ATHENS IS NOW AFTER DAY OF TERROR

Royalists and Venizelists Exchange Shots, Entente Troops are Fired Upon and Two Hundred Greeks are Killed or Wounded Before Constantine Yields to Demands.

(By Associated Press.)

London, Dec. 2 .- After a day of terrer in Athens, in which Venizelists fought royalists and Greek troops fired upon entente forces which had been landed, according to the admiral of the entente fleet, to maintain order a truce was declared.

King Constantine finally agreed to corrender the mountain guns to the illies and the latter are withdrawing their troops except a small guard. Disturbances began as soon as the allied troops were landed. Greek troops fired on the entente troops, while reservists and Venizelists exchanged shots on the streets.
