THE HICKORY DEMOCRAT

Estab. 8 133 1899

HICKORY, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1911.

Democrat and Press, Consolidated 1905

Will Make Motor Trucks Ho

Every Southern State to be Covered by Piedmont Salesmen.

Following an important meeting of the directors of the Piedmont Wagon and Manufacturing Co. on Monday, Mr. Arthur L. Marvin tells the Democrat that it is almost an assured fact that automobile trucks will be manu factured at the big plant, A committee was appointed to take up the motor car proposition and will make a definite decision within the next two or three

The Democrat has several times hinted that such an addi- country children. Please note tion to the wagon plant would that we say "in proportion." be forthcoming in the near future. The International Motor ers howled Mr. Coon down, not Co., which has recently united hearing him through. If they under one management the two could not listen to their own presmost successful motor truck com- ident, even though he was iconopanies in the country. the Mack clastic, they are not fit to be the Bros Co.. at Allentown, Pa., and advisory board in the new educathe Saurer Co. at Plainfield, N. J., is owned by the same capitalis's who have acquired Hickory's big wagon plant, and think it will pay them to add a motor truck department to the factory here, with the success of the plant since the reorganization. In the last six months they have cleared more dividends than they would in a year.

The New York directors who attended the meeting here were Messrs, A.thur L. Marvin, Jos. Van Vleck, Arthur H. Lockett and J. F. Allen. Mr. John Scott, of Charlotte, one of the largest stockholders in the old company, has acquired an interest in the reorganized company.

It was decided to have a sale's department managed by an ex- work. pert and every Southern State will be covered by the men whom

Mr. G. H. Geitner will remain connected with organized labor, with the company as manager of the manufacturing department. the country raised $196,000 for have been at Barber Junction for the company and the city.

of Old Fort are visiting their sonin-law Mr. R. H. Johnson on Route 2.

The Laymen's Convention at known all along that they were Lenoir.

Written for the Democrat.

at the court house of Laymen is expect a special variety. The meeting lasted from Wed-displayed showing the geography of the christian field. The visitors learned where they are and what is being done.

credal stripe.

The talks of Dr. H. K. Boyer. of Colorado, and the field sec- has not been told yet. retar, were stirring, inspiring and instructive. It is a local loss that more did not hear them. it was shown that the open door so long desired is now too far Sunday School 9:45 a. m. ajar: nd that trade is following Cnief Service 11:00 a. m. the zealous missionary in many Evening Service 7.00 p. m.

darkened lands. We are urged to help the pastor, use business methods in church, 4 13. make a canvas 10r Missions, to pray and work in the harmony,

The pof the local clergy was efficient and appreciated. A resolution urging a canvas in all churches was adopted.

of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It 25. will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency towards pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. So d by all dealers.

OMMENT.

MR. COON'S SPEECH.

We are printing a summary of President Coon's address at the Teachers' Assembly on the weak points of the North Carolina public school system. We are not prepared to say that he is altogether correct, but one thing does stand out from his line of argument, and that is that our State school system is not an har monious system, not a workable

unit. His scheme is well worth thoughtful consideration. Our school system is cop heavy. our higher institutions in proportion to what we spend for ou

The papers say that the teach tional regime he recommends.

McNAMARAS CONFESS

The country was surprised last week by the confession of James B. McNamara at Los Angeles, Cal., to dynamiting the Times newspaper office, and blowing 21 souls into eternity; also of J. J. McNamara to dynamiting the Liewellen Iron Works, nobody being killed. The first was sentenced to life imprisonment; the The directors are well pleased second to 15 years in the penitentiary. James B. escaped the death penalty because he revealed to the prosecuting officer information about the gang of dynamiters which have been en- Fry last week. The considera gaged in wholesale destructive tion was $400.00. Mrs. Reep's Perhaps your experience may be a the company will travel. It is found 139 infernal machines the little child of their cousin, sight of which roused young Gregg to the company will travel. It is found 139 infernal machines the little child of their cousin, the impudent remark: "Well, notice believed that the pushing policy made out of a arm clocks in varito be put into practice will double ous parts of the country, and in previous and died from the offset the output within the next year. every instance, Burns charges. of the burn.

