WILL BACK PRESIDENT

Complications as thick as molasses are likely to arise as the result of the German submarine raid off the North Atlantic coast this week. President · Wilson, in a statement issued at Long Branch, declared that "the German government will be held to a complete fulfilment of its promises to the United States," meaning that the American government will hold Germany to a strict accountability for the loss of American lives.

The very fact however, that American torpedo boats followed so near the German submarines as almost to hamper them in the destruction of unarmed vessels will be proof to the Brit'sh and French governments that the United States, although not intending to do it, was aiding their enemy in crippling them, They can argue with a good deal of reason that German commanders, knowing that the sea was alive with torpedo boats, could strike with impunity, with the assurance that the neutral boats would pick up the passengers and In other words, the British and French governments probably will contend that risks were assumed by the Germans that would not have been assumed had they not known the neutral ships were handy.

The American government should get its facts straight this time, and if it has been imposed on, if the rights have been violated, its citizens murdered on the high seas, it ought to strike before the iron grows cold. It won't need any better lesson than will be given in such a case. Mr. Wilson has indicated what might be expected, and he will find the country back of him in upholding the rights of Americans.

The Dollar Day edition is out, but it would be well for every person to ho'd on to his copy until he has gone over every advertisement carefully.

INDICATES WILSON

The New York Herald's presidential poll shows Wilson "making gains in fiercely contested race," according to the headlines in that paper.

The figures published by the Herald show that New York, long claimed as a Hughes state, is in the doubtful column and that the race for president is neck and neck in the na-The Herald's forecast indicates Mr.

Hughes is losing and Mr. Wilson gaining, and the Democrats will take courage from the fact. The Herald, it might be added, is supporting Mr. Hughes.

FIRE PREVENTION

Monday was fire prevention day in North Carolina and most states, and cit'zens are urged to take special heed. Now is the season of the year when fires are being made in stoves and grates, when the danger of setting the house afire greater than at any time of the year -because the accumulations of the summer have remained in the flues. Flues should be cleaned and inspect-

Rubbish should be removed from garrets and basements. The home or business place should be cleaned up.

Now is the best time to do that.

Both the Charlotte News and the Observer are doing their city a good turn by emphasizing the need for a change in the form of government that will give Charlotte more action and less confusion. The mayor-aldermanic rows should not occur, but as long as that city has an unwieldy form of government, it cannot expect to have municipal machinery run smoothly.

Georgia, Vanderbilt and Carolina would defeat Virginia if the Old Dominion should not call for reserves; but Virginia will fortify herself against these teams, and in the next day or two four or five of last year's stars will be on hand.

By some it is believed that the German submarine raid off the United States will strengthen Mr. Wilson, and by others that it will weaken him. If we knew all the facts, we could make a guess too.
