the rich and the poor, and believes in giving to every man and child a chance to develop what is in them. The altruism of Democracy stands out in bold contrast with the mercenary greed and uncontrolled avarice and selfishness of the Republican party.

The Democratic party has opened a new schoolhouse for every day of the administrations of Governors Aycock and Glenn, and has thus given larger opportunity to the children of the state than any other party. The Democracy recognizes that childhood is the one consideration of first importance.

Bryan's Neat Reply.

Only one or two manufacturers in the country are reported as resorting to the old gag of notifying their employes that their plants would be closed if Bryan is elected. Sharples, a Pennsylvania manufacturer of cream separators has tried the game and is thus disposed of by Mr. Bryan:

"A press dispatch announces this morning that a Pennsylvania manufacturer of separators has given notice to his employes that the factory will close down for an extended period if I am elected. This is the most discouraging threat that I have yet read. I had supposed that the cows would go on giving milk under a Democratic Administration as well as under a Republican; but, if as a result of my election, cows are going to dry up in November and not become fresh again for four years, it will really be a serious matter.

"There must be some mistake in this separator business. The man may be manufacturing the separator that the Republican party has been using, for it has been using a separator that has separated the cream from the milk and it has given the cream monopolies, and the skimmed milk to the rest of the people. That kind of a separator will no longer be used and those who manufacture it may find their occupation gone but for the rest of the people it will be a glad day a day of rejoicing."

McCall Hero.

Hon. J. D. McCall made a thrilling speech to a large audience in the Opera house Tuesday night. He explained the panic. The Republican party is responsible for it. He exposed the trusts in all their weakness and spoke on State matters for a short while. His speech ought to have been heard by every voter in the United States. The lack of space prevents us from giving more of his remarks in this issue.

Bryan in the White House.

Ho Billy Bryan's coming, coming like a thousand Brick
Just climb onto his Wagon, Just climb it mighty quick
Crowd yourselves together close up to the Band
And bust your throats a cheering as you pass the Grand stand
For W. J. will get there, just as sure as fate
He's got a majority in nearly every State
Hoop him up and holler while the boys blow the band
And we'll be two lengths ahead, when we pass the Grand stand.

Chorus

Then Rally Boys, Rally on election day,
All the good folks are coming, and a coming Bryan's way
His platform is wide enough, there's room for all to stand.
Why the Democratic party's bigger than all out of doors
From old Pacific slopes to old Atlantic shores
From the region of the Great Lakes, way down to Mexico.
The land slide is coming, hear the cyclone blow
Boss Bryan's big lightning and Democratic thunder
Warning the Teddy crew to stand from in under
Down with all crookedness, the clamour grows louder
With the Bryan mill-stones, we'll grind them into powder.

Repeat chorus

Congressman Longworth and Billy me too Pete
And Big teeth, Big stick, they're already beat
Bondholders and monopolies, will take a back seat
And all will be invited, when it comes time to eat,
No more law making in favor of the classes
We will have good laws, that favor the masses
The Laboring man, can eat fine molasses.
Reps and Rads, in our States are all a set of asses.
Chorus again
—W. L. W.

Mr. Herndon Becomes Supt of Agencies.

Mr. J. A. Herndon of Hickory, has been appointed to succeed Mr. J. J. Rogers as superintendent of agencies of the North State Mutual Life Insurance Company.

The new head of the agency department is a man in the prime of life, full of vigor and energy. He was born in Danville, Va., in the year 1864. For a number of years after reaching manhood he was in business in Danville as a tobacconist and insurance man. His experience in the insurance business exclusively extends over a period of 20 years spent for the most part in Danville and Baltimore. He has covered nearly every phase of the life insurance business and is familiar with its intricacies.

For the last year he has been connected with the North State Mutual as assistant superintendent of agencies, covering the western part of this state for the local company. His work has given him a high standing with the company and his elevation to the head of the department is a recognition of his marked ability as a producer and organizer.

Mr. Herndon has resided in Hickory since he came into North Carolina.—Kinston Daily Press.

Necessity is stronger than human nature.

To the Voters of Catawba County.

There are three candidates upon whom the opponents of Democracy are making a special fight and three candidates for whom the Democracy of Catawba county should make a special fight.

There is J. D. Elliott, the man who has fought his way up by the power of his own right arm and who, while he climbed, always had a helping hand for the men in trouble.

Time and again he has been chosen the Chief Magistrate of his home town, and every important improvement, such as water works, sewerage, and fire apparatus, the town owes to J. D. Elliott and the strong detraction of friends whom he has rallied around him. A man with a big brain and a big heart, he will reflect honor on his county, his district and his State.

We urge the voters of Catawba county to support M. H. Yont. In one short term at Raleigh he proved himself one of the most influential members of the legislature. His work was a subject of comment in many important quarters of the State, and, if elected, which he will certainly be, he will stand among the leaders of the party and may be speaker of the House.

Another candidate behind whom the voters should rally is D. M. Boyd, candidate for sheriff. He has done his duty according to his oath. In other counties the cry has gone up that Democrat officers are not enforcing the Watts law. But D. M. Boyd, when he swore to do his duty, meant what he said and acted accordingly. No one who honors an officer for faithfulness in office can fail to say that Boyd deserves the highest praise. "Blessed are you when men shall persecute you for righteousness sake."

Let the voters see that these men, who have deserved so well of them, receive their cordial and enthusiastic support.