Altogether the outlook is bright the defence of the McNamaras, and Clarence Darrow, chief counsel, got $50,000 of this. President Gempers, of the American Mr and Mrs. Geo. S. Sandlin Federation of Labor, who was championing the McNamaras' cause, professes to be astounded over the confessions, but Detective Burns charges that he has guilty. Many labor organizations promises to eclipse any former are now repudiating the McNam- effort of the Guild. Lenoir has the convention habit aras and say J. B. ought to be and is content to let the good hung and the money aised for the Morganton Deanery, held kind of mice eaten, but you're all the werk continue, but a covocation his defense given to the widows this week, have aroused great in- law this blame town can sport. Come of the Times building outrage. terest The following visiting in and do your duty." As an open door policy brings It seems a pity that he could not Dean, Rev. J. D. Lobdell, of brown beard, very much on his digunexpected guests. A town with be hung 21 times. He admits Rutherfordton; Rev. W. R. Dye, nity) entered the room, followed by a the "Look us over" smile should putting 16 sticks of 80 per cent of Lincolnton; Rev. E. N. Joyner, short, bullet headed citizen in a rumdynamite under the building at of Lenoir; Rev. W. B. Magnan, pled blue suit with a big star on his 5:45 p. m., timed to go off at 1 a. of Marion, and Rev. Theodore

The whole story points to an appalling state of affairs. While the mass of organized labor of best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and The attendance did not cause course would not countenance they could do nothing for me," writes comment for size. Visitors from dynamiting, its leaders have Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro. Ky. their pack." remote parts of the county sat championed men guilty of it, and "Two packages of Chamberlain's with their brethren of another if the detectives are to be be- Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me" lieved, they knew the accused For sale by all dealers. of Statesville, Horace Sanderson, were guilty. The whole story

The key note was missions and Holy Trinity Lutheran Church Rev. J. H. Wannemacher Pastor,

At the morning service the pastor will preach from Rom. 15

Evening subject. "Thy King dom Come." Second Sermon. Catechisation for children Saturday at 2 p. m.

The Sunday school is now en gaged in making extensive arrangements for the celebration from 3 to 10 p, m. of Christmas. Program will be When you have a cold get a bottle rendered on Christmas night Dec.

> Chileien Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Child Dies

From its Burn 3. 8

Ivey Mill Crowded With Hands 8 -- Mill News.

Correspondence of the Democrat

West Hickory, Dec. 4.—The livey mill is crowded with hands at present. Mr. Downum, the overseer of spinning and Capt. Cole weave room overseer, treat their help well and consequently have no trouble to keep all the hands they need.

Malcolm McKenzie has had his old dwelling house torn down and is having a large new house built where the old one stood. We are spending too much for ter Albert are boarding with He and Mrs. McKenzie and Mas-W. P. Austin and family until their new house is finished.

Mr. Abe Isenhour from Catawba station was here Friday and Saturday visiting his brother, Dan Isenhour, who lives here. It is generally reported that the main object of his visit was to see hisbest girl who also lives

W. L. Walker, we are sorry to say, has been out of the mil! on the sick list all week but the last reports says he is getting better. John Courch and family movd into one of the Ivey houses ist week, They are working in he mill. W. E. Sigman is now having nice dwelling house built or the lot he recently bought fr. m larte and White near the grad-d school. Frank Wilson and D. J. Leonard, who had been working at Ivey for several months went to Rockingham last week o work there.

Granite is here at present workng in the mill and boarding with the family of Calvin Abee. Mrs. Barbara Reep and family who moved here from High Shools a few weeks ago bought a handsome lot from Johnnie Misses Lela and Mary Lou kind." Detective Burns ran these ter- White went to Gravite one day tresh coffee and some sandwiches the rible murderers to earth, and last week to actend the burial of Church of the Ascension.

Next Sunday, special address 'The Two Comings-Ours and the Master's,"

The much talked of sale and oyster supper, Dec. 12th, at J.W. Shuford's vacant store, 14th St,,

The meetings and services of

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the Share Holders Meeting.

The annual meeting of the share holders of the First National Bank, Hickory, N. C. will be held at the office, Thursday, Jan. 9th. 1912 at 3 o'clock, for the election of directors and any other business that may come before the meeting. 12-7-4t. K. C. MENZIES, Cashier.

Bazaar.

The ladies of the Episcopal Guild asks you to attend their sale of fancy articles and oyster supper on Tuesday Dec, 12th,

When your feet are wet and cold and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all dealers,

GAVANAGH.

The Great Conversation Novel

FOREST

RANGER

By HAMLIN GARLAND

Copyright 1910, by Hamlin Garland

CHAPTER XII.

THE LAW STEPS IN. ERE they come again!" called Lize as the hurry of feet along the walk threatened another attack. Ross Cavanagh again drew his revolver and stood at guard, and Lize, recovering her own weapon, took a place by his

With the strength of a bear the new assailant shook the bolted door. "Let me in!" he roared.

