RED CROSS NOW HAS NEARLY 400 MEMBERS

The Hickory Red Cross auxiliary added 211 members in the campaign that was begun last week and closed Monday night and now the membership is 379. The ladies worked hard and as a result Hickory has a large, working class.

The work room in the Hutton and Council building on Tenth Avenue is open every afternoon at 2 o'clock and it is hoped that all who can sew or stitch will communicate with Mrs. W. B. Council, chairman, and decide on the days they can be present. At least a dozen are wanted each afternoon, but the ladies can take turns and divide the work.

Mrs. Council has placed four sewing machines in the work room and will add two more this week. A dozen more chairs are needed also.

LAIL AGAIN CAUGHT BRINGING IN LIQUOR

Carl Lail has been caught with the goods again. Under a bond of $500 for his appearance before Recorder Russell to answer to the charge of transporting 14 gallons of Burke county liquor to Hickory, he returned to the job Tuesday afternoon and was picked up late in the afternoon by Deputy Collector P. F. Jones and Possesmen Moser and H. W. Jones. He was returning with five gallons and had substituted a horse and buggy for an automobile.

Lail was arrested about 3:30 Saturday morning by Chief Lentz, Sergeant Sigmon and Special Officer L. D. Frye as he entered Hickory with the booze in company with Jeff Gilbert. He said there was plenty more where that came from.

AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

"Unanswered Prayer," will be the subject Pastor Bradshaw will read and talk on at the prayermeeting tonight. This is one of the most important subjects in the Bible and of this time. All the members should hear it, especially the young christian who wants to set out in life prepared for effectual work. It is hoped they will avail themselves of these means of grace. Let all go praying for the presence, power and guidance of the holy spirit and thus get a much needed blessing.

CONDUCT LARGELY RESPONSIBLE FOR BRIGHT'S DISEASE

W. A. Evans, probably the country's best known health writer, comes an optimistic note for the person suffering with Bright's disease. He strongly emphasizes the point that if the first signs of this disease are accepted as warnings, and a change of living habits instituted, that life would be prolonged and the disease entirely cured. He advises a strict observance of the doctor's orders as to diet, as one's diet is the most important item in the cure. Dr. Evans writing on this subject says:

"Of all diseases Bright's disease is most influenced by habits of eating and life generally. This holds true to every form of disease, if he will live according to the rules, he can add a few months or a few years to his life. If he has a chronic but slowly progressing downward form he can almost live out the expectancy of a man of his years by playing the game fair. If he has a mild form of the disease he can live the law, and he will find that his symptoms will entirely disappear.

"The relation of conduct of Bright's disease is not limited to the curative side. Many men earn their Bright's by improper habits. Some get it from poisoning by lead or alcohol or other poisons, some from infection with ordinary forms of contagion, with rheumatism, or with venereal disease. Some get it from overeating, some from such infractions of the laws of well being as 'staying' on the streets until late at night engaged in occupations or in associations which are responsible for their disorders." However, what we are now considering is what a man can do by care of himself, his diet, and his habits generally, to prolong his life or to cure himself when he learns that he has Bright's disease. "The diet of a person with chronic nephritis should be simple in quality and limited in quantity. He should especially refrain from eating heavy meals. White 'neither a feast nor a famine' is advisable, the former is the more harmful."

BIG VAUDEVILLE SHOW HUB THURSDAY NIGHT

The following is from the Gaffney, S. C., Ledger:

"The New Star Theatre made another big hit this week, when it put on 'George Earle's Own Show.' for three nights this week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with matinee Wednesday.

Like Berger, the new progressive manager, has worked a transformation in Gaffney's amusement house and made it one of the best in the state.

The George Earle show plays at such houses as the Piedmont in Charlotte, Biou in Spartanburg and the best houses in larger cities. It is a clean, high class performance, with a talented aggregation of vaudeville artists.

Miss Jessie Huston, the prima donna, is pretty and attractive, sings beautifully, and has been featured in numerous big city attractions, such as "The Time, the Place and the Girl," "Three Twins," etc. She captured the huge audience on Monday night with her "Batterly Song."

Guy Rarick is an eccentric comedian promise, and as a laugh producer brings down the house. Arthur Tarkman is the capable juvenile. Andrews and Thompson, characters and specialties, are a crackerjack vaudeville couple, whose concertina interpolations charm every one. Miss Lucy Tackman is very pretty as the ingenue, and dances and sings superbly.

George Earle of Chicago is the manager and has had years of experience. He has been on the road with his present company two years. See this show at the Hub theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.
