The Yoder Memorial Science Building.

Our people are aware that there is a project on foot to erect a memorial to Dr. Robert A. Yoder in the form of a Science Building on the campus at Lenoir College at Hickory, to cost when equipped and completed $15,000.

Not only should the people of the Lutheran Church be interested in the erection of this memorial, but all the people of this county in particular, and citizens of this Piedmont Carolina in general, for the service of Dr. Yoder has benefited practically every enterprise now prospering in this section. He trained and educated a whole generation of leaders in the forward movements of this section, not only in the ministry, but leaders in agriculture, law, business enterprises, school teaching, etc.

He not only established the High School in the St. James community and the Colleges at Conover and at Hickory in the service of which he was engaged for more than nineteen years; he was also county superintendent of public instruction for several terms, and gave Catawba county the only map which is officially used.

In this school work wisely conceived and planned by Dr. Yoder, more than 3,000 students have shared and have received help for a useful life. These students have gone forth in the world and made money, for many of them the luxuries of life, while Dr. Yoder was never able to possess them. For all this service he received a meagre salary, never receiving more than a bare living, as his administrators can testify.

Surely then our people will not be ungrateful of the services of this man who, though born in another county, gave all his life work in the school room in this county. The citizens of Catawba should rally to this cause and contribute not less than $5,000 for this purpose.

Our people are now having the privilege of doing something to express their appreciation of the man, for canvassers are in each community now for this very purpose. In Hickory, Rev. C. L. Miller and Judge Lester D. Russell; in Newton, Rev. B. L. Stroup and Mr. C. E. Smyre, and in Maiden, Rev. J. L. Cromer. There are some fifteen other persons canvassing the Lutheran territory in North and South Carolina and Virginia.

The canvass is to be finished not later than the 10th of September and the friends should rally quickly to the support of the work.

Surely so generous a benefactor of this section should receive a worthy treatment to mark his worth; surely the citizens of Catawba county should give not less than $5,000 toward the erection of this memorial.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Hickory Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend a work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well, and health improves. Read a remedy for kidneys only that helps and strengthens the kidneys and endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. W. M. Donahue, 1520 Tenth Ave., Hickory, N. C., says: "I am a strong friend of Doan's Kidney Pills, not only in return for the benefit they brought me, but also in view of their good work in other cases in my family. We always keep a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills in the house and they have never failed to bring relief when used."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Reaching Out.

Pitt County News.
Hickory has for years been one of the manufacturing centers of the State, its products having a wide sale throughout the country. Yet it is reaching out for more enterprises.

Bilious? Feel heavy after dinner? Tongue coated? Complexion shallow? Liver needs waiking up? Doan's Regulators cure bilious attacks. 25 cents at any drug store.

E. A. Seeman, of Durham, and E. S. McIntosh, of Chapel Hill, left Oxford Ford by canoe on the Catawba for Charleston. They intended to start at Old Fort but low water in the Catawba changed their plans.

Farmers, mechanics, railroaders, lab orers rely on Dr. Thomas' Electric oil. Takes the sting out of cuts, burns or bruises at once. Pain cannot stay where it is used.

Watch Hickory Grow.

Despite of the growth and the cry of hard times, Hickory was never on such a financial boom as now. In the last year, many handsome residences have been built. Several are now being built and others are being planned.

Real estate has not only advanced in price, but is a ready sale for cash. In the last thirty days, real estate to the value of $75,000 has changed hands, most of it being bought by new comers. And it was cash, too. In this respect, we are just in the beginning.

Not only this, but capital—large capital—is headed this way. It is believed that in the near future, at least a half a dozen new and large manufacturing plants will be installed here, amounting to over a half a million dollars. The city is holding out great inducements, and is ready and willing to meet any worthy enterprise half way. A committee is off now visiting a proposed plant.

Our people are contented here. Everyone is for Hickory. It is safely estimated that Hickory will double her population in the next ten years. We will soon have a new post office building and a new depot as good as any town. We have the climate, water, schools, colleges and churches that are attracting hundreds of home-seekers far and near.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling stringy or milky appearance after indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bac effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Back Home on a Visit.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Wyant, son of Capt. Daniel Wyant, of Milan, Tenn., and his step daughter, Miss Willie Maud Taylor, have been visiting Messrs. P. A. Wyant and J. F. Leonard. He left the county 44 years ago this fall, and has been a very successful mechanic. He has not visited here for 11 years and is always delighted to see his old friends. He married Miss Nannie Duke, a first cousin of J. B. B. N. and Brody Duke, of Durham, and his daughter has been going to Elizabeth College in Charlotte. Mrs. Wyant visited relatives in Durham, and they all returned to Tennessee last Thursday.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson XI.—Third Quarter, For Sept. 10, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Dan. i, 8-20—Memory Verses, 8, 9—Golden Text, Rom xiv, 21—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The study of prophecy should be to every child of God most fascinatingly attractive, for "to Him give all the prophets witness," and "the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy" (Act. x, 43; Rev. xix, 10). The Lord held the prophets all that He intend to do, and prophecy is therefore a light in a dark place to show us the way we are going (Amos iii, 7; II Pet. i, 19-21). Our blessed Lord is just the same as when on the way to Emmaus, and the same evening in the midst of the disciples He opened to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself (Luke xxiv, 25-27 44-46), and He still loves to do so.

