ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS

MONDAY, FEB. 5, 1917

WHAT WILL IT MEAN?

The consequences of the president's action in severing diplomatic relations with Germany cannot be foretold at this time.

We believe there is a probability of the German people, who are as good as any people, realizing the extremes their rulers have taken to fight their enemies.

The United States might aid in hastening the end of the war, and it might do this without striking a blow.

ALL AMERICANS HERE Although there are men and women in this community whose sympathies are with the German people in the war.

None is so blind as to be unable to see what the German so-called peace note meant.

The value of a daily newspaper to Hickory was never better realized than on Saturday afternoon.

Bethmann-Hollweg Unmasks Springfield Republican.

It is no longer possible to reserve judgment upon the German chancellor, who has been one of the enigmatic figures of the time.

submarine warfare and the chancellor's defense of it yesterday before the standing committee of the Reichstag, no room is left for this illusion which indeed has never been entertained by those who have studied carefully the chancellor's utterances.

When kindly Americans fancied that he was resisting Tipitiz in the interest of humanity he was only waiting, as he now assures us, till the submarines were ready to unleash.
