SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson VII.—Third Quarter. For Aug. 18, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Mark v. 21-43. Memory Verses, 41, 42—Golden Text, Mark v. 41—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

At the request of the people of Gadara He left their coasts and recrossed the sea to His own city, Capernaum, and the people received Him gladly, for they were all waiting for Him. There are many places today, chiefly in so-called Christendom, where He is not wanted as the oppressor of Satan and his wiles, for much that is called church work and much preaching is really not for Christ, but against Him, while there are many others longing to hear of Him. I have just read of one valley in Mr. Beauchamp's territory in China where a thousand people are crying loudly for a teacher and many leading families have put away their idols. May the Lord direct us to the open doors and make us willing and obedient. Trouble comes to the rich as well as the poor, the devil is the oppressor of all classes, and in this lesson we see a rich man, a ruler, and a poor woman, both in great trouble; a little girl twelve years developing and a poor woman twelve years growing weaker and both seemingly in hopeless condition as far as this life goes. Both find deliverance at the feet of Jesus. Jairus, the ruler of the synagogue, fell at His feet and besought Him greatly for his only daughter, who was at the point of death, that He would come and lay His hands on her and heal her. The sick woman had spent all her living upon physicians, had suffered much and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse. She had such faith in Him, no doubt by hearing of His wondrous works, that she believed if she could only touch the hem of His garment she would be healed. Jesus arose to go with Jairus, His disciples followed, and much people thronged Him. It was in this throng that the sick woman came and succeeded in touching the border of His garment and was immediately healed. Jesus, knowing that some one had believably touched Him, turned Him about and said, "Who touched my clothes?" Peter and the other disciples said in surprise, "Master, the multitude throng and press thee." But He insisted that some one had touched Him in a special manner and that virtue had gone out of Him. It is just so still—many meet to worship Him, but few touch Him as this woman did. Many know about Him, but comparatively few know Him in the sense of receiving power from Him for themselves or others.

When the woman saw that what she had done was known to Him she fell down before Him and declared unto Him before all the people why she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately (Luke viii. 47). This is what He wanted, that He might do more for her than she had expected. She had already received what she came for and expected, but He loves to do exceeding abundantly above all we can ask or think (Eph. iii. 20). She had no thought that He would speak to her personally, much less call her daughter. She could never forget those words from His lips, "Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace" (verse 34; Luke viii. 48; Matt. ix. 22). This "good comfort" is just His "good cheer" of Matt. ix. 2; xiv. 27; John xvi. 33. Had she not publicly confessed her healing by His power she would not only have missed this special blessing, but would have occasion to upbraid herself because she had not done so. There is much blessing in obeying (Rom. x. 9). "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus," in last lesson the healed demoniac was sent home to tell his friends how great things the Lord had done for him, and the command stands to "declare His doings among the people" (Isa. xli. 4).

What about the anxious father all this time and the only daughter, whom he left dying? The incident we have been dwelling upon probably took much less time than we have taken to write it, but there are times when minutes seem very long, and it may have been so with Jairus. But God is never too late. Though He tarry, we must wait for Him and be patient (Heb. x. 36, 37; Hab. ii. 3, 4). While He still talked to the woman tidings came from the ruler's house that the little girl was dead, which as soon as Jesus heard He said to Jairus, "Be not afraid, only believe" (verse 36). Reaching the house, He said to the waiting people: "Why make ye this ado? The damsel is not dead, but sleepeth." And, taking only Peter, James and John and the little maid's father and mother (Luke viii. 52). He went in where she was and took her hand and said, "Damsel, I say unto thee, Arise." Immediately she arose and walked, and He commanded that something should be given her to eat (48). There was no further laughing or scorn (40), but a great astonishment, for they had never seen anything like this. This manner of man was not ordinary, a man full of compassion for all sick and suffering and with the power to heal the otherwise incurable and to raise the dead—truly a man and as truly God, now our great High Priest at the right hand of the Father, knowing us, loving us, caring for us and still saying the same words, "Be of good cheer." "Be not afraid, only believe."

The American People.

The National Disease is nervous prostration. What is to be the result of all this hurry, worry and work, sometimes over—sometimes under-eating, always under-sleeping—brain and brawn in constant state of agitation and unrest—sleeping badly, dreaming, tossing, waking? Dr. King has devised a remedy if used aright. King's Iron Tonic Bitters steadies the nerves, builds up the waste, gives new start. Sold under guarantee by all medicine dealers.

Take One Pain Pill, then—Take it Easy.

For Neuralgia, nothing is better than Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. Used by thousands for a generation.

Those who have suffered from neuralgic pains need not be told how necessary it is to secure relief. The easiest way out of neuralgia is to use Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They have relieved sufferers for so many years that they have become a household necessity. "I have taken Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for five years and they are the only thing that does me any good. They have relieved neuralgia in my head in fifteen minutes. I have also taken them for rheumatism, headache, pains in the breast, toothache, carache and pains in the bowels and limbs. I have found nothing to equal them and they are all that is claimed for them." J. W. SELDEN, Blue Springs, Mo. At all druggists—25 doses 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.
