Democrat and Press, Consolidated 1905

The Democrats Redeem Catawba County

Catawba county has been entirely reclaimed by the Democrats and the State carried by 50,000 majority.

The Jones majorities were those of Hewitt for sheriff, 77, and Gamble for registrar, 71. The Republicans concentrated their vote on Leonard and Esplanhour. Mr. Lee R. Whitener for magistrate in Hickory township is the only Republican elected defeating Mr. R. M. Pitts by 5 votes.

Rabb for the legislature and McCorkle for clerk have about 300 majority each. Webb for Congress has 202 majority and the other Democratic county officers about the same.

County Chairman J. D. Elliott deserves the greatest praise for his splendidly effective work. Locally he was ably supported by Frank A. Clizard and Pleasant Jones. The latter, though a defeated candidate for sheriff did remarkably fine work in South Hickory, where the Democrats gain the day in this county.

Mr. A. A. Shuford spent the entire day at the South Hickory polling place, lending his great influence for good government and the defeat of Butlerism.

The following table shows the precinct votes:

The following magistrates are elected in Hickory township: D. P. Taylor, L. C. Huffman, Q. E. Herman, J. F. Yoder and J. T. Leonard, Democrats, and J. R. Whitener, Republican. Taylor got 291 votes in North Hickory and 309 in South Hickory; Whitener got 245 votes in North Hickory and 353 in South Hickory.

J. Porter Burns is elected constable. He got 233 votes in North and 311 votes in South Hickory. George Barger got 244 votes in North and 320 votes in South Hickory and J. Morgan Hawn 8 votes in North and 23 in South Hickory.

Webb's majority in the district is 5,823; Doughton's in the eighth district 906; Stedman's in the fifth 3,723 and Gidger's in the tenth 1,104.

The Democrats will have 30 majority in the next House of Congress, and elect Democratic governors in New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Ohio.

Death of Mrs. Seagle

Mrs. N. M. Seagle died Wednesday night after a painful illness. The funeral was held at the home this morning, conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. B. Garth. The pall bearers were Messrs. K. C. Menzies, George Hall, H. E. McComb, Dr. Ramsay, George Killian and H. M. Doh.

Mrs. Seagle was a devoted Christian woman.

Mr. Garth spoke as follows in his remarks:

Mrs. H. L. Seagle was born in Catawba county on November 23, 1843. She lost her parents in early life and was adopted into the family of Captain Reinhardt, then a wealthy planter and slave owner of this section, and was reared as tenderly as though she were an own child. She was educated in Lenoir, Greensboro and in Concord and brought up under a strict christian discipline. As a child she learned the shorter catechism, and her mind was stocked with scripture passages and church hymns, which she often repeated. Being of a very retentive memory, she seldom needed a hymn book while she sang in the church to the worship of God. Among others, John 14 and Psalm 23 were her favorite portions of the Bible, and to the end of her days her joy in God's word never abated.

Mrs. Seagle joined the church when she was 18 years old, having accented Christ as her Saviour in childhood. She had a sweet christian faith, a womanly trust in God, which was as strong in its hold on the divine promises, as her disposition was tender and true. Amid the trials that marked her earthly career, when sickness and death invaded her home her inward vision looked at once and steadfastly toward God. She took her husband and her children to God in prayer and trusted Him and His covenant, for their salvation, their guidance, their preservation from every earthly and spiritual danger.

She was a loyal, faithful wife, and a devoted self-sacrificing mother, filling her station perfectly, with a quiet consecration so pleasant to behold. She was married to N. M. Seagle in 1865. Seven children came to bless their home. Four of them God took to himself in childhood, and to them she has been reunited, leaving her husband and two grandchildren to mourn her departure, and await the glad day of the Lord.

How sweet to close a book of life with its pages all written in faith and love and hope inspired by christian truth. She died on Nov. 8 at midnight, and her body waits the resurrection while her soul is at rest, enjoying the presence of Christ to be reunited with the body with his saints in the glad millennium according to the promise of our Lord.

NEW YORK STATE GOES DEMOCRATIC

John A. Dix Wins By a Good Plurality.

STIMSON SNOWED UNDER

Candidate For Whom Roosevelt Stumped State Suffers Defeat at Hands of Democratic Opponent—First Democratic Governor in 18 Years.

John A. Dix, a business man and the first democratic nominee in sixteen years, will be the next governor of New York. He was chosen by the people Tuesday over Henry L. Stimson, republican, for whom Theodore Roosevelt stumped the state, by a plurality, based on nearly complete returns, from 55,000 to 65,000. New York city gave him a plurality of more than 100,000, while Stimson came down to the Bronx with about 40,000, leaving a substantial lead for the democratic nominee.

