Thursday To Be Great Day At Catawba County Fair

THURSDAY WILL BE BIG DAY OF CATAWBA FAIR

Nearly 2,000 School Children and Young Men and Women to be in Procession—Dairy Cattle Judging Tomorrow—Holiday Throughout City.

AMUSEMENT PROGRAM

Aeroplane flight at 11:30 and 3:30. Free moving pictures at Hub 1:30 to 3:30. Slide for Life at 2 and 8. Band concert at 3 and 8. Moving pictures at Hub. Moving pictures at new theatre.

With today's events out of the way, the fair management bent its energies to making tomorrow—Educational Day—the largest feature of the week. Nearly 2,000 school children and college girls and boys will be in the parade which will form at the First Baptist church and start promptly at 10 o'clock and proceed to the postoffice, where the children will disband. The visitors then will go to the fair grounds for the aeroplane flight and exhibits.

Friday's Program. Friday's program will be similar to that of tomorrow, except that Catawba's banner livestock will be carried through the city and shown off to the visitors. There were more head of cattle in the big tent last night than ever before by noon of the first day, and other exhibitors came in during the day with their cattle, horses and hogs. The fair management was brimming over with joy at the good showing and, with ideal weather in prospect, there was nothing lacking to make the event a complete success.

Dairy Cattle Judging. A feature of tomorrow morning will be the dairy judging contest, in which both girls and boys will participate.

Mr. Homer H. B. Mask, county agent, carried over 40 youngsters to the Dutch Dairy Farms and to the Oakview Dairy Farm where they inspected the fine herds of Mr. Lutz and Mr. Shuford, and the youths ought to make high scores tomorrow. They will receive $40 in prizes. The cattle judging will take place in the afternoon tomorrow. The only judging events this afternoon will be for horses and hogs.

Holiday Tomorrow. As usual, the manufacturer-enterprises, stores, schools and many public places will be closed tomorrow so that everybody can attend the fair, and a monster crowd is expected in Hickory. Judge Adams will be invited to attend the fair, and it was hoped that Catawba superior court would adjourn for the day. The fair management wanted the judge to see what Catawba had in the way of fine cattle, agricultural products, home and pantry exhibits, to say nothing of the school exhibits—which will afford quite a contrast to what the court is compelled to observe in the course of duty.

For Bigger Fair. The C. & N.-W. shops will be closed tomorrow and the railroad men and their families will make merry with the rest of Catawba folks. A telephone message from Newton today said that the Fidelity Hosey Mills of that place were closed down today in order that their employees might attend the fair, and the management appreciated the courtesy. Everybody has taken a greater interest in the event this year than usual, and everybody is saying that there ought to be large grounds, buildings and an enclosure for next fall. It is more than likely that a movement will be begun right away for a permanent location and the movement pushed through the spring and summer to a successful conclusion. Everybody is for it. And everybody is for enlarging the scope.

Republicans Make Gains Woman Suffrage Loses In Elections Yesterday

(By Associated Press.) Elections in ten states yesterday emphatically defeated woman suffrage in New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts, and the Republicans elected their ticket in New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts.

In Kentucky both parties claim a victory in the gubernatorial contest. Stanley, Democrat, has a majority of 9,000 over Morrow, Republican, on incomplete returns.

Mississippi, the only other state to elect a governor, went Democratic. In New York former Governor William S. Bennett was elected from the twenty-third district to succeed a Democrat. The Republicans carried the two other congressional districts.

In New York the Republicans retained their control in the lower house, although they lost one member. In addition to defeating the suffrage amendment by about 210,000 votes, the proposed constitution drafted by a convention of which Elihu Root was president was lost by a safe majority.

Samuel W. McCall, a Republican, defeated David I. Walsh, a Democrat, of Massachusetts, for governor by a plurality of 6,653. The Republicans retained control of the Massachusetts legislature.

The Republicans were returned to power in Philadelphia, where their candidate was elected mayor by 35,000.