"It's dad!" called young Gregg. way, you chump! "Let me in or I'll smash this door!"

retorted Gregg. "You smash that door, old Bullfrog," unnounced Lize, "and I'll carry one of your lungs away. If you want to get in here you hunt up the judge of this own and the constable."

The old rancher muttered a flerce urse, while Ross explained the situaion. "I'm as eager to get rid of these ulprits as any one can be, but they nust be taken by proper authority. Bring a writ from the magistrate and ou may have them and welcome." Gregg went away without further iey if he's in town, and he is in town, for I saw him this afternoon. He's hiding out to save himself trouble." Lee Virginia, with an understanding of what the ranger had endured, ask-Miss Jane Hildebrand fr m ed: "Can't I get you something to eat?

word, and Lize said: "He'll find Hig-

Would you like some coffee?" "I would indeed," he answered, and his tone pleased her. She hurried away to get it, while Cavanagh disposed his prisoners behind a couple of tables in the corner.

"I guess you're in for a night of it," he remarked grimly, "so make yourselves as comfortable as you can. children are working in the mill discouragement to others of your fresh coffee and some sandwiches, the

Ross thanked Lee formally, but Mr. Henry and George Miller, there was more than gratitude in his Labor organizations all over two carpenters of West Hickory glance, and she turned away to hide her face from other eyes. Strange place it was for the blooming of love's roses, but they were in her cheeks as she faced her mother, and Lize, with fresh acknowledgment of her beauty. broke out again: "Well, this settles it. I'm going to get out of this town, dearle. I'm done. This ends the cattle country for me. I ought to have he morning service. Subject, turned you back the day you landed

The feet helted. A sharp rap sounded on the door.

"Who's there?" demanded Lize. "The law!" replied a wheezy voice. 'Open in the name of the law!" "It's old Higley," announced Lize.

'Open the door, Ross." "Come in, law," she called ironically as the justice appeared. "You look breast. Behind on the sidewalk Bal-Nov. 23 to 24. There was a pro- m. He says he did not intend to fusion of maps, charts and tables kill anybody lowed the constable. Higley opened upon Cavanagh. "Well, sir, what's all this row? What's your charge against these men?" "Killing mountain sheep. I caught them with the head of a big ram upon

"Make him show his commission," shouted Gregg. "He's never been commissioned. He's no game warden." Higley hemmed. "I-ah-oh, his authority is all right, Sam; I've seen it. If he can prove that these men killed the sheep we'll have to act."

Cavanagh briefly related how he had captured the men on the trail. "The head of the ram is at the livery barn with my horse." "How about that?" asked Higley.

turning to Joe, "I guess that's right," replied the incoleut youth. "We killed the sheep all right."

Higley was in a corner. He didn't like to offend Gregg, and yet the case was plain. He met the issue blandly "Marshal, take these men into cus tody." Then to Ross: "We'll relieve you of your care, Mr. Cavanagh. You may appear tomorrow at 9."

It was a farcical ending to a very ar duous thirty-six hour campaign, and Ross, feeling like a man who, having rolled a huge stone to the top of a hill, has been ordered to drop it, said, "I insist on the maximum penalty of the law, Justice Higley, especially for this man!" He indicated Joe Gregg.

"No more sheaking, Higley," added Lize, uttering her distrust in blunt (Continued on page 2)

at Calawba.

8 Students Wao Won Honors in the Athletic Events.

Correspondence of the Pemocrat

Newton, N C., Dec. 5 -Thanks giving day was a pleasant one at Catawba College. Following our usua Bowers, time 16 secon is, The running board jump was won by Clarence making a jump of 9 feet 9 inches. by Holmes Wagner. Kirk also won the standing board jump, height 3 Mrs. E. L. Shuford Dec. 13th. feet 10 inches, and Wagoner the running high jump. height 4 feet 11 inches. Other events were pulled off, such as the three legged race, won by John Carpenter and Herbert Ingle; nd the pick a-back race won by lowers and Kirk; and G C. Peeler

Prizes consisting of hats, shoes, ountain pens and other articles of nerchandise were given the winners by the merchants of the town. Mr. Hardister, the jeweler gave a beautiful gold medai to the best all round thlete. This was awarded to Bowers who had won 21 1-2 points, but Kirk was a close second having made 20

Following the track event was a game of foot ball : etween the Newton Graded School and Piedmont High School. The former won by a score of 10 to 0.

Miss Gertrude Glenn of the French and Business Department spent her Thanksgiving vacation at her home in Gastonia, and Prof. G. H. Smith spent his at his home in Huntereville.

