LIVER DIDN'T ACT DIGESTION WAS BAD

Says 65 year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved After a Few Doses of Black-Draught.

Meadowville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fit. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me. My appetite was gone. I was very weak. . . I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial as I knew it was highly recommended for this trouble. I began taking it. I felt better after a few doses. My appetite improved and I became stronger. My bowels acted naturally and the least trouble was soon righted with a few doses of Black-Draught." Seventy years of successful use has made Thedford's Black-Draught a standard, household remedy. Every member of every family, at times, need the help that Black-Draught can give in cleansing the system and relieving the troubles that come from constipation, indigestion, lazy liver, etc. You cannot keep well unless your stomach, liver and bowels are in good working order. Keep them that way. Try Black-Draught. It acts promptly, gently and in a natural way. If you feel sluggish, take a dose tonight. You will feel fresh tomorrow. Price 25c. a package—One cent a dose All druggists. J. 69

Local and Personal

Mr. J. A. Martin has gone to Washington, D. C., on a brief business trip.

Miss Mary Connelly left today for Charleston, S. C. where she has accepted a position.

Miss Kate Miller returned to Gastonia today after spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Sunday was as warm a day as this section is likely to feel this summer. The mercury registered 92 degrees. Monday it stood at 91.

Dr. and Mrs. P. D. Pence of St. Charles, Va., are attending commencement at Lenoir College, Dr. Pence being a graduate of the class of 1904.

Governor Bickett will deliver the literary address at Davenport College Lenoir, tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The great fire in Atlanta appears to be the worst that has ever occurred in the south, being even more serious than the Augusta fire over a year ago.

If amateur gardeners are desirous of visiting a real garden, they might ask permission of Mr. J. A. Sellers to inspect his and learn from him some of the tricks of the trade.

Rain in the western states caused the postponement of all big baseball games and showers are due in this section in a few days. A good rain would make the potato crop.

Senator Overman and Representative Webb both in the neighbors of Hickory are in charge of the session of the senate and house and head the conferees from their respective bodies.

Statesville is to organize an ambulance for service on the French front. Julian Morrison, son of the late J. K. Morrison, will be the driver.

Attorney Joe Murphy has ransacked history to find out how many men North Carolina furnished in the Revolutionary and Civil wars and the figures are interesting. In a population of 385,000 the colony contributed 25,000 soldiers to Washington's cause, and in a population of 992,000 the state sent 162,000 men to the firing line or the home guards in the War Between the States. Of this number 38,000 never returned. The figures for the Civil war probably are too high, as most historians place the number of troops at 127,000.

GERMANS ARE DRIVEN FROM POSITIONS BY FRENCH

With the French Armies on the French Front, from a Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press, May 21.—While the Germans were throwing masses of men against the French positions along the Chemin des Dames, only to suffer defeat with terrific losses, the French last night effected at attack in the Moronvillers section and drove the Germans from some of their strongest positions. The French plans were brilliantly conceived and executed without a hitch. Their objective was most difficult; a hilly range filled with deep caverns afforded shelter to hundreds of men and machine guns but the French infantry stormed the heights of Casque and Teton, respectively 785 and 654 feet in height, and carried them with a rush while other columns captured the trenches lining the northern slopes of Mount Carnillet.

The result of these operations gives the French a commanding view on their left. The value placed on the possession of these hills is shown by the violence of the German counter-attack, in the course of the early morning, which everywhere broke down. They left more than 800 prisoners in the hands of the French, while hundreds of bodies of Germans strew the ground and lie in the cavernous shelters.

Mr. Roosevelt's Enormous Casualties

New York World.

We regret to report that further casualties of investigation have reduced Mr. Roosevelt's all-conquering army from 180,000 to 871.

No other troops in the war have sustained such enormous losses. Under the fire of publicity, companies, regiments, even brigades, melt away without leaving a solitary survivor to tell the tale. "Thermopila had its messenger but the Alamo had none" exclaimed Benton, and so it is likely to be with the Roosevelt army.

The World cannot agree, however, with those harsh and unsympathetic critics who accuse Mr. Roosevelt of having deliberately deceived the country as to the strength of his famous division which held up the army in congress for nearly three weeks. Mr. Roosevelt has a fervent and boyish imagination. He is capable of believing anything he wants to believe, and no doubt he convinced himself that he had 180,000 men ready to start for France and take their places on the firing-line.