Thomas F. Conway, the democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, appears to have swept into office only slightly behind Dix.

G. O. P. Loss Up-State.

The normal republican majority up-state was greatly reduced. The inclement weather tended to cut down the rural vote, and Stimson's estimated plurality to the borders of New York city—about 40,000—is less by approximately 30,000 than the plurality of Hughes in 1908.

Both the assembly and senate returns ran strongly democratic, and there were some notable upsets, even the congressional districts. Representative Herbert Parsons, a life-long friend and political associate of Theodore Roosevelt, and formerly chairman of the republican county committee, was ousted by Jefferson M. Levy, representative of W. W. Cooke, of Nassau county. Theodore Roosevelt's home seat, was tipped off by Martin W. Littleton. William S. Bennett was defeated for congress by Henry George, a son of the political economist.

Sereno E. Payne, father of the tariff bill, was re-elected, but his home town, Auburn, went for Dix; and Vice President Sherman's candidate for congress was defeated by a democrat. Representative Hamilton Fish, republican, gave ground to Richard E. Condon, a democrat.

FLORIDA ELECTIONS.

Defeat is Given State-Wide Prohibition Proposal.

Reports indicate that the constitutional amendment for state-wide prohibition has been defeated by an estimated majority of between 2,000 and 3,000. Duval county, Jacksonville, returned a wet majority of approximately 3,000, while the Tampa vote is close, and is claimed by both factions. The local options polled their heaviest votes in St. Johns county, St. Augustine, and Escambia county, Pensacola, while the state vote in general was slightly in favor of the prohibitionists.

The majority of the "wets" it is claimed, is sufficient to carry the state even if later returns are against the local option. Nearly half the vote of the state is counted.

The full democratic ticket was elected, with but slight opposition.

DEMOCRATS SWEEP CHICAGO.

Returns in Chicago and Cook county, although less than one-half the total, indicate that the democrats have swept the city and county by from 25,000 to 40,000 votes. Returns from 700 precincts show that Vogler, republican candidate for sheriff, who is leading his party ticket, will be defeated by Eimer, democrat, by a plurality of about 15,000. Scattering returns from the gains of Illinois indicate democratic state in various counties.

Woodrow Wilson Wins.

A Trenton, N. J., dispatch says: The latest returns from the state received at the office of the secretary of state would seem to indicate that Woodrow Wilson's plurality for governor will be between 10,000 and 20,000. The latest returns indicate that the democrats will have the legislature on joint ballot, and will thus be enabled to elect a democrat to the United States senate to succeed John Kean.

DEMOCRATS SWEEP TENNESSEE.

Summed up, the result of the election appears to be B. W. Hooper, republican and fusionist, governor by 18,000 to 18,000 majority over Senator Robert L. Taylor, democrat; B. A. Lile, democrat and fusionist, by a like majority, and a possible small fusion majority in the legislature. Both sides claim the senate, but where the MAJORITY IS ABOUT 15,000.

Vote Throughout the State Was Remarkably Heavy, Except in a Few Counties—Both Sides Claim State Senate.

Most of the middle and west Tennessee democratic counties, nearly all of which went for the independent judiciary ticket in August last, returned to the regular column, but by such small majorities that they were overwhelmed by the heavy republican vote in east Tennessee counties located the larger cities, all went heavily democratic.

In the congressional races, R. V. Austin, republican, appears to have defeated N. W. Hale, independent republican. Sells, republican, defeated Cy H. Lyle, in the first. Z. D. Massey, republican, was elected to fill out the unexpired term of W. B. Brewster. In the other eight districts the democrats have won, although T. W. Sims, in the eighth, had a hard fight with Murray, republican.

Result in Iowa.

Governor W. R. Stubbs, republican, has undoubtedly been elected to succeed himself, but by a decreased majority. Six of eight republican congressmen will be returned, it appears. The districts in doubt are the third and sixth, in which F. P. Campbell and I. D. Young, republicans, are opposed by Henderson Martin and Frank Rockefeller.

Bryles Wins in Atlanta.

Judge Nash Bryles, who has for some years filled the position of recorder in Atlanta, was again elected on Tuesday by a majority of 268 over Maivern Hill, his opponent.

COUNTRY SWEEP BY DEMOCRATIC WAVE

Political Convulsion Similar to That of 1892.

GREAT CHANGE IS EFFECTED

Many Big States Take a Position in the Democratic Column—Roosevelt and His Party Are Given Quite a Heavy Jolt—Complexion of Next Congress.

