MATTIE ANSWERED PRESENT

In Memory of Mrs. Mattie Fox For many weeks the father called, "Mattie, come to glory! Because an angel on earth has strolled, To find some smiling roses.

But, Mattie said just wait awhile, For I am not quite ready, I want to know before I smile, What about little Louise and my baby.

Mattie's friends came in to chat, And give her words of pleasure, But many times she said to that, I shall soon part this life forever.

Then the Angel grew tired of waiting, And looked back toward the city, And said, My Lord, I'll soon be flitting, With a mother's tender smile and greeting.

Then the Angel came into the room, And said, Mattie are you ready? The Lord will provide for the children soon, And bring them home to Mattie.

And behind the hills the sun went down, For the sabbath had almost ended And Mattie said with a smile so round, This night will surely be the kindest.

Then a noise the husband heard, So soft and so tender, And to the bed with steps he sped, To get the last remembrance, Cold in death in his arms she lay, Innocent smiling mother, For the angel had taken her soul away, To God and heaven forever.

Composed by L. P. Smith, pastor of West Hickory Baptist church.

EX-PRESIDENT TAFT FAVORS THE PRESIDENT'S POSITION

Bangor, Maine, Jan. 26.—Former President Taft in an address here last night declared that President Wilson's recent address to the senate was "an epoch in the history of our foreign policy" and that his advocacy of our participation in a world league was a most powerful aid to its formation. Mr. Taft said he was in cordial sympathy with the president's insistence that the United States cannot join a world movement to preserve a peace which is unjust and contains in its unfair terms assurance of its temporary character."

THE ENEMY OF URIC ACID IS ANURIC

(By L. H. Smith, M. D.)
In spite of the best care one takes of oneself, any part of the human machine is liable to become out of order. The most important organs are the stomach, heart and kidneys. The kidneys are the scavengers and they work day and night in separating the poisons from the blood. Their signals of distress are easily recognized and include such symptoms as backache, depressions, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic twinges, dropsy, gout.

The very best way to restore the kidneys to their normal state is to drink plenty of pure water and obtain a small amount of Anuric, which is dispensed by most every druggist. Anuric (double strength) is inexpensive and should be taken before meals. It is much more potent than lithia and many find that Anuric dissolves uric acid as water does sugar.

People are realizing more and more every day that the kidneys, just as do the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are a constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Under this continual and perpetual action they are apt to congest, and then trouble starts. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy, and many other serious disturbances. It means that you are a victim to uric acid poisoning! Then ask your druggist for Anuric, which was first discovered by Dr. Pierce of the Surgical Institute in Buffalo, and which is dispensed by nearly every druggist in the land. adv

THEATREGOERS OF HICKORY TO SEE "FLORA BELLA"

Many people from Hickory and surrounding territory are planning to visit Charlotte Saturday to attend the performances of the New York Casino theatre musical comedy success "Flora Bella", which will be staged in the Academy of Music for matinee and night performances. With Florence Webber, the noted prima donna appearing in the title role, supported by a cast of 50 people.

Here is something really refreshing, appealing to the eye and ear and quite magnetic. In face "Flora Bella" is an offering that stands out as much above the average musical comedy of recent times. The libretto is by Felix Doermann, revised and adapted by Cosmo Hamilton and Dorothy Donnelly, while the lyrics are by Percy Waxman and the score by Charles Cuvillier, composer of "The Lila Domino," and Milton Schwarzwald. Surprising as it may seem the story is neither superfluous nor so petty as to be an affront to the ear. It has a genuine, unbackneyed situation. The characters are people and not walking dummies. The comedy is plausible and the dialogue funny. What is still more astonishing, the lyrics assure you they were written by a man who had been to school, and do not produce in the listener the illusion of a bad Channel crossing. Then it has one of the most sparkling and lively scores, musically and not over-orchestrated. Then again, "Flora Bella" is charmingly mounted.

The cast of principals will include: Gabrielle Gray, Rhoda Nichols, Marion Dyer, Mildred Shelley, John J. Wearney, John Phillips, Russell Lennon.

ISLAND RECALLS TREASON

Columbus Dispatch.
In the channel of the Ohio river, 15 miles west of Marietta, lies an island that takes its name from the fact that Harmon Blennerhassett, who became involved in the reasonable enterprise of Aaron Burr in the southwest, owned the major part of it at one time and there had his home when he was placed under arrest with Burr.

The island is an extensive one, and contains originally about 300 acres. It was once the property of President Washington. Blennerhassett purchased 170 acres of the island while on a tour of investigation in America, and, being of a romantic turn of mind, he determined to bring his wife to that then remote place and make it their home.

He erected a mansion and laid out part of the island in parklike form. His plans were wrecked by the discovery of the Burr conspiracy, though it was never fully proved that Blennerhassett realized the serious character of the enterprise in which he had joined Burr. Military forces sent out to break up the movement burned the Blennerhassett home, and the place was never restored.

Under the judicial ruling that Virginia, when it ceded its claims to the territory northwest of the Ohio river retained jurisdiction to the lower water mark on the Ohio shore, all of the island lies in West Virginia now and is a part of Wood county.

The soil of the island having been deposited as alluvium is very fertile and the farm value of the land is high. But Blennerhassett obtained the portion of it that he owned for only $4,500.

Though born in England, Blennerhassett was of Irish descent. He died in poverty in England in 1821 at 87 years old. Neither he nor Burr was ever punished for the conspiracy charged against them.

HENRY LINK

Henry Link was a son of Jacob Link, who married Catharine Rudisill, a daughter of pioneer Michael Rudisill, who came from the southern Rhine country of Germany. The home of Henry Link was in Catawba county on Henry Fork river, a few miles above Hickory. Here he owned a farm. About 1860, or 1861 he moved to the present town of Hickory where he had a boarding house.

The children of Henry Link and wife were: Calvin, died single; Julius and Peter, killed when soldiers in the Confederate army; Sidney, died single; Amidas C., married Etta Ramsaur; Elizabeth, married Joe Aiken; Caroline, married J. W. Raby; Emma married John Fry. Sophia married Albert Abernethy.

Henry Link was an elder in the Reformed church at Bethel when the writer was a boy. He married Catharine Rowe who was a good woman and a loyal member of the Reformed church and a woman of many good deeds. She was given to hospitality. She inherited many of the virtues of her ancestors. In religious work Henry Link had the confidence of all who knew him. Like Enoch of old he walked with his God. He and his wife became members of the Reformed church at Hickory where they died at a good old age. I believe the father and mother of Henry Link were buried there.

The writer began to preach in the Reformed church at Hickory in 1874 and closed his church work there in 1876, and during this time he often stopped with father and mother Link. They encouraged him to lead a good and useful life. Last fall the writer went to the grave yard where they are buried. They have been dead a number of years but they still have a pleasant place in the memory of the writer. They helped him to commune with the good people who have passed away. J. H. SHUFORD.
