ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS

THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1917

ATTEND THE MEETING

Hickory people may be able to contribute no great force for the battlefields in Europe, but they can help the nation by producing as much food as possible.

The mass meeting at the Chamber of Commerce tonight will result, it is hoped, in directing the energy in this city and section that is so willing to work.

All of us are going to attend that mass meeting tonight to learn. We want to be as helpful as we can in this emergency; we want to join the other organized agencies in the United States to render service.

LET ROOSEVELT HELP

It is to be hoped that Colonel Roosevelt will be allowed to lead a division into France. No man in the United States, President Wilson probably excepted, is better known than the colonel, and his name and fame would inspire the men of Britain and France to new valor, if such a thing were possible.

The British advance on the 12-mile front south of Arras to south of Lens is on a part of the old German line not abandoned by Hindenburg in his strategic retreats.

For our part we have no sarcasm for Mayor Kirkpatrick of Charlotte. Colonel Kirkpatrick is outspoken and frank and says that which is within him.

Now that Cuba, Panama, Brazil and Argentina have entered the war on the side of United States, there is hope in Catawba county that Representative Webb will side with the American people.

Of course we are hopeful about Russia, but it seems a physical opportunity to accomplish everything in a short time in that immense country.

The sporting pages now will have their share of attention.

Representative Kitchin has begun to lead.

OLD AGE is a blessed time. It gives us leisure to put off our earthly garments one by one and dress ourselves for heaven. But Seneca said: "Nothing is more distasteful than that an old man should have nothing to prove that he has lived long out his years." Half the sting of dependence in our old days comes from the knowledge that our condition is the result of neglected opportunities. Won't you open your SAVINGS ACCOUNT while you are young and prosperous. An old man still poor can never forget how easily he could have saved when he was young.
