Forest City.—Owing to the resignation of A. Hall Johnson, solicitor of this district things are warming up for a hot contest. Senator James Carson, of Rutherfordton, who opposed Johnson three years ago, is reported to be receptive candidate, but will not make a fight. It is understood that H. Craig Richardson of this place will make the race. Friends of Mr. Richardson are urging him to enter the contest.

R. & A. Files Protest.

Novel Scheme for Clean-Up.
Asheville.—The members of the Civic Betterment League have decided upon a novel scheme for securing the co-operation of local tenants and property owners in their efforts to make Asheville a "city beautiful." They announced recently that for the past several weeks they have had a corps of photographers busy taking pictures of the lawns and back lots, which are in need of attention and it is stated that unless the rubbish and trash is removed within a short time the pictures will be published.

Editor to Leave Express Co.
Lenoir.—Mr. Harry C. Martin, who has been local agent for the Southern Express Company here for the past 10 or 12 years, recently sent in his resignation. For the last several years, Mr. Martin has been a hard-worked man, having in addition to the express business, other interests to look after here, among them being The Lenoir News, of which he is editor and proprietor. His health for the last few months has not been of the best, and for this reason he has given up the express work.

Saved His Foot
H. D. Ely, of Bantam, O., suffered from horrible ulcer on his foot for our years. Doctor advised amputation, but he refused and reluctantly tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve as a last resort. He then wrote: "I used your salve and my foot was soon completely cured." Best remedy for burns, cuts, bruises and eczema. Get a box to-day Only 25c. All druggists or by mail, H. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson VIII.—Fourth Quarter, For Nov. 23, 1913.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Josh. i, 1-9—Memory Verses, 5, 6—Golden Text, Josh. 1-9—Commentary by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The book of Joshua opens with an other reference to the passing from earth of Moses, in some respects greater and again he is called by that great name, the servant of the Lord (Deut. xxxiv, 5). It is one of the titles of the Lord Jesus (Isa. xlii, 1; Matt. xii, 18; Zech. iii, 8), and on that great passover night, when there was a strife among the disciples as to who should be the greatest, He taught that it was greater to serve and said, "I am among you as he that serveth" (Luke xxii, 24-27). Paul rejoiced in the title (Rom. i, 1; Phil. i, 1; Tit. i, 1) and perhaps never said anything greater than when he said, "Whose I am and whom I serve" (Acts xxvii, 28). Joshua is called Moses' minister or servant or the one standing before him (Ex. xxiv, 13; xxxiii, 11; Deut. i, 38).

We meet him for the first time victoriously leading Israel against Amalek, while Aaron and Hur stayed up the hands of Moses. Next we find him as Moses' minister going up into the mount of God with Moses when he went to receive the tables of the law and returning with him after the forty days. Then we find him abiding in the tabernacle and afterward as one of the twelve spies and one of the two who encouraged the people to go up at that time and possess the land, the only two who left Egypt as men and entered into the promised land (Ex. xvii, 8-16; xxiv, 13; xxxii, 17; xxxiii, 11; Num. xiii, 8, 16; xiv, 6, 30; xxvi, 65).

When Moses was told that he could not enter into the land he asked the Lord to set a man over them who would faithfully shepherd them, and the Lord said, "Take thee Joshua, the son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay thine hand upon him" (Num. xxvii, 12-23).

Now Moses is gone, and Joshua is the leader, and the Lord spake unto Joshua, and our lesson gives us the message. We read in one place that "the word of the Lord came expressly unto Ezekiel" (Ezek. i, 3), and unless the word of the Lord comes expressly to each of us as we read we have not read with profit as we might have done.

There is a Canaan to be possessed and enjoyed, not after we die, but here and now, and we may enter ourselves and help others to enter. It is all a matter of faith, and "we who have believed do enter into rest" (Heb. iv, 3). The land was given to them, but they were to enter in and take possession, only that which they actually trod upon being really theirs (verses 2, 4; Deut. xi, 24).

I do not know any greater assurance for a believer in the word of God than those wonderful words of the Lord to men, "I am with you." Even to Jacob He said, "Behold, I am with thee and will keep thee." To Isaac He said, "Fear not, for I am with thee." To Moses He said, "Certainly I will be with thee," and now He says to Joshua: "As I was with Moses, so I will be with thee. I will not fail thee nor forsake thee" (verse 5; Gen. xxviii, 15; xxvi, 24; Ex. iii, 12).

The Lord Jesus could say nothing greater to His disciples when He sent them forth after His resurrection with the good news for all the world than "Lo, I am with you all the days" (Matt. xxviii, 20). Just one suggestion from this great assurance certainly is this—that He will do it all, all that is to be done, if we will only be His willing and obedient fellow workers (I Cor. iii, 9; II Cor. vi, 1).

His word is to be our continual and only guide, our meditation day and night, our sole reliance in every matter, and at all times, then, there shall be true prosperity and good success and constant victory over all enemies (verses 5, 7, 8; Ps. i, 2; Jer. xvii, 7, 8). In such an attitude of soul and with a mind thus stayed upon Jehovah we cannot but be strong and of good courage. I have found this command ten times, but possibly you may find it more often—Moses to Israel, once; Moses to Joshua, twice; the Lord to Joshua, three times; Israel to Joshua, once; Joshua to Israel, once; David to Solomon, twice; (Deut. xxxi, 6, 7, 23; Josh. i, 6, 7, 9, 18; x, 24; I Chron. xxii, 13; xxviii, 20).

I remember well what a strength Deut. xxxi, 6, 8, were to me in the fall of 1876 as I moved my family from St. John, N. B., to Boston, Mass., having given up the position of principal of a public school to give my whole time to missionary work. The Lord did certainly speak to my soul in those words at that time and many a time since.

As to all truly Christian work, since He cannot fall nor be discouraged (Isa. xlii, 4) those who believe and rely upon His "I am with you" cannot fall nor be discouraged.
Note the "Be not afraid; neither be thou dismayed," of verse 9 and compare Isa. xli, 10, 13, and Deut. xxxi, 8. The "Have not I commanded thee?" reminds us of the word to Gideon, "Go in this thy might; * * * have not I sent thee?" (Judg. vi, 14) and of Jer. i, 7, 8: "Thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee. * * * I am with thee." All depends upon who commands us, who sends us.
