ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 3, 1917

ANNOUNCEMENT

Owing to the high cost of materials that enter into the manufacture of a newspaper, the Record is compelled to make uniform charges for certain classes of advertisements that heretofore have been printed for practically nothing, if not free.

STUDYING THE FUTURE

The suggestion has been put forward that the new emperor of Austria, after all, is responsible for the German peace proposals, though it must not be forgotten that whisperings of peace have followed every big move on the battle-fields.

TO PROTECT PUBLIC

A gate and watchman at the railroad crossing east of the depot are needed. Sometimes traffic is blocked for a few minutes, as when a freight train lingers by, and then a stream of humanity pours across the track.

Jesse E. Clark, formerly editor of the Raleigh Times, later managing editor of the Charlotte Observer and until recently news editor of the Raleigh News and Observer, has gravitated back to the Times, his first infatuation. He is a good boy and we wish him well.

The Record will have good reports on the legislature. The paper will pay something extra for the news, but it feels that its subscribers are due every consideration possible.

If Senator Overman succeeds in getting his resolution through the senate to learn how and why Cuba got those repudiated bonds, he probably will turn up the same old cooney with yet another ring around his tail.

The British government so far as one is able to learn is the only belligerent to publish casualty lists, though German officials are prompt enough to make estimates for the other fellows.

Greece is getting it in the neck, but probably not as hard as if she had entered the war.

If any member of President Wilson's administration did make a haul on inside information, nobody will be happier to see them kicked out than the president.

The election of Walter Murphy of Rowan as speaker of the house, a position he has held aforesaid, comes as welcome news to his hosts of friends in this section.

Senator Stone and Tom Lawson, experts in their line, have showed each other, and who will be so bold as to contradict either? The senator refers to the Bostonian as "the bellows of this ass," and Lawson calls Stone a "cheap, dirt-mucker pup."

All Hickory was saddened at the news of the death of Mrs. J. B. Beard. To know her was to love her, and there are few people in this city who have not come under the influence of her sweet personality.

We don't suppose the general assembly, in view of what the supreme court has held, will care to stand another fight soon with the railroads over passenger rates.

We do not pretend to know so much about the causes of the war, but we do know that many a fellow, after starting a fight, finds it hard to stop.

Sunsets are fit objects to admire, but the sunrise Tuesday morning was about as grand a spectacle as one witnesses in a life-time.

It is only a question of time before the Southern will be double-tracked between Asheville and Salisbury. This division does the business.

Some of these sand-clay roads are not what they used to be, but it is not the fault of the roads.

A new enterprise every day or two. The new year is starting off right.

ACCUSES THE RAILROADS OF PURPOSELY DELAYING TRAINS

Cleveland, O., Jan. 3.—W. G. Lee, chief of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, issued a statement here charging that the railroads of the country are permitting delays to trains and overtime which would not ordinarily be permitted in order to prove the enormous expense that would follow obedience to the Adamson law.

SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE IN WEST HICKORY

Under and by virtue of the power and authority vested in the undersigned trustee by that certain deed of trust executed by Kelly Mosteller and Maggie Mosteller, his wife, to secure a loan from the First Building and Loan Association of Hickory, the same bearing date of 26th day of January 1916, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Catawba county in Book 123, page 382, to which reference is hereby made, default having been made in complying with the terms and stipulations therein contained, I will sell at public auction, for cash, in front of the First National Bank of Hickory, in the city of Hickory, the place designated for such sale, at 12 o'clock noon, on Saturday, the 6th day of January, 1917, the following lot of land to wit:

Situate near the R. P. Dakin residence property in the town of West Hickory, and being Lot No. 43 of a plat of town lots, West Hickory, property of H. F. Elliott and was conveyed by H. F. Elliott and wife to Kelly Mosteller by deed dated January 24th, 1916.

The said lot No. 43 has a frontage of 50 feet on Elliott avenue, a depth of 220 feet on the west side, width in rear of 127 feet, and has a depth on the east side of 205 feet. For a more particular description of said lot reference is hereby made to the aforesaid plat as the same appears on record in the office of the Register of Deeds for Catawba county in book of plats No. 1, page 15.

This the 6th day of December, 1916. G. R. WOOTEN, Trustee. BASCOM BLACKWELDER, Atty.

Start Saving With New Year. You doubtless want to save money and in fact expect to save money some day, but have put off making a start. The easiest way is through a Savings Account. There is no other system as flexible or as convenient. You do not have to make a deposit every week, or at any certain time, you can deposit any time. When you have the money is the best time. You do not have to wait a certain time to draw it out, you can get it any time, and it draws interest right along. Many a great fortune has been founded on a Savings Account, and we have a large number running into thousands of dollars that were opened with only a small sum. FIRST NATIONAL BANK Capital and Surplus $300,000.00. Hickory, N. C. Four Per Cent. Interest On Savings Accounts, Compounded Quarterly. Money to Loan at All Times.

The Way To Win Byron said, "The best of prophets of the future is the past." No ambitious individual can afford to ignore the precepts and examples of those who have demonstrated that industrious saving is the sure foundation for financial success. Start the New Year with a Savings Account; it will be a source of constant inspiration to effect many small economies. You will be made welcome here.
