Special Meeting of City Board

A special meeting of the city council will be held tonight at which time the matter of revising the ordinances will come up for first reading, including the new ordinance placing restrictions on Sabbath observance. As many of the ordinances now in force conflict with each other and still others are covered by State Laws, it was thought best to revise all of them and publish same as a city code. It will probably be Tuesday a week before they are given final reading.

Robt. H. Johnson Passes to Rest

The death of Mr. Robert H. Johnson occurred at his home in this city last Thursday evening about the hour of eight. For years he had been a patient sufferer and confined to a wheel chair, but for the past month or so his condition had been serious causing him to take to his bed.

Mr. Johnson was born August 22, 1858, and was 58 years and 18 days old at the time of his death. Two children survive his first marriage and six his second. His first wife was Miss Mollie Burke of Salisbury and his second Miss Annie Sandlin of Old Fort, the latter survived his death. He, with his family came here four years ago, taking up their residence in Highland, later moving to their present home 712 Tenth Avenue.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon from the First Presbyterian Church, conducted by Rev. J. G. Garth, pastor of the deceased, assisted by Rev. A. L. Stanford, pastor of the First Methodist Church, after which the body was laid to rest in Oakwood Cemetery.

Commenting on his death the Salisbury Post has the following, Mr. Johnson being a native of that city:

"Mr. Johnson was a son of the late Alfred Johnson, who before his death owned practically all that part of Salisbury now known as Fulton Heights. The junior Johnson was known to hundreds of people in this city and country and to those he was just plain 'Bob' Johnson. He was a quiet, unassuming man, a splendid fellow, was a farmer on a small scale and manufactured thousands of gallons of home made cider and this always found a ready sale here. He sold his property here some five or six years ago and took up his residence in Hickory, but frequently made visits to his old home. There are many who will learn with sorrow of his death."

The following obituary was read at his funeral:

"Robert Harah Johnson was born August 22, 1858 and died September 9, 1915, aged 57 years and 18 days.

"He united with the Presbyterian church at the age of 15, and was married to Mollie Burke in 1879 and to that union two children were born. One son and one daughter. Theodore Burke Johnson the eldest lived but one year and two months, and Margaret Elizabeth Johnson still survives and lives in Salisbury.

"First wife died January 16, 1891,

"He was married to Miss Annie Sandlin of Old Fort, May 21, 1896, and to this union six children were born. The eldest being 16 and the youngest 4 years old."

The bereaved wife and children have the profound sympathy of the entire city in the loss of their beloved husband and father.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank our many friends and neighbors for their comforting words and kindly assistance during the illness and death of our husband and father, Robert H. Johnson, and to especially thank the physician and nurse who so tenderly ministered to him, even though their efforts were unavailing. May the Lord bless each and every one of you.

Yours sincerely
Mrs. E. H. Johnson and Children.

Prosperous Times In Waynesville

Mr. R. L. Prevost of Waynesville, superintendent of the Unagusta Manufacturing company, was here Sunday and Monday.

He stated that he never saw business more lively. His plant is running 12 1/2 hours a day, yet they are away behind in filling their orders. (He said it was "good Democratic prosperity.")

Mr. Prevost formerly resided here where he still owns property, and we still claim him.

We are glad to know he is doing well at Waynesville and hope he will come to see us often.

Baseball Tuesday.

The most interesting baseball game of the season will be played on the Lenoir College diamond Tuesday at 4 P. M., between the Hickory boys and Lenoir College boys. There will be some class to this game and a large crowd is expected to see the noted ball players in action.

Attendance Good At Lenoir College

225 Students Are Enrolled On Opening Date; Record Expected to Reach 300.

The twenty-fifth session of Lenoir College was begun on September 7, 1915, with a record attendance of 225, which number, it is confidently expected, will reach 300 before the session closes. Many applications for entrance during the second week have arrived, and there is every indication that this year will see Lenoir College advance at a faster rate than ever before.

Professor Little, Dean of the College, and head of the department of Modern Languages, has just returned from the University of Wisconsin, where he spent the summer in Graduate work in French and German. After the summer quarters was over, Professor Little traveled extensively in Canada and the Eastern States. Professor Hartwig, head of the department of English, spent the summer at the University of Chicago doing graduate work in English. Professor Coble, Director of the Chemical and Physical laboratories, has just returned from a summer quarter's work in Physics in the University of Chicago.

Professor Frank C. Longaker, D. D., who was elected professor of Greek and History to succeed Professor M. L. Stirewalt, has been in the city of Hickory since August 20. Dr. Longaker is a most valuable addition to the splendid corps of instructors in Lenoir College. He is a man of liberal education, extended pedagogical experience and a most effective speaker. The College and the city of Hickory are fortunate in having in their midst such a man as Dr. Longaker.

Dr. R. L. Fritz, President of Lenoir College, left last Thursday as fraternal delegate of the Tennessee Synod, to attend the meeting of the General Council of the Lutheran Church, which is convened in biennial session at Rock Island, Ill.

On Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, September 18, 19, 20, a Missionary Training Conference is to be held in the College Church. The following leaders of the several missionary movements of the Lutheran Church are to be present and to make addresses: The Rev. E. C. Cronk, General Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, Mrs. E. C. Cronk, Leader of the Children's Missionary Movement, Dr. R. C. Holland, General Secretary of the Board of Home Missions. On Tuesday and Wednesday nights, September 21, and 22, the Rev. S. P. Long, D. D., of Mansfield, Ohio, will deliver addresses to the students of the College.

This is the Quarto-Centennial year of the College, and the event is to be celebrated at the College, on Thursday September 23rd, by an elaborate programme, and a great reunion of all Lenoir's alumni, friends and supporters. The following speakers for the occasion will deliver addresses: The Rev. S. P. Long, D. D., of Mansfield, Ohio, The Rev. A. R. Beck, of Dallas, N. C. The Rev. A. L. Crouse, Charlottesville, Va., and the Rev. W. P. Cline, D. D., of White Rock, S. C.

This year is to mark an epoch in the history of Lenoir College. The raising of the endowment, and launching of a movement to erect a Library building, a new Dormitory for Women, and a Gymnasium, are to be begun this year.

Hickory's New Paper Makes its Appearance

Hickory now boasts of an afternoon paper, the Hickory Daily Record having made its appearance here Saturday evening. It is a four page paper, seven columns to the page, neat typographically and well edited. The paper is a member of the Associated Press and is published by the Clay Printing Co. Mr. Sam H. Farrabee, formerly editor of the Raleigh Times, is editor of the Record, and Mr. R. C. Minich, lately with the New Bern Sun, is advertising manager.

We gladly welcome these gentlemen and their families to Hickory and hope our relation as competitors will always be most cordial and friendly.

Mr. A. H. Litaker and two daughters, Misses Nannie and Pearl, Mr. W. F. Litaker and Mr. Geo. E. Foggart, of Concord, were in the city yesterday to see the creamery here. Tuesday they visited the Shuford and Dutch dairy farms, and spent the night with Rev. M. A. Abernethy at Newton, who came with them to Hickory yesterday. They were very favorably impressed with Hickory and Catawba county.
