GET THE CONFERENCE.

Lexington, we are sure, would be glad to entertain the Western North Carolina Methodist conference in 1910, and that it is now perfectly able to do so, and will be still more able a year hence, we are equally sure. The conference will meet in Hickory next month. Lexington ought to endeavor to get itself elected as the next meeting place. The board of trade should extend a vigorous invitation. Lexington has the best Methodist pastor, the best Methodist people, in the conference, and it is the best town on the map. It just naturally loves to entertain and will give the conference the best time it ever had. The town is full of good homes whose doors will swing wide open, and the Lexington cook is justly celebrated throughout the state. When the question is asked, "where shall we meet?" Lexington should see to it that the conference at Hickory answers, "Lexington." —Lexington Dispatch.

We hope our Lexington brother can attend conference at Hickory, after which I am sure he will be just a little more careful how he uses the word best, unless best after Hickory.

Rollins.

Gathering and husking corn, preparing land for and sowing wheat are the things occupying our farmers attention now.

Rev. Chandler is the new pastor of Rainhill church succeeding Rev. Jones who is conducting evangelistic work in Tennessee.

A protracted meeting began at Rainhill church Sunday night and will continue for a week or more under the direction of Rev. Chandler.

James Epley, head cutter for C. A. Poteat, had a narrow escape from serious injury last week. He had just sawed a tree down and in falling it struck another tree breaking off a branch which fell, striking Epley on the side of his head and rendering him unconscious. He quietly recovered however and was soon back to work.

C. A. Poteat is cutting the timber on the land of the late Peter Epley.

Fine weather but mighty poor roads.

Society News.

The Misses Wheeler entertained at their home Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 13th, six tables of bridge. Mrs. Alex Hall won the prize, a gold stick pin of unique design. Refreshments were served at the close of this delightful hour.

Thursday, Oct. 14th, the Travelers Club held the second meeting of the year with Mrs. W. R. Gwaltney as hostess at the home of Mrs. K. C. Menzies. Eighteen members responded to roll-call with quotations on "Women from Shakespeare." Mrs. Chadwick gave a talk upon Shakespeare's some life interspersed with selections from Miss Bates recent book, "From Gretna-Green to Land's End." Schubert's setting of "Hark, hark the lark" from Cymbeline, was sung by seven or eight voices. Miss Schenck presented a very interesting paper on Shakespeare's mother, wife and the "dark lady" of the sonnets.

Mrs. Murphy sang "Sigh on more, Ladies," from "Much ado about nothing." After this "real treat" of a program, current events and refreshments brought this pleasant hour to a close. The honored guest of the occasion, Master Balfour Gwaltney Menzies who has not quite rounded out his one year received an ovation.

The Embroidery Club met with Mrs. E. E. Hendley last Thursday. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of a most delightful afternoon.

The Civic League has an interesting meeting on the 12th, the principal business being the adoption of the Constitution, and perfecting arrangements for Tag Day. This was observed on Friday, in connection with the Fair, and brought into the treasury the sum of $84.00.

Mrs. J. B. Gibbs was hostess to the Round Dozen Book Club on Wednesday afternoon. Eleven members present and each one gave a quotation from her book at roll-call. Mrs. Gibbs gave a brief sketch of her book, The Romance of a Plain Man, by Glasgow, and then entertained the club with a humorous story. After current news, refreshments in two courses were served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. L. R. Whitener.

"Joshua Simpkins."

A rural comedy which has been presented continuously for several seasons on the road, will play an engagement in this city next Tuesday, Oct. 26th.

"Joshua Simpkins" is a comedy drama, well acted by a company said to possess more than ordinary merit, in addition to which several pleasing specialties are introduced. A complete orchestra composed of professional musicians discourse incidental music, which assists to make the play the success it is. This feature is claimed by the management to be gilt edged, and, it is said, far exceeds the usual orchestra by theatrical companies. Their fine band will give a burlesque parade about noon on the day of the engagement.

to A. A. Chisholm, of Treadwell, N. Y., now. His reason is well worth reading: "For a long time I suffered from indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness, and general debility," he writes, "I couldn't sleep, had no appetite, nor ambition, grew weaker every day in spite of all medical treatment. Then used Electric Bitters. Twelve bottles restored all my old-time health and vigor. Now I can attend to business every day. It's a wonderful medicine." Infallible for Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Blood and Nerves. 50c. at C. M. Shuford, W. S. Martin and W. L. Boatright.

The W. S. Martin Drug Co. Give Facts Regarding Dyspepsia

Although indigestion and dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and how to obtain relief. There is no reason why people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear of eating every good-looking, good smelling and good-tasting food, because it does not agree with them.

Dieting cannot cure dyspepsia. If we refuse every article of food that disagrees with us, before long we have nothing left, and find ourselves chronic dyspeptics.

We are so confident that we can furnish relief for indigestion and dyspepsia that we promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who uses it according to directions who is not perfectly satisfied with the results. We exact no promises and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely nothing could be fairer. We are located right here where you live, and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want every one who is troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and get a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home, and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. They are very pleasant to take; they soothe the irritable stomach, strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, promote a healthy and natural bowel action, almost immediately relieve nausea and stomach irritation, produce healthy digestion and assimilation, and promote nutrition.

A 25-cent package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days' treatment. In ordinary cases this is sufficient to produce complete relief. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment, of course, is necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases we have two larger sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Hickory only at our store.—The Rexall Store. W. S. Martin & Co.
