Delays are dangerous. There is no more common complaint than Kidney complaint. Nature always gives due warning and failure to heed same may result in Diabetes, Lumbago, Bright's Disease, or some other serious affection of the Kidneys. ### Try a Want Ad.

When your luck is running crosswise

And the world is looking blue And misfortune has its finger Pointing right direct to you, When the cards are stacked against you,

Each deal running to the bad.
For what ails you then my children,

Try a little want ad in the Booster.

If the cow is cross and cranky And will not give down her milk,

If the hired girl is saucy When she should be "fine as silk,"

If the hens remark of laying That it is a foolish fad And no longer their main business,

Try a little want ad in the Booster.

If you can not find a fortune,

If you can not find a cook,

If you can not find a lover

Like the hero in a book,

If you can not find a partner,

Do not worry and be sad.

Ere you give up quite discouraged

Try a little want ad in the Booster.

It's a great three-pley elixir,

One of which the poet sings, Good for all the ills financial

And for several other things; Good for catching dimes and dollars,

Suckers, husbands, stocks and shad,

When you feel the lack of something,

Try a little want ad in the Booster.

Motion for New Trial—Creat

Crush to Sign Bond.

Nashville, Tenn., March 20.—

When court convened this morning, Judge Hart ordered the defendants brought in and immediately sent for the jury. The twelve men filed into the court room and occupied the same seat they have held for nearly nine weeks.

"Have you agreed upon a verdict gentleman?" asked Judge Hart.

"We have," replied Foreman

Burke "Advance, Mr. Foreman, and read the verdict." The foreman advanced and read the verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree and fixing their punishment of 20 years each in the penitentiary.

Yesterday the jury acquitted

John D. Sharpe who was indicted with the Coopers, announcing that they were hopelessly tied as to the Coopers. The verdict brought in this morning finding the Coopers guilty of murder in the second degree was a great surprise, on account of the announcement the day before that the y were hopelessly tied.

As soon as Judge Hart had thanked the jury for their patience and dismissed them Judge Anderson for the defence made a motion that the case be declared a mistrial, and that the defendants be admitted to bond. Judge Hart admitted the Coopers to bond of $25000 each and stated that he would hear argument for mistrial next week.

There was a great rush of Coopers' friends to sign the bond

After the clerk had announced a number of times that the bonds were good wealthy men kept demanding that their names be put on the bond. When there was no more room at the bottom they kept signing across the face un-

A Bundle of News Items.

Correspondent to the Democrat

Well, Mr. Editor, from the general appearance of the weather and the warm days it looks like spring is near at hand. By the way, the peach blossoms are adorning the trees with a beautiful garb of red and white. And the spring flowers are shooting out from their lurking and hiding places during the cold winter, and are now full of blossoms.

All of which shows that the ground hog weather has passed over.

The farmers are taking the advantage of these warm days working on their farms, plowing and sowing oats, etc. Many are very busy now in hauling their potatoes to market.

The general news is rather on the scarce order just now under the new administration. But the probability is looking forward for more flourishing and prosperous times.

The public schools have nearly closed. Prof. Haas closed his at the Yoder school on the 15th with a big exhibition. There was a large crowd present, some from Lincoln County and from the town of Shelby. The scholars all acquitted themselves well.

Miss Beam, the assistant teacher from Shelby, has returned home.

Rev. L. T. Love made a fine address on the occasion of the closing of Prof. Haas' school. It was well listened to, and his subject was "Education and Its Advantages."

Logan Reinhardt and sons have moved their sawmill near Daniel Teahills on the Reinhardt land to cut up the timber for market.

The work on the Simpson Ford bridge is progressing very slowly, as one of the pieces had to be torn down and re-built.

The young folks topped out the school exhibition with a big social party at the home of G. M.

Yoder. They had a fine time of it.

Lee Yoder has a big smile on his face—it is a girl.

Rusticus.

State News.

W. E. Paul, Southern Railway agent at Elkin committed suicide last Thursday because of ill health.

The mixed passenger and freight train between Taylorsville and Statesville was wrecked

Thursday of last week near Hiddenite.

The body of DeWitt Baughin who was shot by an officer in Chattanooga some time ago was buried at Mayoden, Friday.

Plans have been completed for the erection of a new jail for Statesville.

Men Deserting Families.

Thousands of men are deserting their wives and children in New York because they cannot find work. Frank G. Warne, University extension worker, told the assembly ways and means committee that there were 200,- 000 idle men and women in New York City alone today. Seventy per cent, were farm laborers

GHOPPED WIFE'S HEAD FROM BODY.

Culpeper Man's Horrible Crime.

Culpeper, Va. March 19—

After murdering his wife by braining her with an ax, Henry

C. Wheatley a Culpeper farmer, placed her head on a block of wood and almost completely severed it from the body. The crime occurred at Wheatley's home near Elkwood Wednesday night, but was not discovered until yesterday when Wheatley's 12-year old son made the grewsome discovery of his step-mother's body. Beside it lay the blood covered ax together with a note from Wheatley confessing to the murder of his wife as a result of a dispute over their property.

Subsequently Wheatley's apparently lifeless body was found in a well near his home.

When taken out by a crowd of neighbors, he soon revived, and and later was arrested and taken to jail charged with the murder of his wife. Wheatley formerly was deputy treasurer. He is a well educated man and bears a good reputation. Neighbors regard his act as that of an insane man.

May Stewart

By all odds the most important social and dramatic event of the season will be the engagement of the distinguished young artist, May Stewart and her excellent company at the Academy of Music tonight, March 25, in the laughable Comedy "The Sculptor's Dream." The play was first made famous in this country by Mary Anderson. It was afterwards used as a very successful vehicle by such noted stars as Mirca Gale, Margaret Mother and Julia Marlow. It has been a favorite with Miss Stewart and in the dual roll she is said to shine to unusual advantage.

A very clever company will be seen with Miss Stewart and an advance notice says: The scenery used in this production is very beautiful and the costumes are the most magnificent worn by any legitimate company touring the South.

A RELIGIOUS AUTHOR'S STATE-

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter. I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and

...ADVERSITY...

SAFETY.

Comes to every one. During prosperity you should prepare for adversity, then when sickness or scarcity of work comes along you will have something to fall back upon.

Where is the money you have earned these many years? You spent it and the other fellow put it in the bank. Be independent; place your money with

A Correction.

We noticed a historical sketch in the columns of the Democrat written by that noted historian,

J. H. Shuford, about the Hoyle family. There is one clause in it