Elections held throughout the country Tuesday resulted in a political convulsion of far-reaching extent, similar at many points to the famous tidal wave of 1892 and apparently more widespread in its effect.

The indications are that the national house of representatives has been carried by the democrats, reversing the present republican majority of 42.

The United States senate will probably have a reduced republican majority as a result of legislative elections held in many states.

Democrats Get Many Governors.

In New York state John A. Dix, democratic candidate for governor, is elected over Henry L. Stimson, republican, by a plurality of about 55,000, reversing the republican plurality of 70,000 in 1908 for Governor Hughes.

In New Jersey Woodrow Wilson, democratic candidate for governor, is elected over Vivian M. Lewis, republican, by a plurality of about 45,000, reversing the republican plurality of 10,000 in 1908 for Governor Hughes.

ROBT. L. TAYLOR BEATEN BY HOOPER

Tennessee Goes Republican and Fusionist.

MAJORITY IS ABOUT 15,000

Summed up, the result of the election appears to be B. W. Hooper, republican and fusionist, governor by 18,000 to 18,000 majority over Senator Robert L. Taylor, democrat; B. A. Lile, democrat and fusionist, by a like majority, and a possible small fusion majority in the legislature. Both sides claim the senate, but where the Fusionists have lost in some districts they have gained in others. The same applies to the democrats; so from present indications there is little change in the complexion of the legislature.

Most of the middle and west Tennessee democratic counties, nearly all of which went for the independent judiciary ticket in August last, returned to the regular column, but by such small majorities that they were overwhelmed by the heavy republican vote in east Tennessee counties located the larger cities, all went heavily democratic.

In the congressional races, R. V. Austin, republican, appears to have defeated N. W. Hale, independent republican. Sells, republican, defeated Cy H. Lyle, in the first. Z. D. Baby Burned to Death

Correspondence of the Democrat.

Gunpowder, Nov. 9.—The 11-year old child of Avery Yount was burned to death Monday afternoon in his nice new house. The parents were in the field, leaving three small children in the house. One of them lit a torch and went to the closet to get something for the baby to play with, igniting some inflammable material.

The two older children ran to the fields to give the alarm but when the father reached the house it was too late. Forty bushels of wheat were also consumed with all the contents. Friends are helping Mr. Yount to rebuild.

The house of John Turner was burned last week with nearly all its contents. Friends are rallying to his help.

The sympathy of the community goes out to these distressed families.

A Reformation Sermon

A notable event at the Lenoir College campus church Sunday afternoon was the Reformation sermon by Rev. Dr. J. Fry, of the Lutheran Seminary in Philadelphia, a leader of American Lutheranism.

The beautiful new church was filled. Dr. Fry took his text from Phil. 1:6: "I am set for the defence of the Gospel." He applied these words of Paul in striking analogy to both Luther and the great church which Luther founded and which now numbers 76,000,000 members.

One striking paragraph of Dr. Fry's was this: "Luther was the greatest liberator since Jesus Christ. He delivered the word of God from the imprisonment of a dead language."

Dr. Fry was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. Little while here.

Hickory Gets the Shops

Charlotte Chronicle.

The Chester Lantern has let the cat out of the bag. General Manager Nichols has recommended to President Barber that the new shops of the Carolina & North-Western Railroad be located at Hickory. Mr. Nichols' recommendation will be no doubt approved. In this action, Mr. Nichols was guided solely by business reasons. He found that the advantages of Hickory as a location were geographically and commercially of more advantage than any other location suggested, and the big wood-working shops there will prove of invaluable aid in the rapid construction of the shops. Mr. Nichols told The Chronicle that the Hickory shops will be completed and ready for business next spring. To do that will require energetic work, but all plans to that end have been made. The acquisition of these shops will be a big boost for Hickory and congratulations for that town are in order.

[This was news which Hickory was keeping quiet until President Barber could be heard from, but he will doubtless approve Cant. Nichols' recommendation. —Democrat.]

New Reformed Church Opened

Dr. Murphy preached in the beautiful new German Reformed church for the first time last Sunday from Psa. 127:1. There was a splendid congregation present. In the course of his remarks he said he wanted the church to be always open for prayer and wanted to have a noonday men's prayer-meeting in it.

D. J. Carpenter was acquitted in the Superior Court at Newton Monday of complicity in the burning of the New-Town Hosiery Mill. The jury was out 20 minutes. Judge Pell has been appealed to to lighten Jno. Rader's sentence from 2 or 3 years. Rader had pleaded guilty of burning the barn under an agreement with Carpenter.