In New Jersey the Republicans gained a state senator and a member of the assembly and will continue in power in both houses of the legislature.

Statewide prohibition lost in Ohio. The Republicans elected their mayors in Toledo and Cleveland. The city of Toledo will take over the control of all electric street railways and lights. The proposal was defeated in Detroit.

President Silent. Washington, Nov. 3.—No comment was made at the white house on the result of the elections yesterday nor woman suffrage.

BOTH CLAIMING IT (By Associated Press.) Louisville, Ky., Nov. 3.—With returns from nine counties still missing Democrats claim Stanley had been elected by 8,000, while Republicans said Morrow had a safe majority, possibly 5,000.

It flew. Hundreds of people will admit it. There was no jester in the advertisement that two aeroplane flights would be made daily during the three days of the Catawba County Fair.

Hundreds of people watched the birdman ascend and thousands saw him in the air, heard the burring of his motors, saw him in his various evolutions and watched him until he descended. Flights will be given twice tomorrow and twice Friday.

GEORGE NOT SO WELL. (By Associated Press.) London, Nov. 3.—The condition of King George, who was injured at the French front by a fall from his horse, was not so good today, though his general condition was reported better. He is able to take solid food.

FRENCH REPULSE A BULGARIAN ATTACK

(By Associated Press.) Paris, Nov. 3.—Announcement was made at the war office today of the repulse of a Bulgarian attack on French troops at Kivolak.

GREENSBORO GIRL IS KILLED BY A TRAIN (By Associated Press.) Greensboro, Nov. 3.—Southern Railway northbound passenger train No. 44 this morning struck and instantly killed Nellie Wright, 11 years old, who was walking along the track at Rudd, north of Greensboro. She endeavored to climb an embankment, but slid back on the track just as the train approached.

Mr. L. F. Long of Newton was a Hickory visitor yesterday.

HINDENBURG IS FORCED TO RETREAT

(By Associated Press.) Berlin, Nov. 3.—The war office announced today that Field Marshal von Hindenburg had been forced to withdraw his line between Swenton and Ilsan lake on the northern end of the Russian front.

Mr. F. A. Cline and Mr. Gwyn Lenoir of Yadkin Valley are in the city for the fair.

AMERICAN'S UNIQUE PLAN FOR RELIEF

(By Associated Press.) The Hague, Netherlands, Nov. 3.—The "tally ho!" of a coach horn, blown by an American, calls out the people of the villages in the vicinity of The Hague two or three times a week just now, as a well-equipped four-in-hand swings along the roads, the team also "tooled" by an American. It is for the war which is responsible for this unaccustomed sight in Holland. The entire proceeds of the coaching trips are handed over to various societies for the relief of refugees from Belgium and other non-combatants of all nationalities rendered necessitous by the hostilities in progress in the neighboring countries. The coach itself is appropriately named "Relief."

The idea was worked out by Marshall Langhorne, secretary of the American legation and some colleagues. He one day found a mail-coach relapsing into decadence in a livery stable. The sight of it took his mind back to the old coach-days in Virginia, and, as he soon afterwards met Aurel Batonyi, the American "whip" who had just come through from relief work in Belgium, the idea of coaching in aid of relief work and at the same time combining with it an element of sport was born instantly.

A four-in-hand team was got together after much search and was soon worked into shape, and the trips began—first to summer resorts in the near vicinity and then extending to Leyden and Haarlem and other far-off cities. Relay teams were sought and found available at convenient stages and now the coach runs regularly with either Mr. Langhorne or Mr. Batonyi holding the reins—all the receipts from the "relief" going to the relief of non-combatants, while the parents of the idea themselves defray the expenses and in return get not only their snort but the knowledge of doing a good turn to deserving people.

GERMANS DENY ANY PEACE PROPOSALS

(By Associated Press.) Madrid, Nov. 3.—Formal denial was made in a statement at the German embassy that von Buelow intends to discuss possible peace terms here and in Washington. A dispatch several days ago said he was in Switzerland, where he was said to have been sent by his government to discuss peace terms.

