Bandy's Township.

Correspondence of the Democrat. Bandy's Township, Jan. 26. - Everything is lovely over here since the weather has turned a little warmer; it's been so cold a fellow could hardly go to see his girl. Distances is one of the few disadvantages of country life; had roads is another, that should be remedied.

The contractors have made the roads terribly bad, working off some of their surplus energy just before the winter weather set in thinking probably we should have another winter like last winter. Consequently the roads are in a worse shape than they have been "since the war," to quote a veteran.

R. Brantly Burns of Livingston Mountain spent a few days in this community visiting his many relatives and friends during the holidays and has now gone to Anson county to engage in the lumber business.

Dr. G. M. Chapman of Rutherford county spent a few days with his father-in-law, Dr. F. T. Foard, last week preparing to go to Morven, where he has purchased property and intends to locate next spring.

Dr. Williams, now of Lincoln, Neb., was a visitor at his father's Mr. L. Monroe Williams.

We did not get a bridge across the river at Falls Ford at the last meeting of the commissioners, but we got a promise. "Happy Jack."

COMMENT.

Col. Watterson is out in another very bitter card declaring that Woodrow Wilson has lied. While accusing Wilson of ingratitude in telling Col. Harvey, of Harper's Weekly, that his aid was hurting his candidacy, he also admits that Wilson apologized to Harvey. The colonel thus exhibits a childish pique. Wilson and Harvey's correspondence following the Manhattan club conference incident has been published. Wilson made a very manly apology for unintentionally wounding Harvey's feelings and Harvey accepted it quite graciously.

He was born in Catawba county about 80 years ago but moved to Alexander county in his young manhood and spent many years there, where he raised a family of eight girls and four boys. One of these was Mr. J. A. Cline, of this city, late general manager of the Hickory Hosiery Mill. The funeral was at Friendship church in Alexander county and was conducted by the deceased's former pastor, Rev. A. L. Bolicke. Mr. Cline was a man of fine Christian character.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A romantic event which rather took the city by surprise was the marriage yesterday afternoon of Miss Ola Leonard, the charming daughter of ex-sheriff J. S. Leonard, of this city to Mr. J. O. Shierly, a successful young merchant of Hartwell, Ga. The ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moretz, here. Presided by Rev. J. H. Wannamacher. It was a very quiet affair, only immediate relatives of the family attending. Miss Leonard formerly taught school at Lavonia near Mr. Shierly's home. She looked very pretty in a brown travelling suit. The bridal couple will visit Atlanta and other Georgia cities before returning to their home in Hartwell.

Lutheran laymen can get the attractive program of their convention at Salisbury, Feb. 7-9, from Pastor Wannamacher, here. President Fritz speaks Feb. 7 at 3:30 o'clock on the "Significance of his Convention" and Prof. M. L. Stirewalt at 7:30 Feb. 8 on "Missions in the Curriculum of a Christian College." Some of the Presbyterians of Hickory are planning to go down to hear Mr. Robt. Speer on Friday afternoon and night of Feb. 9. Every Lutheran layman who can get away ought certainly to go. The Southern Presbyterian Church laymen's convention meets at Chattanooga Feb. 8-10, and the Presbyterian church here will probably send a delegate.

Oxford Ford Items. Correspondence of the Democrat. Oxford Ford, Jan. 30. - A pleasant birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Holler, Jan. 25, in honor of their grandmother, Mrs. Mary Lael who had reached the 81 milestone on life's journey. She received many useful presents from her kinsfolk. The one she prized most highly was a Bible in large print, for failing eyesight does not permit her to read the ordinary print. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lael and family, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Lael and family from Hickory were present, also many relatives and friends who live in our section.

This is the season of the year when mothers feel very much concerned over the frequent colds contracted by their children, and have abundant reasons for it, as every cold weakens their lungs, lowers their vitality and paves the way for the most serious diseases that so often follow. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures, and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.
