MRS. GALT WILL BE FIFTEENTH BRIDE

Fourteen Marriages Have Been Held in the White House—The Complete List.

Woodrow Wilson will be the second president to be married in the white house, the other being Grover Cleveland. Mrs. Norman Galt will be the fifteenth white house bride, the others being:

Lucy Payne Washington, widow of a nephew of George Washington, and Mrs. Madison's younger sister, to Justice Todd, of the Supreme court 1881.

Anna Todd, niece of Mrs. Monroe, to Representative John J. Jackson, of Virginia, great uncle of Stonewall Jackson, 1812.

Maria Hester Monroe, youngest daughter of President Monroe, to Samuel Lawrence Gouverneur, of New York, the president's private secretary, 1820.

Mary Hellen, niece of Mrs. Adams, to John Adams, son and private secretary of John Quincy Adams, 1826.

Delia Lewis, daughter of William B. Lewis, one of President Jackson's personal friends, to Alphonse Joseph Yver Pageot, secretary of the French legation and afterward minister from France, 1829.

Mary Easton, of Tennessee, niece of Mrs. Jackson, to Lucien B. Polk, of Tennessee, 1835.

Emily Martin to Lewis Randolph, a grandson of Jefferson, 1837.

Elizabeth Tyler, daughter of President Tyler, to William Walker, of Williamsburg, Va., 1842.

Jesse Woodrow Wilson, daughter of President Woodrow Wilson, to Francis Bowes Sayre, 1913.

Eleanor Randolph Wilson, daughter of President Wilson, to William Gibbs McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, 1914.

When Baby Has the Croup.

When a mother is awakened from sound sleep to find her child who has gone to bed apparently in the best of health struggling for breath, she is naturally alarmed. Yet if she can keep her presence of mind and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy every ten minutes until vomiting is produced, quick relief will follow and the child will drop to sleep to awaken in the morning as well as ever. This remedy has been in use for many years with uniform success. For sale by Menzies Drug Co., & Lutz's Drug Store. adv.

His Justification.

Greensboro Record.
"We are not preparing for war, but for defense."—Wilson.
"When a strong man armed keepeth his peace, his goods are in peace; but when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils."—New Testament, St. Luke 11:21-22.
Our President keeps close to the trail of Washington and is not entirely unacquainted with the sayings of the Prince of Peace.

Chronic Constipation.

"About two years ago when I began using Chamberlain's Tablets I had been suffering for some time with stomach trouble and chronic constipation. My condition improved rapidly through the use of these tablets. Since taking four or five bottles of them my health has been fine." writes Mrs. John Newton, Irving, N. Y. For sale by Menzies Drug Co., & Lutz's Drug Store. advertisement.

Ashes.

Ashes are often carelessly disposed of, being thrown out in back lanes or left in wooden boxes against fences, while a few live coals may still be in them, and the first wind that starts may fan them into a flame, and thus cause, it may be a very disastrous fire.

Woman loves a clear, rosy complexion. Burdock Blood Bitters is splendid for purifying the blood, clearing the skin, restoring sound digestion. All druggists sell it. Price $1.00. adv't

SOCIAL

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Celebrate Wedding Anniversary.

The following is taken from the Marietta, N. C., correspondence of the Lumberton Robesonian. It will be of interest to Hickory people as Mrs. Oliver was formerly Miss Pansy Bowles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowles, and is pleasantly remembered by a host of friends here:

"On October 1st at 8 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Oliver entertained at a stag dinner, the occasion being the first anniversary of their wedding. The dining room was beautiful in its decorations of yellow and white. The centerpiece on the table was a long mirror, the edge being outlined with a tiny border of goldenrod. In the center of this mirror was a handsome cut-glass vase, while a bowl was used at each end. These were very artistic, filled with goldenrod, which carried out the color scheme used in their beautiful wedding, which took place in the First Baptist church of Hickory. Place cards with small white rose buds were used. The guests were shown into the dining room by Mrs. Oliver, who was handsomely gowned in yellow satin. They were received by Mrs. W. T. Jenrette, who was charming in white, and Miss Rachel Oliver, who looked lovely in yellow. Dinner, in five courses was served by Mrs. Oliver, assisted by Mrs. Jenrette and Miss Oliver.

"As the guests left the dining room, Mrs. S. M. Oliver, presiding at her player-piano across the street, playing Mendelssohn's Wedding March. From her home the G. W. Club, of which Mrs. Oliver is president, marched in the front door led by Mrs. T. C. Parham. While dinner was in progress these ladies had slipped in the front door and arranged a surprise for Mrs. Oliver who was shown to a beautiful decorated chair over which was suspended a wedding bell.

"The men were given seats while the club members stood by a lovely table, Miss Rachel Oliver, in a graceful and charming manner presided as toastmistress, while the following toasts were given: To Mr. and Mrs. Oliver—Mellie Hill; To the Bachelors—Mae Oliver; To the Bachelors-maids—Mrs. Jenrette; response by Ada Henley; To Our Club President—Mrs. T. C. Parham. This merriment was closed with a toast by Miss Olijer. At this time an express wagon, beautifully decorated, was drawn down the hall by little Miss Willie Dell Parham, daintily attired in white lace. Stopping in front of Mrs. Oliver, she in her sweet childish way handed her a package, saying, "Mrs. Pansy, here's a 'spress package for you." Upon opening the package, many pretty and useful cotton articles were displayed. The guests were then invited to the table, where each one drew a fortune from underneath a basket of roses. Dr. J. M. Wells drew a cupid which had around its neck a telegram which read: "Last October I successfully captured Pansy V. Bowles and William McD. Oliver. This is a warning to the maids and bachelors that I will be after them soon." (signed) Dan Cupid.

"The girls then went to the dining room where delicious refreshments were served.
