Confederate Reunion.

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 8.—Officials of the Southern Railway Company and the Queen and Crescent Route expect to handle the great crowds that will visit Chattanooga for the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans May 27-29 with the same dispatch that the normal travel through the Chattanooga Terminal station is handled as the result of arrangements made at a conference of transportation, mechanical and passenger representatives of these lines at which it was decided to form for this occasion a special organization similar to that which accomplished such splendid results for the Southern Railway at Macon during the reunion of 1912.

Experienced ticket sellers and baggage checkers will be brought from other points, special temporary facilities, and ample police protection will be provided, and a large number of expert passenger men will be on hand to assist the veterans and their friends in making arrangements for side and return trips, while special operating and mechanical forces will be detailed to assure the prompt movement of trains.

Special attention has been given to the arrangements for furnishing information as to the movement of trains. For this occasion the Southern and the Queen and Crescent will draw in their large organization, covering a great part of the United States, and will bring to the service of reunion visitors the full benefit of the experience gained in handling the crowds on other similar occasions.

Told by a Doctor's Wife.

This story is told by the wife of a physician living in a small town in central Kansas to illustrate some of the drawbacks to the medical profession, says The Kansas City Star. "We were attending Church, something rather unusual for us, together with a visiting cousin and the baby, when a messenger from the telephone office came in search of the doctor. The minister paused in his sermon until they were safely out of the church. Then the baby, who was partial to his father, became so unruly on being left in my charge, that I, too, was compelled to leave the service, causing a second pause in the minister's discourse. Then it occurred to the cousin that he had the key to the office and that the doctor could not get his surgical case, so he, also, left the church, requiring a third interruption in the morning worship. "When we reached home the doctor was swinging leisurely in the hammock.

"Didn't you have a hurry call to an accident case or something of that sort?" demanded the unsophisticated cousin.

"Oh, no" replied the medical man. Just my old Swedish friend in New Gotland 'phoned to inquire if he could have a 'leettle' sugar in his coffee."—News & Observer.

Secretary Redfield has the Right Ideas.

Secretary of Commerce Redfield appears to have a "think machine" that keeps time with the heart beat of the toilers. He favors a genuine reduction of the burdens of tariff taxes, because "it means the birth of a new moral and mental life to our industries."

He expresses himself strongly as against the use of the taxing power of the government for the enrichment of the favored few. He says:

We must learn to appreciate that the man in the shop is the most valuable thing in it; that in order to be most productive the conditions which make for his best conservation must be produced and maintained.

It will be no harm to the nation if abnormal profits are cut down. Public opinion will not tolerate maintaining them at the cost of those who toil. The class of those who claim profits guaranteed by law, separating them from others by this privilege, may, indeed, must disappear. The prosperity of the nation does not depend upon the making of profits by any part of it. We shall be happier far when the temptation so to do shall have been removed and steadfastness shall replace cowardice, and capital shall deal with labor as an ally, not an antagonist.

TRUTHFUL REPORTS.

Hickory Reads Them With Uncommon Interest.

A Hickory citizen tells his experience in the following statement. No better evidence than this can be had. The truthful reports of friends and neighbors is the best proof in the world. "Read and be convinced."

Mrs. A. Wezen, 1443 Ninth Ave., Hickory, N. C., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills proved beneficial to me and I do not hesitate to recommend them. My kidneys were out of order and I suffered from backache. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Moser & Lutz's Drug Store and they made me strong and well. This remedy gives quick relief."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Wezen had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Don't Wait for the Wood to Show Before You Paint!

Postponing painting is like putting off payment of taxes. You are only piling up expense. The wise man paints often, so that there is always a protecting film of paint between his house and the elements. The more durable the paint, the less often this must be done.

The most durable paint in the world is

Lewis White Lead and Pure Linseed Oil

(Dutch Boy Trade-Mark) when mixed to suit the conditions of the wood. All good painters do it this way. Make sure that yours does, too, and that he uses Dutch Boy white lead and linseed oil. Drop in at our store and get our "Painting Points," containing valuable suggestions on selecting color schemes for inside and outside your home.
