Mrs. S. H. Farabee returned this afternoon from a visit to relatives at Raleigh.

Miss Frances Geitner who has been a student at St. Mary College Raleigh returned home yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. John F. Joy and two children left today on a two weeks' visit to relatives and friends in lower Catawba and Lincoln counties. They made the trip in a buggy.

With Mrs. Abernethy. The Wednesday Afternoon Bridge club was delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. F. A. Abernethy. For making the highest score Mrs. Hugh D'Anna was presented with the prize. Refreshments were served after the game. Those playing were Mesdames E. L. Shuford, J. H. Hatcher, E. Chadwick, E. A. Taylor, O. M. Royster, J. Mack Holland, Gastonia, J. B. Beard, A. Wezen, J. L. Riddle, Hugh D'Anna, W. J. Shuford, L. W. Clay, Richard Parker of Murphy, H. C. Menzies, and Walker Lyerly.

For Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan. One of the most elegant social affairs of the season was an eight-course dinner given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh S. D'Anna in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ronda C. Buchanan. At the beautifully appointed table with snow white cloth and centerpiece of sweet peas and lilies of the valley, places were laid for 12. Mr. Bascom Blackwelder was toast master of the evening. The hostess was gowned in green taffeta with overdress of silver lace. The guest of honor was lovely in a gown of Robin egg blue with black over dress with corsage of orchids. Mr. and Mrs. D'Anna's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. George Lyerly, Mr. and Mrs. Bascom Blackwelder, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McKorie.

Let Well Enough Alone Why a man just back from the Mexican border should arrive with a new European war story is not to be explained here, but the story which Bob West of Cincinnati brought with him excuses any inconsistency, says the New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Times-Star. Two Irish soldiers are retreating before a brisk German advance, when one of them is wounded in the leg. "Up on me shoulders, Pat," says the second. "O'll do me best for ye." "Leave me be," replies the fallen man. "O'll take me chances here." "Up, man!" urges the unwounded soldier. "O'll carry yez t' safety." "Foine enough that sounds," replies the wounded man, "and sensible y'are to propose ut. I'd get a couple more bullets in me back an' you'd get th' Victoria Cross."

CONCERT TOUR (By the Associated Press) Berlin, May 25.—One of the unique activities of the war, an extended concert tour along the Hindenburg section of the German east front, has just come to a close after what one might term an extraordinarily successful engagement. A Russian offensive of almost unprecedented severity and bitterness failed to disturb the project in any material way. The tour was made by a group of distinguished musicians from Berlin, Dresden and other centers. It was conducted at the request of the field marshal himself. Both soldiers in the fighting lines and invalids in the hospitals behind the front shared equally the pleasures of the concerts. The leader of the tour, the well known Prof. von Weikowsky, of Biedau, has been in the field as a Red Cross delegate since the beginning of the war.

BANQUET CLOSSES FINAL DAY LENOIR

The final number of commencement week at Lenoir college was the alumni banquet Wednesday evening when a large company of sons and daughters of the institution and a number of invited guests sat down to a banquet prepared by the young ladies in the domestic science department. The fare was wholesome and tastily served, the young ladies acquitting themselves in a manner to draw the praises of the men.

Mr. A. A. Whitener, for the past 16 years president of the alumni association, acted as toastmaster, and a number of short talks were made. Mr. D. L. Russell, elected president at the business session, introduced the speakers and at the close of the meeting made a rousing talk in favor of unity of purpose among the members. Mr. John J. George of Cherryville was elected alumni speaker.

Dr. Longaker, who had just been elected vice president of the college, received an unusually warm welcome, and it indicated the esteem in which his first year at the institution had inspired for him.

Short talks were made by Mayor S. L. Whitener, Editors Farabee and Berkley, Mr. D. L. Russell, President Fritz and Mr. George. Dr. Fritz stated that $25,500 of the $100,000 endowment had been pledged and that the canvass was continuing. He outlined briefly his hopes for a greater Lenoir College and declared his belief that the union of the Tennessee and North Carolina synods would mean larger things for the institution.

Professor Morgan struck a popular chord when he moved that the banquets rise out of respect to the family of the late Dr. R. A. Yoder, whose widow and several children were present yesterday evening. All six of the Yoder children have graduated at Lenoir, the last one securing his diploma yesterday. Dr. Yoder himself was active in supporting the institution.

HICKORY BOY MAKES FINE RECORD AT COLLEGE Mr. Frank E. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Allen had the distinction of leading his class at Lenoir College the closing season and his valedictory was pronounced to be one of the finest efforts in the history of the institution. In addition he was awarded the P. O. Carpenter prize for his studies in economics. Mr. Allen expects to continue his literary work at the state university in the fall, and his friends are sure he will measure up to the high standard set by Lenoir graduates who have gone to that institution.

SHAKESPEARE'S BIRTHPLACE (By Associated Press.) Stratford-on-Avon, May 25.—Shakespeare's birthplace was visited by only about 23,000 persons during the past year as compared with 37,000 in the preceding year, and approximately 50,000 in years of peace. The diminution of visitors from America was most marked, only 254 having signed the register album as against 8,000 the year preceding and an average of over 11,000 during the five years prior to the war. The pressure of the war also brought about a reduction in the number of admissions to Anne Hathaway's cottage and New Place.

Sorrow Lessened "Are you glad your daughter took lessons in fancy cooking?" "Rather. It makes me more reconciled than it was to the idea of her marrying and leaving home."—Washington Star.
