His team mates think him a wonder."

Fry-Aiken

Miss Essie Aiken, head nurse of the Richard Baker Hospital here for the past several years, and Mr. Lewis R. Fry, a prosperous and well-known farmer residing in West Hickory, were united in marriage Monday night at the parsonage of the West Hickory Methodist church by Rev. D. F. Carver. The marriage will come as a surprise to many of their friends.

The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. Robert Aiken of Burke county, is an unusually splendid young woman. She secured her training in Dr. Long's Sanatorium at Statesville and has filled acceptably the position of head nurse with Dr. Shuford's hospital in Hickory. Besides being a talented nurse, Mrs. Fry possesses fine personal qualities and is very popular with a host of friends. Mr. Fry, as was said, is a prosperous farmer and is due the congratulations of friends.

METHODIST PHILATHEAS

We had a splendid class Sunday in spite of the downpour of rain. Three visitors were present and we were so glad to have them.

Mrs. W. S. Stroup presented the class with two beautiful sofa pillows. One carried out the Philathea colors and the other was most unique. Scraps left from the T. T. D. D. Sewing Club of last summer were most cleverly used and this pillow will always recall the pleasant afternoons spent with Mrs. Stroup. After the lesson, which was made intensely interesting and personal by our teacher, we had short talks on Red Cross work by Mrs. S. H. Farabee and Mrs. J. M. Whitfield. We are hoping to have a First Aid class in our class. The subject will be discussed again next Sunday and every member is urged to be present. REPORTER.

MCCORKLE HELD IN $1,000 FOR SECOND DEGREE MURDER

Newton, May 1.—After a tedious trial yesterday D. S. McCorkle, who shot and killed L. B. Nichols at Lookout dam several weeks ago, was held in the sum of $1,000 for superior court on charge of second degree murder. While the plea of self-defense was pretty clearly developed, the fact that the defendant and the deceased both carried guns that day and had a quarrel previous to the shooting, influenced Judge Sigmon to find probable cause. A. A. Whitener, represented the defendant, and Solicitor Shuford was assisted by Wilson Warlick.

The evidence developed showed that the McCorkle's younger brother was sent to get some long hooks, and Nichols prevented him getting them, pulling a gun on him. The elder McCorkle then went, and pulled his gun on Nichols, and got the hooks. Nichols saying that since McCorkle had the drop on him, he could do anything, but he'd see him later. An hour and a half later, he advanced on McCorkle, with his gun in his hand, saying he was ready then, for McCorkle to get his gun and they would shoot it out. McCorkle reached for his gun and Nichols shot. Whether he shot more than once witnesses could not say, as the shots followed in such quick succession. Nichols was hit twice, in the abdomen and head, and either shot, according to medical testimony, would have killed him.

TWO TICKETS IN FIELD FOR MAYOR OF NEWTON

The Newton Enterprise says: Mayor George A. Warlick was nominated in the municipal mass meeting held Saturday night, receiving 75 votes to 66 cast for W. A. Rhyne. Mr. Rhyne was put in nomination by R. R. Moose, but Mr. Rhyne took no part in the meeting, having announced several weeks ago that he was a candidate before the voters on election day, and yesterday he stated that he was still a candidate, and would run until the polls closed next Monday evening. While very well attended, the meeting lacked a good many of the total number of citizens; and after the mayoralty vote, the crowd thinned out rapidly.

Alderman R. Caldwell, was renominated, and two new men, J. W. Killian and D. M. Cloninger, were nominated for the board.

Dr. J. A. Young and S. T. Gaddy were nominated for school commissioners.

W. C. Feimster presided over the meeting and David Gaitner was secretary.

Only one ticket is in the field in the municipal campaign at Conover but it is whispered around that there will be another one. The nominees of the recent mass meeting are: For mayor, Preston E. Yount, incumbent; for aldermen: Dr. H. B. Hemmeter, L. E. Hunsucker, B. A. Huit, Dr. F. L. Herman, J. Pierce Yount. For school commissioners: C. R. Brady, S. S. Rowe and H. D. Sease.

The Maiden people will nominate their ticket in a mass meeting tomorrow night. Mayor B. A. Whitener isn't running, he says, but he will serve if the folks want him.

SPECIAL AT PASTIME TODAY

The following is a short synopsis of the Red Feather photoplay "Me and Me Pal" which will be shown at the Pastime this afternoon and tonight:

"Me and Me Pal" is a clever story portraying the adventures of an artist who had a very good opinion of himself, but who did not seem to make much headway with his art. His uncle, recognizing the fact decided that he should give it up and do some real work. The artist refuses and his allowance is discontinued forthwith. Conspired by force of circumstances to "make good" he shows the true worth of the man in him. How he makes good is very entertaining and is filled with comedy and pathos, and shows how a little kindness extended now and then has a far-reaching effect and makes men of those who otherwise might become human derelicts.

BASE BALL SUIT DROPPED

The baseball suit for $60 gate receipts alleged to be wrongfully withheld from Catawba college by Lenoir college, Hickory, did not come up yesterday for trial, and is said to have been dropped. Wilson Warlick representing the local college, yesterday withdrew from the case, as well as other attorneys who had offered their services gratis. According to reports, no payment had been made. The trustees of each school decided the thing had gone far enough. Newton Enterprise.

CATAWBA COUNTY FOOD COMMISSION ORGANIZE

Newton, May 1.—The Catawba county food commission was organized yesterday in the office of Supt. Geo. E. Long of the county schools when Chairman Osborne Brown of the commissioners, County Agent Mask, Miss Mary Rowe, home demonstrator, and J. Y. Killian, member of the legislature, met, in response to an appeal from the state food commission and Governor Bickett. Every county in being organized along these lines for promoting production of the great essential crops and for the conservation of every available bit of food and feed. A second meeting will be held next Monday at 12:30, when one man from every school district will be appointed to a place on the commission. The citizens of the county are urged to join hands and promote the doctrine of more rations for men and beast. North Carolina and the south generally, which spend 700 millions a year for food and feed raised in other sections, have been told plainly that unless they produce their own rations this year, they will go hungry, for the immense stores of the middle west will go to Europe.

Mr. Brown was named chairman of the commission and Mr. Mask secretary. A large attendance of citizens is hoped for next Monday at 12:30.