President Buchheitwas in Asheville unday, where he preached at the First Christian church in the morning, and delivered an address to the Y. M. J. A. in the afternoon, his subject "The Eternal Question." being.

Mr. J. C, Corriher has been com pelled to give up college work a while on account of his eyes.

A Christmas Treat for the Inmates of the County Home

ng letter from Rev. M. A. Abernethy, of Newton:

inmates there at this time. It 10 o'clock. will take feom eight to ten dolthem, will please send or hand refreshments were enjoyed. me your free-will offering before the 23rd of December. AsChristmas comes on Monday this year, I would be pleased to get your offering by 12 o'clock on Saturday before. Read Matt. 25th, verse 40. Yours tauly,
M. A. Abernethy,

Newton, N. C. ing monthly services at the Councompany him to several of these ceived. All told, he made a good services, and to see the joy and impression on the people. pleasure it gives these unfortudid work of bringing joy to the Rock Mount church. hearts of these people who are deprived of the blessings of that they may want to make, at Fall Sunday afternoon. the Democrat office and we will forward it to Mr. Abernethy.

Made Happy by Judge Adams.

happily married on last Sunday Mr. Babel Sherrill. at the residence of H. A. Adams, the officiating magistrate: Mr. Noah Page to Mrs. Minnie Hildebrand; Mr. Bill Williams to Miss Sarah Oats, all of Icard township, Burke county.

Itching, bleeding, protruding, or blind piles yield to Doan's Ointment. Chronic cases soon relieved, final'y cured. Druggists all sell it.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES.

Nov. 29th, the Hickory Book Club held the third meeting of he year with Mrs. T. Green. The vice-president, Miss Wheeler resided in the absence of the resident, Mrs Royster. An i tere-ting chat on the books read since last meeting, Queed, Travcustom most of the students and fa els in Norway, and The Harvesculty attended the Thanksgiving and ter, occupying a prominent place, service which was held this year atthe preceded Current Events. 'Then Methodist church at 11 a. m. Shortly the ho tess criticised her book, friends from town and neighboring son Smith, with a very interestplaces gathered on the campus to ing account of the author's life. Hickory. watch the field day exercises The The luncheon was suggestive of first event on the program was the 100 Thanksgiving, with its beautiful erford College last Saturday, in yard dash which was won by Robert fruit center piece, and the Thanks- which only doubles were played, giving's bird crowning Pomono's Lenoir was defeated, the score offering. The place cards had by sets being 3 to 2. Lenoir has Bost, distance 18 feet, next Samuel J. | conundrums about turkeys, and Kirk won the standing board jump of course in his true self he appeared with his train of tooth-Then came the 110 yards hurdle race some dainties. As this delightful won by Bowers, and the mile race won hour came to an end, all looked forward to the next meeting with Stecher's triumph is universally

Wilson, N. C., arrived in Hickory | brilliant play drew from out of Monday, Dec. 4th, on a visit to town the following: Mrs. C. H. Mrs. Sims' sister, Mrs. J. A. Mar- Rhodes, Postmaster Yount and tin. Tuesday Mrs. Martin was won the prize for throwing the base at home from 4 to 6 for her Mr. W. L. Plonk and Miss Mae friends to meet Mrs. Sims, many f them old friends who knew her as Miss Pauline Blount, and J. George of Bessemer City and vere delighted to welcome her Mrs. Fred Speagle of Columbia, fter a more than Rip Van Win-S. C.

Presbyterian Church Notes

The regular services will be conducted next Sunday morning, out at night the congregation will join in a union congratulatoy service at the Reformed church apropos to the dedication of their ornamental and useful building. We are glad to accord to the church and their splendid pastor our heartiest good wishes.

The banquet given to the Prin ter's Club last Thursday night was a great success. The boys who print the Bulletin, with their Correspondence of the Democrat. girl friends, and all the men who are connected with the boys' work, with their ladies, were in Well friends I've sharpened my vited. A goodly company gath- quill and thawed the ink to ered, and after some speeches by write you some more foolishness. Messrs. Joy, Hall, Ramsay, Gwin, It's real winter over in this neck Barker, and Robert Garth, with of the woods now. The schools the pastor in charge, the crowd have all started with pretty good was divided into two contingents, attendance. The change of The Democrat has the follow- adults and young people, and books has caused considerable some lively games were enjoyed. confusion among the parents. Then came the elegant refresh- The new borks taken as a whole As it has been my custom, for ments prepared by thh ladies in are much better than the old. to carry a treat to the inmates the Bulletin, and presided over and we are getting fat on game of the county home, on Christ- by the Mistress of the Manse and of all kinds. mas day, or the day before, I her able assistants, Misses Wood,

