

SUPPLEMENT TO
The Hickory Democrat

Thursday, October 7, 1909.

Local and Personal

Judge Council is spending a few days at home this week.

G. E. Bisanar left Wednesday night for New York to buy his holiday goods.

J. W. Mouser left Tuesday to go to Gilbert, S. C., to attend a meeting of Synod.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Seagle a fine boy. Congratulations are extended.

J. W. Ballew has returned home from Lenoir after spending a few days with friends.

Miss Minda McManaway, of Charlotte, is here visiting her cousin, Miss Mattie Dozier.

Mrs. Emma Taylor has returned from Blowing Rock and will spend the winter in the city.

R. E. Ingold will leave Saturday for Atlanta, Ga., where he will this year complete his course in dentistry.

Mesdames Gwaltney, Harte and Bradshaw attended a woman's missionary meeting at Lincolnton this week.

Misses Fanny and Kathryn Cochrane of Newton were shopping in the city Wednesday with Miss Olive Ingold.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin and Dr. and Mrs. Walter White went to New York last week to the Hudson-Fulton celebration.

Football game, Lenoir College vs D. and D. Morganton, Monday, Oct. 11. Game will be called at 3:30 on the ground at Lenoir College.

Miss Hazel Matthews, daughter of Rev. W. T. Matthews, of Durant, Okla., stopped over here for a day Wednesday on her way to St. Mary's College, Raleigh.

The people should patronize the merchants that invite your trade. Why do you expect people to come to Hickory and spend their money when you do not invite them?

The Civic League has a big work to do in our city. Everybody in Hickory should be a member and lend them their full support. We hope how soon they may get to action.

T. A. Salvo has returned from a two months trip to Virginia and reports business good. Mrs. Salvo has moved into the Mrs. John Robinson residence on 13th street and is keeping boarders.

The Times-Mercury is now having half of their paper printed in Statesville which is quite an improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Guernsey, Mr. and Mrs. Branson Ingold and little son, left Tuesday for their home in Elsie, Neb. They were accompanied by little Miss Essie Hoke. We are always glad to have these good people come among us.

The entire railroad Commission was here Tuesday and promised that the railroad pass way in rear of postoffice would be finished right away. They are also talking about a new passenger depot, or at least they agree that we need a new one.

Mr. A. J. Fraley, of High Point, now has charge of the new Carolina Hotel. This hotel has been fitted up with everything new and all the modern conveniences. Mr. Fraley is an experienced hotel man and knows how to entertain his guests.

L. E. Boytin of the U. S. Department of Agriculture will speak in the Academy of Music, on Thursday night, Oct. 14. All the farmers ought to hear him. There will also be other prominent speakers on the same subject. Don't fail to hear them.

The Henkel Live Stock Company have bought the stable property now occupied by the Aiken Livery Stable. They have also bought the brick house used as sample rooms of Mr. Laughran, and have contracted with Mr. Starens of Charlotte to roll it down to, or near the stables.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

Regular services next Sunday morning and night.

The Men's class will meet as usual in the church parlor at the Sunday school hour. The subject is "Aaron's sin and consecration." All the men who have special topics will please be on hand to report.

The subject of the Boys' Brigade at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon will be "how to help our Pastor." All the boys are urged to be present.

The Bulletin will be of special interest next Sunday. Be sure to get one.

The Ladies Missionary Society is holding a week of prayer this week in the church.

The Teachers Training class renews its word next week. Also a teachers meeting will be inaugurated at the same time.

Hickory's Street Fair.

At a meeting held at the Hickory Club rooms last night arrangements were perfected for the holding of the Catawba County Street Fair here on the 15 of October. The Superintendents of the various departments were placed in charge of the collection of all donations and the distribution of the prizes. It was decided to hold a meeting Saturday afternoon at the Academy of Music where it is desired that all the superintendents, ladies included, be present. Those who have subscribed to the premium fund are requested to have their donations ready when the committee calls for them.

Great interest is being manifested in the fair and it is hoped that the undertaking will be eminently successfully. On Thursday night before the fair Mr. L. E. Boyden of the United States Department of Agriculture will deliver a good roads lecture in the Academy of Music at 8 p. m. It is also hoped that some leading Agriculturist will be present to deliver an address on farming on the same night. It is especially desirable that all our people be present and hear these distinguished speakers on a subject that so vitally concerns each one of us.

Church Notes.

Service at the Episcopal church will be omitted next Sunday and the rector will officiate at St. Luke's, Lincolnton.

Rev. J. S. Moody has just been invited to preach to the students at Chapel Hill, and may accept later in the month.

Two offers of work in the Diocese of Florida have come to the Rev. Moody this past week one of which he holds under consideration.