In one of His discourses He mentioned the prophet Daniel, and the prophet Ezekiel also mentions him by name (Matt. xxiv, 15; Ezek. xiv, 14) Ezekiel and Daniel were both among the captives in Babylon for their good and the good of others (Jer. xxiv, 4-7). They were the Lord's messengers, and in them was seen the wisdom and power of the true and living God contrasted with the wisdom of this world. I find it helpful to my own soul to watch God working and to remember that He is as ready now to work for His glory in those who are wholly His as were Daniel and his friends.

Notice in verses 2, 9, 17, of our lesson chapter that it was the Lord who gave the king of Judah into the hands of the king of Babylon. He also brought Daniel into favor with the prince of the eunuchs and gave to him, and his friends knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom. "Whatsoever the Lord pleased that did He." "He doeth according to His will in the army of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth." "He worketh all things after the counsel of His own will" (Is. xxxv, 6; Eph. i, 11).

These young men were chosen to stand before the king of Babylon (verse 5), but they never forgot that they always stood before a much greater King, even the Lord, the King of Israel (Zeph. iii, 15). Their beautiful names signifying God is my judge Jehovah is gracious, who is as God of Jehovah my keeper, might be covered by idolatrous names, but what men might call them did not affect their standing before God.

Even in the matter of eating and drinking we are to glorify God and not be conformed to the age in which we live (I Cor. x, 31; Rom. xii, 1, 2), so Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with food offered to idols (verse 8). In this matter God wrought for them, not only giving them favor with those set over them, but also causing them to thrive better on their plain food than did the others who ate the portion of the king's meat (verses 9, 14, 15).

It is not so much the food we eat either as to quantity or quality, as the blessing of God upon it. On one occasion our Lord taught that "not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man," and so Paul wrote, "I know and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus that there is nothing unclean of itself" (Matt. xv, 11; Rom. xiv, 14). Ordinarily we are to eat what is set before us asking no questions, but in Daniel's case it was a matter of sanctification, of standing for the true God and when with us under any circumstances it becomes a question of God or the devil there is only one thing to do. We cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons (I Cor. x, 21).

We are not to imagine that God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom (verse 17) apart from study on their part, whether it was the wisdom of Egypt or the wisdom from above, which is first pure, then peaceable, gentle and easy to be entreated (Jas. iii, 17). Some of us can almost imagine with what relief and joy they would turn from the books of Egypt to the book of the law of the Lord and how there would be fulfilled to them, "Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled." The natural man can grasp the wisdom of this world, but the things of God knoweth no man, but the spirit of God. In his understanding of visions and dreams also he would doubtless profit by the experience of Joseph and the ability given to him and to others.

With what sublime confidence in God he said to the king in connection with his first dream that if time was granted to him he would show the interpretation and how gloriously God honored his faith by revealing to him the secret in a vision of the night (chapter ii, 10-19). See in chapter ii, 28, 29, 47, how he honored God, who revealed to him the secret, and how because of this the king honored God also as the God of gods and a Lord of kings.

So God was glorified in Daniel. "And Daniel continued" (verse 21). There is a most profitable meditation in those words, and we are reminded of Acts xxvi, 22, "Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day." Paul believed Moses and the prophets just as Daniel did, and in Dan. ix, 2, he tells us that he had been studying the word of the Lord by Jeremiah, the prophet.

"Cardui Cured Me"

For nearly ten years, at different times, Mrs. Mary Jinks of Treadway, Tenn., suffered with womanly troubles. She says: "At last, I took down and thought I would die. I could not sleep. I couldn't eat. I had pains all over. The doctors gave me up. I read that Cardui had helped so many, and I began to take it, and it cured me. Cardui saved my life! Now, I can do anything."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

If you are weak, tired, worn-out, or suffer from any of the pains peculiar to weak women, such as headache, backache, dragging-down feelings, pains in arm, side, hip or limbs, and other symptoms of womanly trouble, you should try Cardui, the woman's tonic. Prepared from perfectly harmless, vegetable ingredients, Cardui is the best remedy for you to use, as it can do you nothing but good. It contains no dangerous drugs. It has no bad after-effects. Ask your druggist. He sells and recommends Cardui.