ALBERT LUTZ WINS PRIZE AS BEST CLOWN

That Mr. Albert Lutz knew exactly what he was doing when he aged his way into the float of the Philathea class of the Methodist Sunday school all will insist when they read that he was awarded the five dollar check given by Mr. James Villas for the best clown. The contrast was so marked between the young ladies and the clown that the committee spotted him from the start. And Mr. Lutz was the best of the three clowns in the parade, the majority of people will admit, and they will also admit the verdict of Messrs. W. X. Reid, W. W. Wheeler and H. L. Yoder. The committee burdened with the responsibility of naming the prettiest girl in the parade had not reached a verdict this afternoon. There were so many glorious girls to select from that anybody might pause. And that is what Messrs. J. D. Elliott, K. C. Menzies and S. L. Whitener were doing this afternoon. They admitted it. They will announce the result as soon as an agreement is reached, and some young lady can claim a ten-dollar gold piece left at the Record office by Col. Robert Ransom.

VILLA LEAVING AGUA PRIETA TODAY

(By Associated Press.) Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 3.—General Villa, forced by hunger and a scanty supply of ammunition to abandon his plan for an immediate assault on Agua Prieta, commenced withdrawing his army today, and shortly after 9 o'clock most of his army was making its way towards Anaaca pass, twelve miles southwest.

A Calles reconnoitering party of 40 or 50 men ran into a Villa machine gun and was cut to pieces, according to American observers today. Only five or six men returned to the city. Villa's forces suffered severely in the march across the desert of Mexico, and were said to be almost exhausted after their two days' assault of the fortified border town.

Fresh troops are reported north of Gardia pass, heading for Agua Prieta. A brief attack was made early last night on Calles' outworks, but firing early ceased, but it was expected that fighting would be renewed some time today.

Damage by Villa's artillery on the day of the assault on Agua Prieta was not noticeable.

MAY CROSS BORDER

(By Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 3.—President Wilson and Secretary Garrison are considering whether to authorize General Funston to cross the border if he finds it necessary to do so in order to check Mexican raids.

Secretary Garrison today refused to confirm or deny that General Funston had asked for such authority and the white house also was silent. The latest reports from Douglas said that the Villa forces were withdrawing toward Nogales from the attack on Agua Prieta.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY MAKES GREAT HIT

"The Colonel's Maid," a rich comedy, was presented to perfection by Hickory high school students in the Hub theatre last night before an audience that filled the auditorium and applauded its pleasure. It would be impossible to name the "stars" in the cast, as each one did so well.

The characters were as follows:

Characters. Colonel Robert Rudd, a widower of N. C.; Colonel Richard Byrd, a widower of S. C., mortally antagonistic, Glen Frye, H. S. Bost, respectively. Marjorie Byrd, Bob Rudd, not so antagonistic as their respective fathers, Mary Abernethy, Ewart Huffman, Mrs. J. John Carroll, a widow, and Colonel Rudd's sister-in-law, Oneta Miller. Julia Carroll, her daughter, Sadie Whitener, Ned Graydon, a young gentleman of exceedingly faulty memory, Hilton Bowles, Mr. James Baskom, Colonel Rudd's lawyer, Robt. Garth, Ching-ah-ling, the Chinese cook, a bit impertinent, but by far the most important individual in the cast, Carl Clonk, Time, the present. Costumes, modern. Synopsis: Act I—Early morning in the kitchen of the Rudd bachelor establishment. Act II—The Rudd library, five days later. Act III—The same. Evening of the same day.

COLONEL YODER A VISITOR

Col. Geo. N. Yoder, who is nearing his 90th birthday, was an interesting visitor to the Record office today. During the last few years, the colonel has taken to a typewriter, and for the last year has done all his writing and correspondence on a machine. His hand is as steady and his eyes as good as ever, however, and he picked up the keyboard from a desire to learn to operate the last few years.
