Dr. White's Success in Atlanta.

The many friends of Dr. W. A. White, who was for so long a resident of this city will be pleased to see that he has formed a strong partnership in his adopted home in Atlanta and is doing well. The Democrat has received the following card:

Dr. Richard Marvin Eubanks and Dr. Walter Albert White beg to announce the removal of their Dental Offices to six hundred and ten and six hundred and eleven Candler Building July 26th, 1911. Office hours 8 a. m. till 5 p. m. Telephone, Ivy 3828.

Fay, the infant child of Mr. D. F. Barger died July 30 and was buried at Barger church.

The Catawba Very Low.

Newton Enterprise.

We are told that the water in the Catawba river is so low that it can be at some places waded and at many places it can be crossed by stepping on the projecting rocks. Many wells are going dry and small streams are on the verge of drying up. Mr. Bud Yount tells us that he was out about Lookout Shoals last week buying cattle. He stopped at a farm house to water his horse at a well, but was told that water was so low it could not be spared.

Mr. D. P. Hallman, of Caldwell fell from his barn loft and injured his liver. He was taken to Statesville today in a serious condition.

Local News.

Mrs. H. L. Norfleet, two children and maid, of Havana, Cuba, who spent the summer here two years ago, are visiting at Rev. J. D. Harte's.

Messrs. S. E. Young, of Charlotte, and Dr. J. A. Young of Newton, have bought out the Pope Grocery Co. there and Capt. J. W. Pope will resume his old place with the C. and N. W. R. R.

Miss Marjorie Whitener, who has been visiting in Washington, and Culpeper, Va., for 6 weeks, has returned home, and had a fine time. With her returned Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Sampson of Washington, who are guests at her home.

Rev. Dr. L. A. Fox of Salem, Va., arrived yesterday to visit his sister, Mrs. J. W. Killian and Mrs. S. L. Yount. He had been attending the Lutheran normal at Hickory. His daughter Mrs. C. K. Bell of Kings Mountain, and Miss Elizabeth Turbyfield of the county, are also guests at Mrs. Killian.—Newton News.

Mr. J. O. Lyons gives up his position as butter maker at the Creamery this week to accept management of the 200-acre Blair Dairy farm at High Point, owned by Messrs. John and Dave Blair. They expect to increase their herds from 26 to 100. Mr. Lyons is succeeded here as butter-maker by Mr. J. C. Hayes, of Kansas, whom the Democrat welcomes to Hickory.
