

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, backache, kidney, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for anything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble.

When writing mention this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., 107 Broadway, Binghamton, N. Y. The regular one-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Fortunes In Advertising.

Many of America's successful business men spent fortunes in advertising before they began to see their way to prosperity, but they eventually netted handsome returns on their investments. The gospel of advertising is an old one; it has been preached since the days when men carved the merits of their wares on stone, but there are no records to show that reliable advertising ever put a man in the poor house.

The most powerful corporation in the country today spend enormous sums to proclaim their particular sphere of usefulness to the world. It cannot be said that they need it, since it is apparent that they could exist without it. But the men of millions who control the great industries of the country know the true value of advertising, and even the man who has "money to burn" is not above making an extra dollar or two.

The man who waits for business to come to him has another think coming. If he has anything to sell he has to prove to the public that he can give it better value than the other fellow. Frank Van Camp, of pork and beans fame, spends $2,000,000 a year to tell hungry Americans what things he has prepared for those who love a good meal. "I am spending $2,000,000 a year," he says "in order to create and stimulate a demand for something people haven't bought very largely before. I spent $100,000 in a week in New York city, and before the week was over I had to cut out advertising and give day and night orders to my factories."

And the Van Camps didn't have much to speak of when they started out to "put the can" to pork and beans. See?

Cholera Infantum Cured.

"Something like two years ago my baby, which was then about a year old, was taken seriously ill with cholera infantum, vomiting and purging profusely, writes J. F. Dempsey of Dempsey, Ala. I did what I could to relieve her but did her no good, and being very much alarmed about her went for a physician but failed to find one, so came back by Elder Bros. & Carter's store and Mr. Elder recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. I procured a bottle of it, went home as quickly as possible and gave the baby a dose of the remedy. It relieved her in fifteen minutes and soon cured her entirely." For sale by W. S. Martin & Co.

Essay on Pants.

Pants are made for men and not men for pants. Women were made for men and not for pants. When a man pants for a woman and a woman pants for a man, they are a pair of pants. Such pants don't last. Pants are like molasses; they are thinner in hot weather and thicker in cold. The man in the moon changes his pants during the eclipse. Don't you go to a pantry for pants, you might be mistaken. Such mistakes are breechers promise. There has been much discussion as to whether pants are singular or plural. Seems to us when men wear pants they are plural and when they don't wear any it is singular. When men go on a tear in their pants it is all right; but when the pants go on a tear it is all wrong.—Winston Sentinel.

'Twas A Glorious Victory.

"I could not work nor get about," he writes, "and the doctors did me no good, but, after using Dr. King's New Discovery three weeks, I feel like a new man, and can do good work again." For weak, sore or diseased lungs, coughs and colds, hemorrhages, hay fever, la-grippe, asthma or any Bronchial affection it stands unrivaled. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. A Fight On.

The order of the corporation commission for the Southern and the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio railroad companies to maintain passenger and freight transfer at Marion Junction and provide adequate union station with baggage and passenger facilities has been issued, and the Southern gives notice of exception. So it looks like there will be a suit in the courts before the fight is over in spite of the fact that among the hundreds of citizens petitioning for the transfer are citizens of Winston-Salem, Asheville, Greensboro and Hickory and other important points on the Southern. The Carolina Clinchfield and Ohio agrees to comply with the commission order.

That Lame Back Means Kidney Disease

And to Relieve the Lame and Aching Back, You Must First Relieve the Kidneys

There is no question about that at all—for the lame and aching back is caused by a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder. It is only common sense, any way—that you must cure a condition by removing the cause of the condition. And lame and aching back are not by any means the only symptoms of derangement of the kidneys and bladder. There are a multitude of well-known and unmistakable indications of a more or less dangerous condition. Some of these are, for instance: Extreme and unnatural lassitude and weariness, nervous irritability, heart irregularity, "nerves on edge," sleeplessness and inability to secure rest, scalding sensation and sediment in the urine, inflammation of the bladder and passages, etc.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills are an exceptionally meritorious remedy for any and all affections or diseased conditions of these organs. These Pills operate directly and promptly—and their beneficial results are at once felt.

They regulate, purify, and effectually heal and restore the kidneys, bladder and liver, to perfect and healthy condition—even in some of the most advanced cases.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill., want every man and woman who have the least suspicion that they are afflicted with kidney and bladder diseases to at once write them, and a trial box of these Pills will be sent free by return mail postpaid.