The fact that these men existed only on paper is irrelevant, immaterial and unimportant. Mr. Roosevelt's mind can instantly transform a paper soldier into a flesh-and-blood soldier, equip him for war and hustle him into the trenches before the breathless reporters for whom he has telephoned can reach his hotel.

War is always a depressing business, and if the Roosevelt army has contributed anything to the gayety of the nation, let us be grateful, for there will be gloom enough when the real troops reach the front and the real casualties begin.

Engagement Announced

A Williston, S. C., special to the Columbia State of Monday contains the announcement of the approaching marriage of Mr. M. Loy Bolick of Conover to Miss Wadelle Lucille Weathersbee, and Hickory will have them as residents, Mr. Bolick having a modern dwelling erected on Thirteenth avenue. The wedding will take place on June 21. No announcement of the season will occur more genuine good wishes than this. Miss Weathersbee is a former student of Chicago College, Columbia, and is popular in social circles throughout the state. She has a following of devoted friends won by the beauty of her exquisite character, that is so manifest to all who know her.

Mr. Bolick is prominently identified with business interests in North Carolina, and is held in the most cordial esteem by friends that have been won by his affable manners, courtesy and ability.

The young people will reside in Hickory, N. C., where a lovely home is being erected.

Mock Wedding Enjoyable

Hickory R. 1, May 17.—Saturday evening at the home of the Misses Hoover the Social Book club entertained the young gentlemen of the community with a mock wedding.

Just as the clock struck nine Misses Ruth Whitener and Nina Reaser softly sang "The Owl and the Pussy Cat," and immediately following played the wedding march tunelessly on tin cans. The procession was led by Russell Winfield Whitener, who officiated at the mock ceremony, followed by little Miss Margaret sister of the bride who bore the ring in a beautiful mullen stalk.

Next came the flower girl, little Misses Rebecca Ramseur and Edith Shuford. The six bridesmaids were Misses Ora and Rachel Hoover, Annie Mary and Lois Shuford and Birdie Hilton, who formed a semi-circle from the door to the arch. The maid of honor was Miss Linda Ramseur, who came tripping lightly followed by the bride, Miss Mary Hoover, leaning on the arm of her father. Last of all came the groom Sam Hilton, with his best man, Ransom Wilfong. Amid laughter and tears "Rev." Mr. Whitener's ceremony was richly performed. After the words pronouncing the man and woman were said, the guests assembled in the dining room, where ice cream and cake were served. Guests were Misses Pauline Whitener and Clara Rader from Startown; Marshall Bolick and Henry Yoder from Newton; Ray Newman, Raleigh; Jaks and Julius Shuford and Clifton Hilton, Oakwood Farm; Earle Yoder of Yodertown; Paul Yoder, Hickory; Pierce Conrad, Blackburn and Henry Ramseur, Hickory.

MAY BUY FIRE TRUCK

The aldermen Thursday night discussed informally the idea of buying a fire truck. The town has been playing in luck in escaping disastrous fires, but there is no reason to believe that it will always be fortunate in this respect. The truck proposed would cost between $1,500 and $2,000 equipped with chemical engine, hose, etc., all ready for business. It is felt that the town should have this protection. The town has been playing in luck in escaping disastrous fires, but there is no reason to believe that it will always be fortunate in this respect. The truck is needed, and its purchase ought to reduce insurance premiums but it is said no reduction would be secured. Newton Enterprise.

MALADY IN CATAWBA COUNTY Baffles the Physicians

Newton May 22.—A malady that has baffled physicians as well as laymen has seized his entire family of seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Marlowe, who moved from the Startown section of the county this winter to the southern part of town; two children have died while another has been at the point of death; a fourth is quite ill and three others have been taken ill, all with the same symptoms. A well is suspected and water has been sent away for analysis. An unusual pest of flies around a perfectly kept home and premises, is regarded as the cause of the trouble also; and today it was reported that in a piece of woods across a field from the house, the dead and decayed bodies of five horses, a cow and a hog had been found. Most persons thereupon believed that these foul carcasses had furnished the origin of the strange sickness and that the flies had transmitted it to the home.