Mrs. Ramsay's and Mrs. Yolars to give them a respectable der's classes had a delightful aftreat. To all who want to share ternoon reception at Dr. W. B. the blessing and the privilege of Ramsav's residence last Friday. helping to put gladness in their Fifteen ladies were present, behearts, and remind them once a sides the pastor. After interest-

News From Gunpowder

Correspondence of the Democrat. Gunpowder, Dec. 6 .- The Rev. sermon on the Caldwell circuit at Rock Mount church Sunday at at Saints Academy last week, Mr. Abernethy has been hold- 11 o'clock to a good-sized congre- but failed to get any converts. gation, which gave him a heartv welcome. His sermon was on the ty Home for the past 20 years. line of Christian duty and activi-It has been our pleasure to ac- ty with faith, and was well re-

Mrs. Mary Hamby, an aged nate people to see him coming. lady, suffered a stroke of paralycounty, spent part of last week manufacture of automobiles and with his son, Mr. L. B. Tuttle, motor trucks. our hustling merchant.

The following couples were day with Mrs. Yount's father, best wagons in the world, and

Monday evening, by inviting a to us like here is the chance for few friends to a social at her the South to make a break at hone. It was a pleasant occa- building its own machines and sion. We wish for her many keeping its money at home. An automobile factory at Hickory more happy birthdays, Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA Oil. Pain cannot stay where it is used.

Negative Won The Debate.

Rev. C. L. Miller Resigns as Field Secretary.

A meeting of trustees last week accepted very reluctant y e resignation of Rev. C. 1. M ler as college fi l secreta ... ommittee will nominate h; ccesso. The canvas for fun fo the Yoder science hall w ; placed in the hands of he folowing committee: R. v. M. .. after 2 p. m. the college body and "Kennedy Square," by Hopkin- Pence, Henry; Kev. J. L. Cron e, Maiden; and Dr. W. A. Deaton, In a tennis meeting with Ruth-won the tournament for singles. At present the score is tied on doubles.

Echoes from the Merchant of Venice are still heard. Miss acknowledged, She planned and help make new scenery and costumes, in addition to selecting Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sims, of and training the players. The Attorney Mouser of Lincolnton, de interval, Red carnations with Monday night in the audisparagus ferns adorned the tea- torium the annual Freshman-Sophomore, debate was held. One sophomore and one freshman from the Euronian society met a similar team from the Chrestonian. The question for discussion was, "Resolved, That the Commission Form of Municipal Government Should be Generally Adopted." The affirmative was presented by Messrs. Noah D. Yount and C. E. Fritz, and the negative by Messrs. Roy Troutman and Paul Rhyne. The negative side won.

The Saints Failed to Land Any Sinners.

Bandys Township, Dec. 5-

the last fifteen to twenty years, appreciation of the boys' work on The hunting season has opened

One of the most novel scraps shall do so again this year, if Haithcock, and Coline Munroe. of the season was pulled off the able to get it up. There are 24 The merry party broke up about other day. Two boys who were at variance met on the road and agreed to settle it with their manhood, without weapons, and no one there to see.

The large crops of wheat is sowed at last and the road men are starting on their work again. The new road law is all right if year that somebody thinks of ing and exciting games, splendid the men who have the contracts will only do as the contracts Rev. Mr. Caldwell preached a very able sermon at Providence Sunday. Our country churches are inproving in the noble work J. W. Kennedy preached his first they are doing.

Sermon on the Caldwell circuit at The Saints held their meeting

Makes Best Wagons and May Make Best Autos.

Charlotte Chronicle. The Hickory Democrat this week prints an advertisement of All of our readers who want to help Mr. Abernethy in this splan. help Mr. Abernethy in this splen- She will be buried tomorrow at point of interest is that these people are the same who bought the Piedmont Wagon and Mail-Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sherrill at- ufacturing Company, at Hickory, tended the funeral of their cous- for about $400,000, we believe, home, can leave any contribution in, Mr. Pink Link, at Granite and the inference from the advertisement in The Democrat is Mr. R. F. Tuttle, of Alexander that they intend to go into the

> Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Yount and be the case. This Hickory eslittle girl, of Hickory, spent Sun- tablishment has been making the there is no reason why it could Miss Bonnie Lee Henkel cele- not turn out first-class automorated her fifteenth birthday on biles and motor toucks. It looks would be a great thing.

> > For any pain, from top of toe. from any cause, apply Dr. Thomas' Eclectic