the account of the meeting of the prices. Merchants' Association appearing in th's issue. The resolution offered by Mr. J. A. Moretz at the instance of Mr. A. M. West pledging the members to buy everything possible from home merchants and recommending that other organizations take similar action is a step in the direction of a greater Hickory and Catawba counsupports local institutions, builds up are harvested. the town and makes for improve ments in every line.

The Record 's confident that the common-sense of Hickory people will be annealed to by these facts. If we should take the correct business view of the matter, our community should become a great trade

ATTACKING THE CAUSE

Although the Record has been agreeable to splitting the difference as regards what state convicts say they have been subjected to and what the overseers actually claim was the case, this paper can support 'n all seriousness the efforts of those legislators who would provide for the dependents of convicts serving in the penitetiary or at state camps.

The golden age has not been reached outside of the prisons, and it will be some time yet before it penetrates the penal system, but there is no reason why the families of dependent convicts should be made to suffer unnecessarily from the crimes committed by the breadswinners, The state cannot err in making provision for the families of convicts, especially in view of the fact that these dependents not infrequently become public charges, with the result that for a generation or more qualities of independence and reasonable pride are utterly lacking in

The best sort of prison reform is dividing the profits of the criminal. When a state does that, the other ills will not trouble anybody much.

PRESIDENT BISANAR

In electing Mr. Geo. E. Bisanar president of the Merchants' Association for the third consecutive time the members honored an officer who has worked unceasingly for the interests of the organ zation and the upbuilding of Hickory and the community. The fact that h's selection was by acclamation, the fact that the members would not listen to his protests, and the fact that no other person thought of anybody else for the position, show in a measure the appreciation the body has for the energetic and painstaking leader of the past three years The association is in a healthy condition, the members are thoroughly imbued with the spirit of ration and service and with such a spirit the association is bound to grow in numbers and power.

American ships are still clinging to home ports in the hope that the government which says they have a right to traverse the seas will render them aid. There are indications that the ruthless blockade, so far as American ships are concerned, is not so bad, after all, and if the government would make a serious move in the direction of protecting its commerce, it may be that the blockade would be abandoned.
