age Daily Attendance of 500 -Able Teaching Corps of Thirteen

The people of Hickory have cause to feel proud of the marvelous growth the graded school thirteen; and the interest shown wisdom of those who planned feels himself too rich, or too poor, to send his children to the graded school. This is as it should be, for the school is where all meet on an equal footing.

There are some facts in the history of the school that ought things, that we shall have forgotten, in a few years, the names of those who were instrumental in establishing the school.

A special tax for the support of the school was voted, and work on the building was begun in the summer of 1903. Several public-spirited citizens assumed the financial obligation necessary to secure the erection of the build ing, and work was begun. Under the management of the school Board consisting of J. L. Mur-phy, McCoy Moretz, J. F. Aber-nethy, H. E. McComb, C. H. Geitner and J. A. Martin the building was completed and the school Miss Tullia Michael, who has D. K.
