USING THE CANAL

(By Associated Press) Panama, Jan. 2.—Two new lines started the use of the Panama canal on December 19. The "Waimana" of the line operated by Shaw, Savill, and Albion, Ltd., of London, bound for London from Australia is the first of the fleet, all of which will make their homeward voyages by way of the canal; and it is possible that they will use the canal on their outward voyages, instead of going by way of the Cape of Good Hope. The other ship was the "Roepat," first of the fleet of the newly established New York-Java line.

MRS. JAS. B. BEARD DIED THIS AFTERNOON

Mrs. James B. Beard, beloved of all Hickory, died this afternoon at 12:45 at her residence on Ninth avenue following an illness of several months. She is 64 years old, is survived by an older brother, Mr. Al Morgan of Murphy, and several nieces and nephews, including Miss Josie Person, who lived with Mrs. Beard. The funeral probably will be held Thursday from the Church of the Ascension, the deceased having been a lifelong communicant of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. Beard has taught a private school here for more than 15 years and was not only known and admired by the older people, but by scores of children, who had come under her sweet influence. She possessed an unusually bright intellect, was thoughtful of others and her popularity was universal in Hickory. A native of Petersburg, Va., Mrs. Beard, who was Miss Lou Morgan, was married late in life to James B. Beard, who died 15 years ago. Miss Mona Harris of Charlotte, a niece, arrived last night to be with her.

News of Mrs. Beard's death will be a shock to her friends, very few of whom knew she was critically ill.

THE BABE

I greet the Babe with hope renewed With courage and a prayer, Time will make the soon a thewed A man of worldly care, Thy sparkling eyes will soon grow dim Yes soon an aged man, So while they life is full of vim Be a leader and a van.

Dear Babe with locks of golden hair With eyes that make me dream, With not a thought of toil and care To dim thy flickering gleam, I offer thee a welcome hand Into my home today, To help me—make me—understand How time has rolled away. —EWART HUFFMAN.

FIRE DESTROYS HOUSE IN WINDY CITY TODAY

Fire which is thought to have originated in the ceiling as the result of a defective flue totally destroyed the four-room cottage of Mr. Alex McCree in Windy City, a suburb about 10 o'clock this morning. The Hickory fire department responded, not so much in the hope of being able to stop this blaze as to save other property if it should be menaced. Mr. McCree had recently purchased the house. The amount of insurance was not learned.

RUMANIANS ARE BUYING MUNITIONS IN JAPAN

(By Associated Press.) Tokio—While everybody in Tokio was awaiting news as to the fate of Bucharest, a Rumanian mission arrived here to negotiate the purchase of munitions. It includes two officers, Lieutenant-Colonel C. Felix and Colonel F. Petresco of the engineering corps. They said the fall of Bucharest would by no means end the Rumanian campaign. "Our natural line of defense lies east and northeast of the capital," they said. "The rapid offensive of the central powers may give them temporary advantage but the Rumanians entered in this war to stay and we will be in it at the finish." The speaker believed it was now a question of reinforcements arriving for both sides. The Russians who were coming to Rumania's assistance have an open territory to cover while the Germans have a difficult mountainous country through which they must transport their artillery and bring reinforcements. He declared that already about 500,000 Russian troops were in Rumania and that additional reinforcements were arriving daily.

The present output of munitions in Japan is practically all taken by Russia, but it is likely that something will be done for the Rumanians. The visit of the Rumanian officers has been followed by a further rise in the price of war supplies.

LONGER SKIRTS AND SHORTER SHOES ARE URGED

(By Associated Press.) London, Jan. 2.—Lengthen the skirts and shorten the shoes as another war-time economy, was the plea made in parliament the other day. The member told of going through the fashionable quarter of London's shopping district and finding women's footwear selling for from $10 to $15 a pair, the average length of the uppers being from ten to sixteen inches. He found some as high as 22 inches.

MORE WARRANTS OUT

That the ten negro boys arrested during Tuesday for shooting Bob Wilson and another Newton negro as they were riding around with two Hickory colored girls were no more than cat's paws is the belief of the officers, who have warrants out for four negro women and as many negro men. When Chief Lentz rounds up the crowd, there will be a spicy trial before the recorder.

AMERICANS, ON BOARD TORPEDOED SHIP, BACK

New York, Jan. 2.—One hundred and twelve men who were on the American steamships torpedoed and sunk by German submarines in European waters arrived here on the Spanish steamer Alicante, from Barcelona.

Seventy-nine were on board the Columbian, attacked last November on a voyage from France to Italy. Thirty-three escaped when the Chemung went down off Cape Gata, Spain, in the same month.
